KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a week cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours, F. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell! Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one; don't know how long it has been there, but when I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no more to be seen of him so that he is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but it does for all what it has done for me; its sale will be very great.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. This remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for beast as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or Six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., KENOSHA FALLS, VERMONT.

"Kendall's Spavin Cure" is now sold by all the leading wholesale druggists and a large number of prominent retail druggists.

MEN'S WEAR. Don't you want some cheap goods for Pants and Suits? If you do, don't fail to examine the splendid assortment for sale by F. MORTIMER. You can suit yourself in style and price.

Some one asked a lad how it was he was so short for his age. He replied: "Father keeps me so busy I ain't time to grow."

"Man," says Victor Hugo, "was the conundrum of the eighteenth century; woman is the conundrum of the nineteenth century." An American editor adds: "We can't guess her, but will never her up—no, never!"

A religious tract, called "Put not your trust in Princes," was thrown into a saloon of a simple old German. He read the title, and soliloquized: "Well, I don't put some trust in Princes. They must pay der cash in dis shop chust der same as a vite mans."

A Danbury young man offended one of the lady clerks in a fancy goods store at a party a few evenings ago.—A day or two later he went into the store and inquired if she had "gentleman's gloves." She answered, "Yes." "I want to get a pair," he said. "Who are they for?" she asked, looking him straight in the eyes. "Why—for-me," he gasped, turning scarlet under the insinuation in her inquiry.

It is wonderful what fools boys are. A charming widow of Stillwater owns a nice boy, and a man from St. Paul wants to be appointed deputy father to the lad. While the St. Paul man was strolling down the street with the boy he asked: "Bub, does your mother bang her hair?" And the fool boy answered: "Oh, no, but you ought to see her bang dad's head. Guess the minister didn't know every thing when he told pap to prepare to die. Prepare! Why, he was just aching to die!"

A flock of girls is called a bevy; a bevy of wolves a pack; a pack of thieves a gang; a gang of angels a host; a host of porpoises a shoal; a shoal of buffaloes a herd; a herd of children a troop; a troop of partridges a covey; a covey of beauties a galaxy; a galaxy of ruffians a horde; a horde of rubbish a heap; a heap of oxen a drove; a drove of blackguards a mob; a mob of whales a school; a school of worshippers a congregation; a congregation of engineers a corps; a corps of robbers a band; a band of locusts a swarm, and a swarm of people is called a crowd.

A Chester county boy, aged twelve years, while running from Sabbath-school, fell from the top of a fence and broke his arm. And this is the second time he had the same arm fractured, in falling from the same panel of fence, and in returning from Sunday-school.—There is a moral in this—but bad little boys mustn't think it teaches that it is wrong to go to Sunday-school. The probabilities are that if this unfortunate boy had been returning from a game of base ball or from fishing, instead of breaking his arm at each fall he would have broken his neck each time. The moral is, that he should creep under the fence instead of climbing over it.

Anecdote of Judge Dooly.

Judge Dooly used to be a noted Georgia character. He was the same man who declined to fight a duel when threatened with publication as a coward in the newspapers, and said he would rather fill ten newspapers than one coffin. He did accept a challenge once, from a man who had Saint Vitus's dance.—When they reached the field his opponent had a very lively attack of it.—Dooly very coolly left his post, and cutting a forked stick, stuck it in the ground in front of his opponent.—"What does this mean?" asked his opponent. "Why," says Dooly, "I want you to rest your pistol in that fork, so that you can steady your aim. If you shoot at me with your hands shaking so you'll pepper me full of holes the first fire!" The duel was indefinitely postponed.

A Georgia preacher recently spent a night in the rural districts—in the very rural districts. There were twenty-one in the family, and he slept in the room with the father and seven of the boys, while the mother and daughters occupied the only remaining rooms.—The next morning he had great difficulty in washing his face, owing to the absence of fashionable facilities, and combed his hair with a seven-toothed relic of an old tucking comb. While he was making his toilet one of the boys took a deep interest in the novel process, and asked: "Mister, do you wash every mornin'?" "I do." "And comb your hair too?" "Yes." "Well, don't it look to you sometimes like you is a heap of trouble to yourself?"
