KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below. From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District. Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District.

St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.
DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents: — In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of iameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours.

B. J. Keudall & Co., Gents:—in justice to you and myself, I think I cought to let you know that I have removed Two Bone Spavins with Kendall's Spavin Cure," one very large one: don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well. not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felf. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great.

Respectfully yours.

GHAS. R.PARKER.

A General sitting in front of a hotel in time of war, heard a newsboy erying his papers, " all about the battle." The general bought a paper, but could not find the account of the engagement. Turning to the newsboy, he said : " I do not see any battle." "No," said the boy, "you never will if you sit here!"

A rather bashful young man, upon his first appearance in society, was so unlucky as to make several unfortunate remarks. Becoming more and more confused he sank deeper and deeper into the mire, until at last he left the room in despair, with the apology: "Ladies, if I have said anything that appears to mean anything, I beg leave to apologize.

A pedagogue told one of his scholars, a son of Emerald Isle, to spell hostility. "Ho-r-s-e," commenced Pat.—
"Not horse-tility," said the teacher;

All of one long happy hour mamma had been reading to the little ones Sunday afternoon, and talking to them about heaven and the angels with their snowy wings. Suddenly Jack shouted, "Mother, when I'm an angel I want to be a shanghai!" Shocked silence on the part of the family circle, followed by the explanatory clause by Jack.—"Feathers on my legs, you know!" Mother dismissed the congregation without the usual benediction.

A Sharp Banker.

A banker down in Lynchburg, Va., thought nobody this side of Connecticut could get ahead of him in' a financial transaction, but he knows better now .-He went marketing the other day and asked an old colored woman the price of strawberries. She told him they were 15 cents a quart, but, "bein' 'twas him," if he'd take three quarts they might go for half a dollar. He decided to take three quarts, and it was not till he got home that he found he had been eachred out of 5 cents by an old colored woman.

Very Careful of His Stomach. A recently arrived foreigner lately stopped at one of our hotels, and at the supper table began to play fearful havoc with a plate of hard-boiled eggs, scooping out the yelk and leaving the white untouched. Just as he was devouring the tenth one the waiter remonstrated with him, calling his attention to his wastefulness. "Good gracious, man!" he remarked, "you vould not have me eat ten vites, vould you? "Well, you know, I couldn't send him to school, because thanks to Governor Roberts, there are no free schools, and I could not afford to send him to a private school." "Yes, I know that is so." "Well, I sent him away from Galveston out to the frontier, and as luck would have it, he was convicted of horse-stealing, and got five years in the penitentiary." "That was bad." "No it wasn't, for you see at the Penitentiary be could learn a trade and become a useful citizen." "Well, that's good." "No it ain't, for Governor Roberts has par-
