district, who both reside in the borough, were, on Saturday tendered a serenade by the Bloomfield Cornet Band. Each of the gentlemen made a short speech in response. Their remarks were in good taste and were very creditable to them. There is no doubt in regard to this district being well represented in the next Senate no matter which candidate is the successful one.

The Second District S. S. Association of Perry county will meet in convention in the Mount Zion Lutheran church, in Spring twp., on Wednesday, 6th of October at 10 o'clock, A. M. There will be three sessions, morning, afternoon and evening. All friends of the Sabbath school are cordially invited to attend and take part in the exercises.

A Narrow Escape.—A. M. Markel, Esq., met with an accident on Friday evening that might have had a serious ending. In coming down the hill near the Juniata pottery the king bolt to his buggy broke and the front wheels went on, leaving the balance of the vehicle drop, throwing out Mr. Markel. The horse tried to get away but he retained his hold on the reins and succeeded in stopping him. He was somewhat bruised about the shoulders, but was not otherwise hurt.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

The eldest son of Mr. Con. Fallor, of Carlisle, made a very narrow escape from a horrible death a few days ago.—It appears that the little boy got possession of a bottle containing washing fluid and drank some of it. It was only through the persistent efforts of the medical attendant that the child's life was spared.

Mr. Levi Merritt's life was suddenly terminated on Friday evening last at about eight o'clock, whilst sitting in a chair in his own house. He had been helping to raise potatoes during the day, and what we can learn did not complain of any sickness. The cause of his death is pronounced heart disease. He lived in Millin twp., and was a native of Ohio, having come from that State, about time of the late war.—Newville Star.

On last Tuesday night the residence of Mr. Benj. Wolf, near the Reading ore banks took fire from the stove. The family were in bed at the time and had it not been for a Mr. Meals who was passing and discovered the fire, the building would have been consumed. Mr. M. awoke the family and the flames were promptly subdued. Part of the roof was burned and other portions of the house damaged.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

On Thursday of last week while standing or sitting on the floor of Mr. A. Rice's barn, at Waterloo, in conversation with some men, Mr. Abalom Williams sunk down and expired in a few moments without seemingly any sickness or pain. He had just partaken of a hearty dinner, and to all human appearances was in excellent health and spirits.

The only child of Dr. John S. Killmer, a bright and interesting little son, died very suddenly about noon on Sabbath. It is supposed to have had a congestive chill, which terminated in death.—Port Royal Times.

Last spring Mrs. Magruder, wife of Jackson Magruder, who lives in Walker twp., had one bushel of potatoes brought from Ohio. The potatoes were planted, and the yield is fifty bushels.—The potato is called the "Ohio Beauty."

The Millin Sentinel says: The Presbytery to which Rev. Benaugh belonged in Philadelphia, has released him from his ministerial work there, and he may be expected in this place before long to preach for the people who called him.

A one-year old boy of Mrs. James Cargill, residing in Patterson, was severely scalded on Monday afternoon by a can of hot jelly bursting and its contents thrown over the child's head and face.—The eyes are much injured and the head and face scalded in blisters. Hopes are entertained of his recovery although there will be some disfigurement of the face and impaired vision. Dr. Banks is rendering the necessary medical attention.

On Monday afternoon, Martin, a six year old son of Philo Pannebaker, who resides in this place, was severely scalded by upsetting a tea kettle of boiling hot water over his body while being about the stove in the kitchen. Large patches of skin came off his breast and arms when his clothing was removed.—The little fellow suffered great agony for the first twelve hours, but under the care of Dr. Banks, he is now considerably relieved and hopes are entertained of his recovery.—Democrat & Register.

What Everybody Wants, Is a pleasant, reliable medicine that never does any harm, and prevents and cures disease by keeping the stomach in perfect order, the bowels regular, and the kidneys and liver active. Such a medicine is Parker's Ginger Tonic. It relieves every case, and we have seen stacks of letters from thousands who have been saved and cured by it. See other column.—Tribune. 37 4t

It is said that the Arabs in mentioning their valuable possessions always class the wife second, the children third, and the horse first. Many persons in this country who know the value of the horse have provided themselves with a copy of Kendall's Horse Book for further information. You can do so too. Sent by mail for 25 cents. Address TIMES office, New Bloomfield, Pa.

Cider.—Persons wishing to made cider should go to Wm. A. & Jas. F. Lightner's cider mill. It has a capacity of forty barrels per day. It is located in Sheaffer's Valley, this county.

FOR THE TIMES.

Mr. Editor:—The Upper End can still boast of some improvements. In Germantown, the Morrisons have erected a store house, while Mr. James Lewis, and Mrs. Margaret Swarts have put up new dwelling houses. Mr. J. T. Robinson has opened out storekeeping in J. F. Hockenberry's new house, and does a thriving business. If you want a town to improve, put a fire into it. It has been the case with Germantown. In the country, William Beaton is erecting a barn in place of the one destroyed by fire this summer. James R. Shovaker put up a dwelling house; A. G. Smith and Jacob Sheaffer large barn; George M. Burkett a new house; Wm. Arnold a house, and Andrew Gutshall, Sr., intends to erect a dwelling house this fall yet. Peter Long has refitted up his mill, and Andrew Trostle has sold his mill for $5,800 to a man in Adams county. Never a better corn crop in the Upper End than this year.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Lippincott's Magazine for October opens with "A Chapter of American Explorations," by Wm. H. Hildes, describing the perilous journey of Major Power and his party through the wonderful canons of Colorado, with numerous illustrations; and among other articles are the following: Adam and Eve; Seven weeks a Missionary; Horse-racing in France; Studies in the Slums; Glimpses of Portugal and the Portuguese; Our monthly Gospel; Literature of the day, and many other interesting articles. Specimen Number mailed, postage paid, to any address, on receipt of 20 cents. Yearly subscription $4.00. Address J. B. Lippincott & Co., Publishers, 715 and 717 Market Street, Philadelphia.

The North American Review.

Mr. Thomas A. Edison contributes an article to the October number of the "North American Review," in which he states that he has succeeded in making the electric light entirely practicable for all illuminating purposes. He shows the advantages of electricity over gas, and explains how his system is to be introduced. Among other articles in the October number of the Review are: "The Democratic Party judged by its History," by Emory A. Storrs; "The Ruins of Central America," by Desre Charney; "The Observance of the Sabbath," by Rev. Dr. Leonard Bacon; "The Campaign of 1862," by Judge D. Thew Wright; "The Taxation of Church Property," by Rev. Dr. A. W. Pitzer; and "Recent Progress in Astronomy," by Prof. E. S. Holden.

Good Company, Number Twelve.

Good Company, Number Twelve ($3.00 a year; Springfield, Mass.), closes the volume, and subscriptions should be made at once. A specimen copy will be sent to any one not familiar with it for ten cents.

This number contains three stories, and many other interesting articles. Send for a specimen copy. It contains much that will interest both old and young.

Life of Gen. Garfield.

Gen. J. S. Brisbin, of the United States Army, whose reputation as an author, made in the production of a number of popular books, is no less brilliant than his career as a soldier, has prepared for the press an exhaustive life of Gen. Garfield, which is destined to rank as the standard work on that subject. It is prepared with the special consent and assistance of Gen. Garfield himself, the author and the subject having been intimate and life-time friends. These facts will give the book not only the utmost fullness of statement, but absolute correctness.

There is a fascination in following the career of this man. It is a grand illustration of what can be accomplished by lofty aspirations sustained by determined will, energy and courage. Beginning life without advantages of education, money, family or friends, with no promise of future, save that to be wrought by bold, persistent work—he made his way against obstacles and prejudices such as few men have ever encountered. And his triumph is complete. It is a grand illustration of human achievements, unaltered by circumstances. And a valuable feature in his career, is that it strikingly illustrates to every man and boy that there are excellent possibilities in his reach if he will go about the accomplishment in a direct, consistent and determined way. The lesson of his life is an encouraging one.

Gen. Garfield has figured prominently and influentially in most of the stirring and exciting events in our country's history for the past twenty years, and his biography will be a valuable history of that important period which will be of lasting interest to every reader. It will be a work of more than passing value, and hence different from the ordinary Campaign Book. It is illustrated, and is sold by subscription through canvassing agents, to whom it affords a rare chance to make money. It is published by the well known house of HUBBARD BROS., 723 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.
