His success as a practitioner of medicine is acknowledged by recommendations from former patrons, which are free for inspection at all times.

IN THE TREATMENT OF Chronic Diseases he has had very extensive experience, and has cured many hopeless cases, after years suffering, and expense incurred in seeking relief elsewhere. Among the many chronic complaints treated successfully are: Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Hemorrhage of the Lungs, Consumption, (first and second stages) Heart Disease, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Melancholia, Scrofula or King's Evil, Skin Diseases, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, or enlargement of the Glands of the neck, Dropsy, Piles, chronic Diarrhoea, Constipation of the Bowels, Sick and Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Diseases of Females, Tumors, Kidney Diseases, Enlarged Spleen, Epilepsy, Deafness, Chronic Chills and Ague, Diabetes Mellitus, old running sores, Tapeworms removed.

In the treatment of the Lungs and air passages he uses INHALATIONS, which carries the medicine direct to the diseased parts. When an incurable case presents itself he is free and candid in telling the patient that he cannot cure him, thus avoiding further expense.

IN chronic ailments it is always best for patients to call at his office for personal examination and treatment, when that is practicable. A tack points heavenward when it means the most mischief.

"It pays in the end," said a small boy when he stepped on a wasp.

Man's character is like a fence; you can not strengthen it by whitewash.

Money is the mean man's conundrum, and he never gives it up.

A two-foot rule-Don't wear tight shoes.

"How sad!" exclaimed one blade of a pair of scissors to the other; "how sad! We only meet to sever!"

Can anything go and not go anywhere? Where does the light go when it goes out?

An Indiana editor says: "Coal oil rubbed on the neck and head will cure hog cholera; we have tried it." Who can dispute testimony like that?

There is a great deal of modesty in this world which will gaze at almost anything, provided it can be seen through a crack. A visit to the seashore will prove this.

A circus manager wanted a new name for his show, and a sophomore collegian suggested "monohippic aggregation" as good, and the circus man had got three towns billed before he was informed that "monohippic" meant "one-horse."

A committee on tableaux at a centennial celebration in Vermont issued an invitation asking "all the pretty women in town" to meet at the hall to take part in the tableaux, and every woman in the place came to time. That committee knew how to get plenty of help.

Young Fred, bashful yet persistent swain, was very much in love with Mary Jane. One night she told him in her tenderest tone, "It is not good for man to be alone." Said Fred, "Just so, you darling little elf, I've often thought of that same thing myself." Then said the lass while Fred was all agog, "You ought to buy yourself a terrier dog." He went and left.

They stopped, and looked, and commented upon his being drunk or asleep. Finally one said, "O come along can't you see the fellow's drunk?" Up came the head of the drowsy individual, and his eyes half unclosed, leered at the man who had just spoken as he answered with a big oath, "Yes, I'm-er-drunk, but I can-er-get over that. "You're a durn (hic) fool, and you'll never (hic) get over that."

A young man in the city of Galveston gave a collector a bill of $25 to collect. Meeting the collector the young man asked: "Did you get the money?" "Yes, he paid up."

"How much are you going to charge me?" "Well, I tell you, I rather like your looks. I ought to charge you something, but I won't. I'll just keep the $25 and call it even."

He Remembered the Text. A pious old lady, who was too unwell to attend meeting, sent her thick-headed husband to church to find out the text the preacher selected as the foundation of his discourse. The poor dunce was rarely fortunate enough to remember the words of the text, or even the chapter and verse where they could be found; but one Sabbath he ran home in hot haste, informed his wife that he could repeat every word, with out missing a syllable. The words were as follows: "An angel came down from heaven and took a live coal from the altar."

"Know every word," replied the husband. "I am anxious to hear it," continued the wife.

"They are nice words," observed the husband. "I am glad your memory is improving; but don't keep me in suspense, my dear," said she.

"Just get your big Bible, and I will say the words, for I know them by heart. I said them a hundred times on my way home."

"Well, let's hear them." "Ahem!" said he, clearing his throat. "An Injun came down from New Haven and took a live coal by the tail and jerked him out of the halter!"

The memory of one-half who attend church is very similar to the above.
