KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. F. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans Baptist. St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a rib-bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours, N. F. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell! Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880.

R. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one out, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success. Our knowledge for best as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors.

DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Enosburg Falls, Vermont.

"Kendall's Spavin Cure" is now sold by all the leading wholesale druggists and a large number of prominent retail druggists.

Some one says a man must be either an anvil or a hammer; but how many are nothing but bellows?

What sort of fruit do a fretful wife and quarrelsome husband resemble? A prickly pear.

See here; John, is your sweet-heart a factory girl? Yes, William, satis-factory."

If nod gould four wisin 10 days, return, &c." was the inscription on a letter received at a post-office in Schuylkill county one day last week.

Mercy!" exclaimed and old lady upon first seeing an engraving of the passage of the Red Sea by the children os Israel: "Mercy! what a family that man had!"

"Mother," said a little squarebuilt urchin, about five years old, "why can't the teacher make me monitor sometimes? I can lick every boy in my class but one."

The man who goes fishing and sits in a cramp-inviting posture on a narrow thwart from early morn till dewy eve and calls it fun is the same chap that never goes to church because the pews aren't comfortable.

An English physician having carefully noted the effects of oatmeal on the human system, declares that it makes people cross, and stingy, jealous and sour-tempered. What an awful lot of it some folks must eat.

"I would box your ears," said a young lady to her stupid and tiresome admirer, "if—" "If what?" he anxiously inquired. "If I could get a box large enough for the purpose," she replied.

An English parson recently alluded in a sermon to the prodigal son and the wages of sin. A young chap in the congregation thought some personal allusions to himself were intended, and he horsewhipped that preacher the next day.

A shoemaker was arrested for bigamy and brought before a squire.— "Which wife will he be obliged to take?" asked a bystander. Smith, always ready for a joke, replied: "He is a cobbler, and, of course, must stick to his last."

A sailor was recently brought before a magistrate for beating his wife, when the magistrate attempted to reach his heart by asking him if he did not know that his wife was the "weaker vessel." "If she is she ought not to carry so much sail!" replied Jack.

Prayed for the Donkey.

Dr. Henderson, of Galisliels, in the course of one of his pastoral calls, came to the house of a woman who had lost her husband a short time before, and had been left with a large non-productive family; naturally the minister inquired after the health of the household. "Well," said the woman, "we're all right except puir Davie, he's sair troubled wi' a bad leg, and not fit to work." The doctor could not recollect who Davie was, but, as in duty bound, prayed that Davie's affliction might be blessed to him, and also that it might not be of long duration. But going home and consulting his wife, he said: "Davie, Davie, which one of the boys is Davie?" "Hoot, hoot! you ought to ken wha Davie is," she replied; "Davie is nae son, Davie is the cuddy" (donkey.)

The Dutchman's Boy.

An old German who lived down here at South Chester sent his son to a high school but as the boy didn't seem to learn anything in four years, the old man thought there must be some favoritism shown his neighbor's children, so he filled his pocket with greenbacks and started for the school-house. The principal was glad to see him. The father said: "I come to see why is de reason dat my child don't learn fast as de rest of de children." Well, I don't know. It may be because he has not the capacity to learn fast." The German asked: "How much are dey? I put $25 in my pocket to buy dat boy whatever would keep him up wid de rest of de children." The teacher said: I mean his mental ability." But the old man persisted, "Well, how much is dey? "I'll have one if it cost me de whole of dis money." "Dear sir, you are very much mistaken in the idea I wish to convey. I suppose it is because his intellectual faculties cannot be developed as fast as some of the rest." The kind Teutonic father couldn't tumble, so he went away growling that he would put that boy to work, and he did.
