KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. F. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DE. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent and with it cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that ring-bone was forming I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours, F. N. GRANGER. Perseverance Will Tell!

Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880. R. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONESPAIN with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. F. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which will think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with so unequalled success, to our knowledge, for heat as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburg Falls, Vermont.

"Kendall's Spavin Cure" is now sold by all the leading wholesale druggists and a large number of prominent retail druggists.

How He Knew Him.

The following amusing examination recently occurred in a court-room in one of the Blue grass counties of Kentucky: General H., a prominent lawyer of that region, was defending a prisoner charged with horse stealing, and the witness was swearing as to the identity of the stolen horse. General H., "How do you know that this is the same horse?"

Witness (hesitatingly): "Well, I just know it is."

"Well, how?"

"I can't tell exactly how, but I know it as well as I know you, General H."

"Well how do you know that I am General H.?"

"Because just before dinner I heard Mr. C. say: 'General H., let's go and take a drink,' and you went." The identity was satisfactory to the Blue Grass jury.

A colored man was busily engaged in sawing some wood for a Galveston gentleman. The "man and brother" had a large Masonic breastpin on his shirt bosom.

"Do you colored Masons and white Masons affiliate?"

"Don't fillyate wuff a cuss."

"What's the matter?"

"Donno, boss, but I've tried it. Dar is ba keeper in dis town what toled dis henh berry same emblem. I was in distress; hadn't a dram all dat morning. I cum in and gabe de distress signal."

"Did he respond?"

"He didn't respond right. He made a motion at the door with one hand and reached under the bar. I made the sign once moah and he fetched me between the shoulders wid de bung starter, jest as I was gettin' out de doah."

The Rev. Daniel W. Poor, D. D., is known among his clerical associates as an inveterate punster. On one occasion, after preaching a glowing sermon, he was met, as he descended from the pulpit, by a gentleman who commenced a somewhat fulsome laudation of the discourse. An intimate friend of the doctor tapped him on the shoulder, with the remark, "Dr. Poor, can you stand so much soft-soap as that?"

"Why, yes, if there is not too much lye in it," was the quick response.

On another occasion, being at a bridal reception of a couple of the name of Moore, he, in saluting the bride, remarked, "Madam, you are one of the few who can say, The More I want, the More I have."

Yesterday Bill Hooley stopped in front of a fruit stand on Galveston avenue, and picking out several peaches, squeezed them until the stuffing came out of them, trying to find out if they were ripe, and then put them back.— "Look here; I can't sell them peaches after you have squeezed them." "You didn't sell 'em before I squeezed 'em, did you?" "No but—" "Well if you don't sell 'em after I've squeezed 'em, you ain't any worse off than you were before. You must learn to reason man before you talk."

Just before visiting the menagerie, Johnnie had a passage at arms with the young aunt who assisted at his toilet, and with whom he flew into a rage.— Arrived at the menagerie, Johnnie was immensely interested by a foreign animal with long lithe body. "What animal is that mamma?" he asked. "It is called the anteater, my son." After long silence—"Mamma can't we bring Aunt Mary here, some day?"

A Syracuse man came home from fishing the other day, and meeting a friend asked him in the house to see the fish. Said he: "Come in, come in, and I'll show you two of the largest and finest speckled beauties you ever saw." When they got into the house the friend was introduced to the fisherman's two freckled daughters.

"Your visits remind me of the growth of a successful newspaper," said Uncle Jabez, leaning his chin on his cane, and glancing at William Henry, who was sweet on Angelica. "Why so?" inquired William Henry. Well they commenced on a weekly, grew to be a tri-weekly, and have now become daily with a Sunday supplement."

The boy stood in the melon-patch. When all but him had fled, And visions of a royal feast Went dancing through his head. But the farmer and the bull-dog came, And the boy, Oh! where is he? Go ask the doctorman who patched His sore an-at-a-mee!

At a down-east revival an old lady prayed fervently for the "young lambs of the flock." Another lady asked, "Wouldn't it be well to include the old ewes? A litter pervaded the meeting."
