Brief Items.

Our first snow of the season was on Wednesday night. It was but slight.

Last week the Teachers of Cumber-land county held their institute.

Sneak thieves abound in this vicinity. On Wednesday night a raid was again made on the cellar of Harry Sheaffer, and all the bread and other provisions were taken.

Thursday and Friday nights were bad nights for Political Meetings, and yet the Democratic Meeting at Newport on Thursday and the Republican one at Millerstown were well attended.

Young man don't you wish you were a leaf? Then you who hang around certain church steps and in the shadow of doorways, would be taken in the house and be pressed.

A recent decision of the supreme court declares that the prohibition of selling liquor on election day covers the twenty-four hours, and not the period the polls are open.

Daniel Smith who was so seriously injured at Altoona on Saturday a week died on Monday. His funeral was on Wednesday and was attended by the G. A. R., and the Painters' association.

The fall of a candle from a Chinese fantern on Tuesday night, came near causing a fire in the dwelling of Rev. J. Edgar. The pile of papers on which it fell was burning when it was discovered and extrapolated. and extinguished.

Some horses in this vicinity have been attacked with the epizooty. The cases so far are mild, but owners of horses which have had the disease or show symptoms of it should use the animals with great care, for a time.

The Carlisle Mirror, we notice, has changed proprietors, Mr. Corman having sold out to Mr. Alf H. Addams. The change of editors causes the Republican ticket to take the place of the Democratic, the paper heretofore supporting Hancock.

One of the most indefatigable Republican speakers in the County this fall is District Attorney Wallis, whose health was so poor the season he was elected, that many thought he would not be able to perform the duties of the office.— Neither cold or wet keeps him from any meeting where he is expected to speak.

Thomas Rathfon was opening sheaves with a knife, the other day, at the barn of M. K. Schoch. A sheaf thrown from the mow struck his hand holding the knife and drove the blade into his abdomen. The injury is slight, but had the blade penetrated a little further it would have put his life in jeopardy.—

Middleburg Post.

The Waynesboro' Record says: On Wednesday of last week Mr. B. F. Leisinger, while looking after chestnuts on the South Mountain, not far from the gate-house, found what he supposed to be one of Kilpatrick's cavalry equipments, with the exception of the earbine. Several of the caps and cartridges have been left at this office. Though exposed to the weather for over seven-teen years, the caps are still explosive.

Mr. Robert Orr, well known throughout the county died at his residence near Ickesburg on Tuesday last. A few years since Mr. Orr bought the farm near this borough formerly owned by Philip Potter, and resided on it for a time in order to have good schools for his daughter. He afterwards removed to his farm in Saville twp., where he resided at the time of his death. He leaves one child who is the wife of Rev. George Crist.

On Monday a narrow, spiral atmospheric column was seen by the operator in the Lewistown Narrows, Mr. Kelly approaching the tower. It did not seem to be dangerous, only noticeable because strange. It was revolving rapidly and as it passed over his house took off a chimney and a large telegraph pole, breaking it as easily as a cane. It just missed the tower, which was lucky for Kelly. It did no other damage.

A new fashion magazine, called the "Ladles Monthly Review," comes to us from Ramsdell's Philadelphia Fashion House. It is devoted to the Illustration and description of the newest styles in vogue for Ladles, Misses and Children. Also contains a variety of articles concerning Dress Materials, Trimmings, Millinery, Lingerie, etc., etc. Send five cents for sample copy to Ramsdell, 1113 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

Narrow Escape. - Yesterday morning between 7 and 8 o'clock, a puddler named M'Cann, and his "helper," made a narrow escape at the Lochiel iron works. They had just got through with a "heat" had charged the furnace at which they were at work, and bad walked away a few yards into another part of the mill, when the iron stack of their furnace came crashing to the ground making a tremendous "racket." Had the men been at work at their furnace when the iron tube fell they would, in all probability, have been crushed to death .- Patriot of the 27th ult.

An Ugly Affair.-Two sons of George Deneen, of Union township, Fulton county, started to take a loaded gun from the house to their father, who was in the woods, for the purpose of shooting a pheasant. While on the road the elder of the two, who was carrying the gun told his brother he was going to shoot him. The little fellow who is but twelve years of age, ran from him, when the elder brother fired the whole load of shot into his body, dangerously wounding him. He is still lying in a precarious situation. Some attribute the affair to viciousness on the part of the lad, while others claim it was an accident.-Repos-

Sudden Death .- On Monday morning, Mr. John A. Swope, saddle-tree maker, an estimable citizen of this place, died very suddenly. On Sunday night he retired apparently in usual health. About 4 o'clock in the morning he waked up, complaining of pain in the breast and a suffocating sensation in the throat, but nothing serious was thought of it. Mrs. Swope went down stairs to make a fire, and on her return found Mr. Swope in the agonies of death. A physician was sent for, but life was extinct before his arrival. The sudden death we understand, grew out of disease of the heart Mr. Swope was in the 65th year of his age. - Gettysburg Star and Sentinel.

Political Parades .- Last week there were two large political parades in this place. Both were handsome turn-outs. The Democrats on Monday night had 348 torches in line and about 200 persons without torches. They were furnished music by the Bloomfield Cornet band, the Newport band and the Duncannon band. After the parade a meeting was organized, and several speeches were made. Chas. A Barnett, Esq., of this place was president of the meeting. On Tuesday night the Republicans were not favored with good weather which prevented many from coming. Still they had a handsome parade; 540 torches were in the line and probably 250 persons without torches. After the parade a meeting was organized at which John Wistar, Esq., presided, and several good speeches were made. Music was furnished by the same bands as were present on Monday night.

Remedy for Epizosty .- Superintendent S. S. Blair gives the following cure for epizooty, to the Tyrone Herald.

"To those baving horses attacked with epizooty, quiusy or sore throat, permit me to say, that in my experience with 111 horses and mules in 1872, when the disease spread over the country with great rapidity, I used nothing but extract of ammonia and sweet oil in the following proportions: One part extract of ammonia and two parts of sweet oil, well rubbed on the outside of the throat and glands of the neck every two or three hours, until blistered freely, feeding them on bran mash until they recovered. This treatment was entirely successful. As the disease is very prostrating do not work the animals if possible to avoid it. Keep your stables clean and well ventilated, and white-wash them frequently. Exposure of the animals and hard work may bring on lung fever."

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week :

On Tuesday morning as Mr. Peter Spahr, one of the marshals of the parade was riding down Main street his horse was riding down Main street his horse took fright, and, stepping on the railroad track, fell, throwing Mr. S., violently to the ground. The train was with difficulty stopped in time to prevent the death of both rider and horse. When stopped, the engine was within a few feet of where Mr. Spahr had fallen. His injuries, strange to say, were only slight, and he afterward took his place in the parade "as unconcerned as though nothing had happened."

One night, last week, a house in Ship-pensburg, occupied by Mrs. Fager, was entered by thieves and a quantity of eat-ables, a number of pieces of clothing and some household articles stolen.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week :

Last Friday as the team of Mr. R. A. Wharton, of Spruce Hill twp., was on the way to the cider press with a load of apples, the saddle horse broke a plank on a bridge running across the road, and on a origge running across the road, and one of its hind legs went through and got fast in the plank. Mr. Will Wharton, who had charge of the team, held the horse's head down and called for help. Mr. Samuel Wharton came to the rescue and with the aid of an axe removed the plank and saved the horse from a broken leg and the owner the loss of a valuable animal. The flesh was badly torn on the leg of the beast. This accident should serve as a warning to supervisors to keep all bridges in good repair and thus prevent the township from paying a large bill of damages through their neglect.—Port Royal

On Sabbath afternoon Mr. Josiah Dean and his sister Miss Maggie, of Doyles Mills, were in attendance at preaching at St. Paul's church. Just after starting for home, Mr. D. struck the horse with the whip and in doing so one of the lines fell out of his hand, and with the other line he unintention. and with the other line he unintentionally drew the horse to the side of the road on the bank, throwing the horse down, upsetting the buggy and throw-ing the occupants out. Miss Maggie sustained serious injury to her back, and Josiah received an ugly cut above the

A New Paying Occupation for Ladies and Gentlemen.

The Handsome Nickle Plated New Home Lamp being introduced to the public this Season is the most maritorious article ever offered Agents to make money with, is safer, and more convenient than the Student Lamp, which has heretofore had the reputation of being the safest lamp made, it has a clamp to firmly attache it to the Sewing Machine, Piano, Organ, Desk, etc. The fear of the ordinary lamp being acci-dently upset or thrown from the table, is entirely relieved by this simple clamp contrivance. It can be adjusted to throw the light just where it is wanted to suit the eyes, and can be converted into a handsome wall lamp. It has the best argand burner, a filling indicator, and convenient match box, and its price is within the reach of every one. It has been fully tested, and editorially endorsed by the "Western Christian Advocate," "Am. Christian Review," "Herald and Presbyter," "Journal and Messenger," and "Christian Standard," the leading Religious papers of Cincinnati, and is endorsed by the Mayor and Post-Master of Cincinnati, the Agent of the American Express Company and Presidents of Insurance Companies, as being the safest most convenient and best lamp made.

There are three reasons why Agents should seek such an article to canvass for—first for its absolute safety and great convenience, it is needed in every home—second its low price makes its sale immense,—third it will be a credit to handle such an article. One southren Agent writes, it sells faster than Gen. Lee's Portrait sold right after the war, another writes it beats the palmy days of the Sewing Machine, its rapid sale, low price, and liberal terms surprise old Agents. Address Home Lamp Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, mentioning our paper and they will give you full particulars and exclusive territory to canvass in
