

THE TIMES. Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after Monday, June 21, 1880, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing train numbers, departure times, and destinations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburg.

Public Sales.—We call attention to sales of Real and Personal Property as follows: October 21—J. B. Hench will sell a lot of ground situated at Camp Hill, Cumberland county, Pa., having thereon erected a good brick house with store room attached, stable, and other outbuildings.

See advertisement of Valuable Farms in another column.

Brief Items. Correspondents who wish their articles published must have them in not later than Saturday. Letters received Monday morning scarcely ever get published.

Will. Lightner, a graduate of the Democrat office has gone to Fort Wayne, Indiana.

A. G. Linn, a graduate of the Freeman office, has been visiting his friends in this vicinity. Andy purposes going to Philadelphia next week.

A Portable Steam Sawmill is at present located at the head of the Narrows, on the Newport road.

Two cows were recently stolen from Samuel Liddick, and one from John Lowe, of Buffalo township.

Chas. H. Smiley, Esq., of this borough, delivered a fine address at the Soldier's Re-Union, in Millin, on Thursday last.

A few days ago, Fremont, son of Jas. E. Stephens, of Buffalo twp., had one of his fingers pretty badly smashed by getting it in the machinery of a grain drill in operation.

Hon. H. G. Fisher, Republican candidate for Congress in this District, will speak in this borough on Tuesday evening, the 28th of September.

A short time since it cost a number of young ladies and gentlemen in Juniata twp., $16.50 for breaking the Sabbath and appropriating some other person's water melons.

On Saturday last, John Moore, Esq., accidentally stepped upon a double bit ax, and received a severe cut in his left foot. The "Squire" consequently has to carry a cane.

Curt Miller, the younger apprentice in this office, unfortunately got three of his toes severely cut by our Steam Power Press last week. No bones broken. He made a narrow escape from having his foot taken off.

The Twentieth Annual Exhibition of the Juniata County Agricultural Society will be held on their grounds at Port Royal, Juniata co., on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 6th, 7th and 8th, 1880.

The Harrisburg Nailworks located at West Fairview, Cumberland co., Pa., under the efficient management of F. Kellifer and Geo. Shutt, employs over 300 hands, is running full time, and can scarce supply the demand for nails.

Mr. Wm. Musgrave, a former resident of this county, is boss roller at the above mills. He looks hale and hearty after forty years service at the rolls.

Rev. J. M. Johnson, Pastor of the M. E. Church of this place, left here on the 8th inst., to attend the wedding of his sister in Huntingdon, intending to return by the end of the week. He did not return then, having been detained by the sad death of his brother, who was accidentally drowned in Shaffer's Creek, near Moorstown, while on his way to the wedding. His body was discovered on Friday. He was about thirty-five years of age and leaves a wife and family. The above was the cause of Rev. Johnson's appointments not being filled on Sunday a week.

A new fashion magazine, called the "Ladies' Monthly Review," comes to us from Ramsdell's Philadelphia Fashion House. It is devoted to the illustration and description of the newest styles in vogue for ladies, Misses and Children. Also contains a variety of articles concerning Dress Materials, Trimmings, Millinery, Linerie, ect., ect. Send five cents for sample copy to Ramsdell, 1113 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

We are this week receiving a pretty line of Fall and Winter Dress Goods, which we selected last week in New York. It costs nothing to look at them. F. MORTIMER.

Persons wishing to purchase Carpets of any style or quality, will be sure to get suited if they go to the store of Samuel Adams, Opera House, Harrisburg. His assortment is large, and excellent taste and judgment has been shown in selecting the stock. His prices are right too as we know by personal inspection.

Soldiers' Re-Union.—In accordance with the action of the Association at their last annual meeting, held at Liverpool, Thursday, Oct. 16, 1879, the Sixth Annual Re-Union of the Veteran Association of the Soldiers of Perry county will be held at Marysville, Penn'a, October 7, 1880. Able speakers will be present.—His Excellency, Gov. H. M. Hoyt, and Staff, have been invited. Bands of Music have been secured. Everybody invited to participate. Chief Marshal, Shuman Miller.

Committee of Arrangements—J. A. Seidel, Dr. G. W. Epply, S. S. Leiby, J. D. Miller, and B. F. McNear.

The following named persons are collectors of State and County tax for 1880: Blain, James Magee; Bloomfield, Henry Bentzell; Buffalo, Daniel Mether; Carroll, John D. Carberry; Centre, Henry Myers; Duncannon, Wm. J. Stewart, Jr.; Greenwood, P. S. Chubb; Howe, H. H. Hortling; Jackson, John W. Hench; Juniata, Wm. Kough; Landisburg, S. P. Lightner; Liverpool, B. Wm. A. Wenner; Liverpool T. I. Whitmer; Madison, S. K. Morrow; Marysville, Jacob Kippie; Miller, Henry Reeder; Millerstown, Wm. Kipp; New Buffalo, N. C. Heyd; Newport, E. B. Wise; Oliver, Benj. Baltasser; Penn, John G. Rose; Rye, W. A. Souder; Sandy Hill, John Bernhelsel; Saville, Wm. Shull; Spring, John W. Kell; Toboyne, Z. Wilhide; Tuscarora, Jos. Leonard; Tyrone, Aaron Ditty; Watts, Isaac Higgins; Wheatfield, J. C. Meek.

A Tramp Killed.—Between 9 and 10 o'clock on Monday morning of last week, the body of an unknown man was found on the track of the Penn'a Rail Road, about a quarter of a mile below Perdix station. Upon inquiry it proved to be that of a German tramp on his way to Philadelphia, who met his death while jumping from an eastern bound freight train drawn by engine No. 837. His right arm was cut off above the elbow and his head literally crushed, causing instant death. His name could not be correctly ascertained, but appears to be James Eagans, of Sausburg, Germany, aged nineteen. Justice Fenn held an inquest over the body soon after the accident, and the jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts, exonerating the railroad company and its employees from all blame. The body was given to undertaker Brabsan for interment.

A Suicidal Failure.—Yesterday afternoon a woman named Eisenberg, residing on Pennsylvania avenue, above the round house, attempted suicide in a highly original and extremely startling manner. For some reason she was tired of life, the county fair had no charms for her and the excitement of a political campaign was as naught to her. Her husband is an engineer on the Philadelphia and Erie railroad, and yesterday, just previous to his engine being taken to the depot and while it was standing in the Pennsylvania yard, Mrs. Eisenberg rushed from her house to the track, spread herself over the rail in front of her husband's locomotive, shut her eyes and calmly awaited the approach of the wheels which were to bruise and mangle her beyond recognition. Some parties who saw her hurried to the spot and dragged her off the track, before she could make a success of her little diversion. The foolish woman was taken home.—Harrisburg Telegraph of the 22nd inst.

A Sad and Fatal Accident.—Our community was greatly shocked on Tuesday afternoon by an accident which resulted in the death of our well-known citizen, Dr. H. M. Dunmire. Mr. David Kline had stopped at Gross's blacksmith shop, on Valley street, leaving the Indian pony he had been riding standing in front of the shop. When he came out the pony started to run out Valley street, though not at a rapid gait. Dr. Dunmire, who resides near the toll-gate, was just coming from dinner, and Mr. Kline called to him to stop the pony. The doctor went into the street in front of the pony, but instead of turning aside or stopping, the animal made a leap to go over him, and knocked the doctor to the ground with great force. He was picked up and carried to the pottery, and Drs. Sheaffer and Hurlbut summoned. He was afterward removed to his home, where he died at five o'clock yesterday (Wednesday) morning, having remained unconscious up to his death. The principal injuries sustained were about the head.—Leviastown Sentinel of the 23d inst.

Dr. Dunmire was a brother of the wife of Rev. J. W. Ely, of Blain, this county.

Variety and Excellence seems to be the aim of the Esterbrook Pen Co. While in their office last week, in New York, we were surprised at the great variety of pens they make, and the large stock it requires to supply their trade. They make pens for fine writing, for flourishing, for merchantile writing, and in fact for every kind of penmanship, whether to be used by ladies or gentlemen. Their office is 26 John Street, New York.

A special examination will be held at Duncannon, on Saturday, October 2d, commencing at 9 o'clock. S. B. FAHNESTOCK, Co. Supt.

If you have pimples, boils, salt rheum, rough skin, &c., try "Lindsey's Blood Searcher." Sold by all druggists.

The Ladies will for the coming season wear many gay colors. The fall and winter styles of dress goods are very bright in color, or if plain are combined or trimmed with plaids, or other gay material. Dress plaids abound, being made up in cotton, all wool and silk, some of them being large plaid and very gay.—At one of the large establishments in New York, we last week saw a dark blue satin dress that was combined with heavy plaid silk and trimmed with bugles. Price, "only $300." Do any of our customers want it? Though we did not indulge in any such extravaganzas as that, we did buy some pretty dress goods, notions, and novelties which our lady friends are invited to call and examine. F. MORTIMER.

A petition presented by Ira Wentzel, executor of David Wentzel, dec'd., asking an order for allowance to the widow for maintenance since decedent's death was held under advisement. The account of Wm. L. Donally, and John Black, executor of Michael Donally, dec'd., was filed to Oct. Term 1877. Exceptions were filed to this account and Chas. H. Smiley was appointed an auditor to pass upon the same. No meeting ever having been called, the exceptions not having been pressed by the parties, they were overruled and the account confirmed.

ARGUMENT LIST. Samuel Haas use vs. Charlotte A. Rice, adm'rx. of Jacob A. Rice, dec'd., No. 125 May T., 1875 upon which a scifa was issued to No. 22 Oct. T. 1877.—This judgment was payable in instalments, but the record did not exhibit the fact that the several instalments bore interest from a certain date. The judgment was satisfied in accordance with exhibit of the record. Application was made for a rule to show cause why the judgment should not be opened to the extent of the unpaid interest. Upon argument the relief prayed for was granted.

Lewis Potter's use vs. David Wagner. Rule to show cause why satisfaction of this judgment should not be stricken off. Argued and held under advisement.

Davidson Miller vs. Ephraim Acker.—Rule to show cause why John R. Boden assignee of Plaintiff, should not transfer certain instalments of a judgment entered to No. 301 Jan. Term 1874 to The Farmers' Bank, of Millerstown. After argument, the following Decree was made. "Ordered that the money paid and due 1 April 1880 ($225.) and the balance paid to Prothonotary being part of instalment due 1 April 1879, be paid over to the Farmers' Bank of Millerstown or its attorneys, and as to the other and remaining instalments not yet due, the Rule is continued.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week: The Logan House in Newville, narrowly escaped burning on last Friday evening. A paper, hanging above the sitting room lamp took fire, but was extinguished before any damage was done.

Some miscreant entered the residence of John A. Klopp, at Mt. Holly, recently, and cut the parlor carpet in a bad manner. There is no law in existence that will reach a case of this kind and do justice to the rascal.

On Sabbath morning last, about eight o'clock a fire was discovered under a stairway in Hauck & Comstock's foundry and machine shop in Mechanicsburg, but the fire was quenched before much damage was done. It is supposed the fire originated from a spark from the boiler deposited on Saturday night.—Loss covered by insurance.

On Thursday last, Calvin Lee, of this place, fireman on the accommodation, whilst attempting to couple cars at Mechanicsburg, was severely squeezed. Dr. E. B. Brandt, of that place, was immediately summoned. Mr. Lee was returned to his home in this place on the 1:55 P. M. train. We are glad to learn that no bones were broken, and that he will be able to again in a few days.—Carlisle Herald.

A horse driven by a Philadelphia gentleman, frightened at the cars at the State road bridge, last week, and ran away, and severely but not dangerously injured Samuel Eslinger, Jr., who was with the gentleman, and a young Mr. Hippensteel, who was in the horse's way, and was run over. The wagon was dashed to pieces against a locust tree and the horse brought to a stand still.

Mr. George Wagoner seems to be the most unfortunate man in the Lower End. Early in the Spring his fine young mare was attacked with something which no man seemed to know any thing about. She went on at a fearful rate for some time, tearing down the racks and kicking down the entire stall until she finally died. Sometime after he again bought another horse, and in a few weeks she was afflicted with apparently the same disease, going on at a fearful rate until she also died, and now some people believe Frankfort has a witch.

On the afternoon of Tuesday the 14th inst., shortly after a freight train passed west on the Cumberland Valley railroad a large oak tree, which had become decayed at the roots, fell across the track, where it crossed the Ridge, between Kingston and Middlesex. Its fall was luckily witnessed by Mr. Adam Orris, of Mechanicsburg, who, knowing that a passenger train would be due at that point in a few minutes, hastened to assemble his own experienced woodsmen, to clear the track. The men went to work with a will, and had barely succeeded in removing the obstruction, when the passenger train came thundering along. The tree in its decent brought the telegraph wires and supports to the ground with it. Too much praise cannot be accorded Mr. Orris for the prompt business-like manner in which he went about doing the railroad company this invaluable service.
