A NEW DEPARTURE!

BEST PLOW IN THE WORLD!

THE SYRACUSE CHILLED PLOW CO. of Syracuse, N. Y. Are now putting on the market a Plow that is as much superior to any Plow heretofore made as the Plows of the past few years have been superior to those made half a century ago. It combines all the excellencies of any Plow in use. It obviates all the objections made to any other Plow. In addition it embraces several new features of the greatest value, for which we have obtained exclusive Patents. Its Beam, Clevis, Joints, Standard and Wheel Standard will be STEEL, and its mold board will be a composition of Steel and Iron chilled under a process for which we have also obtained an exclusive Patent. It will be called

THE SYRACUSE CHILLED STEEL PLOW Its weight will be eighteen pounds less than our present styles. A first-class Steel Plow, made in the ordinary way, full rigged, retails for twenty-two dollars. Inferior Steel Plows retail from sixteen to nineteen dollars. The price of our new Plow will be but Seventeen Dollars, and it will be the cheapest Agricultural Implement ever sold. Its mold board will outrun three of the very best kinds of the ordinary steel mold boards. It will scour in soils where all steel plows and all other plows have hitherto proved a failure. With this Plow will be introduced a corrugated Plow Point and Joints Point, on which we have also obtained a Patent, and which is also a great improvement, both as regards strength and wear. The Joints can be shifted so as to take more or less land, and also more or less pitch, and it can always be kept on a line with the Plow. The wheel will run under the beam or one side of it as desired, and always kept in line. The beam is adjustable for Spring or Fall Plowing, and also for two or three horses. The handles can be adjusted to accommodate a man or boy, on the same Plow. It is a perfect Plow. Wooden beams are going out of use because they shrink, swell and warp, and never run two seasons alike. Iron beams are too heavy. Malleable beams become demoralized and bend, which is much worse than to break. A steel beam is the necessity of the day. It is three times as strong and very much lighter than any other style. When we say a Mold board is chilled, the farmers know it is so. We do not palm off on them a composition of various metals and call it chilled metal. We want agents for this new Plow in every town in this State. We can give but a very small discount to them, but we will pay the Railroad Freight. We propose to place this Plow in the hands of Farmers as near the cost of manufacture as possible. It will be the best Agricultural Implement ever sold. It shall also be the cheapest. Persons therefore who are not willing to act as agents on the principle that "a nimble step is better than a slow shilling," need not apply for an agency. No Plows on commission. All sales absolute. This is the only Steel Chilled Plow in the World. Steel costs several times more than Iron. But this Plow, full rigged, by giving small discounts, can be sold for Seventeen Dollars. Compare this price with that of any Iron Plow ever made. It is cheaper than any other Plow now made would be at five dollars and a half. Where there are no agents we will, on receipt of Seventeen Dollars, send a Plow to any Railroad station in the State and pay the freight. Address, SYRACUSE CHILLED PLOW CO., Syracuse, N. Y.

ESTATE NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that letters of Administration on the estate of Sarah Uptegrad have been granted to the undersigned. All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment and those having claims, to present them for settlement to J. R. JUNKIN, Administrator. New Bloomfield, Perry Co., Pa. August 17, 1880—6t

"Why is a miser like a man with a short memory? Because he is always for-getting."

"A Sunday school boy was asked if his father was a Christian. He replied: 'Yes, but he is not working much at it now.' Too many just such Christians are around."

"A Sunday School teacher asked: 'What bird is large enough to carry off a man?' Nobody knew, but one little girl suggested: 'Mamma said papa wouldn't be home till Monday because he had gone off on a lark.'

"Lucy" wants to know "What will take the smell of onions from my breath?" Don't eat them, dear; but if you must, take your breath out, boil for two hours, then sprinkle with a little cologne. This will do the business.

"Who do you love?" said Jones to his sweetheart's baby sister. "I loves 'oo," was the reply. "And who does Sissy love?" "Sissy loves Mr. Smif, 'cos he tises 'er."

"If you are a quiet, honest citizen of Galveston, how did these skeleton keys and brass knuckles happen to be in your coat pocket?" "I reckon, Judge, that me and the policeman must have changed coats in the scuffle. We were very much excited."

"Hold on dar!" said a colored man, hailing an acquaintance. "Does yer cross der street ebery time yer see me ter keep from paying dat little bill?" "No, I doesn't."

"What far, den?" "Ter keep from being axed for it!"

"Are you guilty or not guilty?" was asked of a colored prisoner. "Well, boss," he replied, "I was in de na'bo'hood when dem hams was taken, but it don't look jis' right to beat dis respecat crowd outen de pleasuredness ob seein a trial do it? Da'fo' I pleads n. g."

Some admiring poet said of his best girl, "Upon her face a thousand dimples smile for me." Which only adds more emphasis to the adage, "love is blind." How like the mischief a girl would look with a thousand dimples on her face. The poet must have meant freckles.

A lawyer in Virginia, not remarkable for his clean person, appeared at a party awhile ago with a rose in his button-hole. "Where do you suppose it came from?" said he to a brother lawyer, who was examining it. The latter looked up and down the entire length of the questioner, and with great deliberation responded, "Why, I suppose it grew there!"

Where the Difference Came In.

A certain gentleman requiring legal assistance had been recommended to one of two brothers, but had forgotten the Christian name of him he sought; so he called at the office of the one first found and asked for Mr. Podger. "That is my name, sir."

"But there are two of you of that name here in town?" "Yes."

"Well, I wish to consult with the Mr. Podger—excuse me for the allusion—who wears a wig?" "We both wear wigs, sir."

"Well, the one I seek was divorced from his wife not long ago." "There you hit us again, sir."

"The man to whom I was recommended has recently been accused of forgery, though, I trust, unjustly."

"There we are again, my dear sir. We have both had that gentle insinuation laid at our doors."

"Well, upon my word, you two brothers bear a striking resemblance. But I guess I have it now. The one I am after is in the habit of occasionally drinking to excess—sometimes to intoxication."

"My dear man, that little vice is unfortunately characteristic of the pair of us, and I doubt if our best friends could tell you which was the worst."

"Well, you are a matched pair certainly. But tell me," continued the visitor, "which of the twain it was that took the poor debtor's oath a few months ago?"

"Ha, ha, we were both in that muddle. I was on Bob's paper and he was on mine."

"In mercy's name!" cried the applicant, desperately, "will you tell me which of the two is the most sensible man?"

"Ah, there you touch bottom, my friend. Poor Bob, I can't stretch the truth, even to serve a brother. If you want the more sensible one of the two I suppose I must acknowledge the corn. I'm the man."
