MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM, OF LYNN, MASS.

DISCOVERER OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. The Positive Cure

For all Female Complaints. This preparation, as its name signifies, consists of Vegetable Properties that are harmless to the most delicate invalid. Upon one trial the merits of this Compound will be recognized, as relief is immediate; and when its use is continued, in ninety-nine cases in a hundred, a permanent cure is effected, and thousands will testify. On account of its proven merits, it is to-day recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhoea, irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life. It will dissolve and expel tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development. The tendency to cancerous humors there is checked very speedily by its use. In fact it has proved to be the greatest and best remedy that has ever been discovered. It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, distends all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will act all times, and under all circumstances, set in harmony with the law that governs the female system. For Kidney Complaints of either sex this compound is unsurpassed. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is prepared at 233 and 235 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass. Price $1.00. Six bottles for $5.00. Sent by mail in the form of pills, also in the form of Lozenges, on receipt of price, $1.00, per box, for either. Mrs. PINKHAM freely answers all letters of inquiry. Send for pamphlet. Address as above. Mention this paper. No family should be without LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S LIVER PILLS. They cure Constipation, Biliousness, and Torpidity of the Liver. 25 cents per box.

MEDICAL NOTICE!

DR. O. P. BOLLINGER, Having located permanently in NEW BLOOMFIELD,

Offers his professional services to the citizens of the Borough and surrounding country.

Dr. B. has been engaged in an extensive practice for over 25 years. He has also served his country in the capacity of Surgeon to the 7th Pa. Vol. Infantry during the late Rebellion, holding his Commission from the then Governor of this Commonwealth. His credentials are from one of the best Medical Colleges in America. His success as a practitioner of medicine is acknowledged by recommendations from former patrons, which are free for inspection at all times.

IN THE TREATMENT OF Chronic Diseases he has had very extensive experience, and has cured many hopeless cases, after years of suffering, and expense incurred in seeking relief elsewhere.

Among the many chronic complaints treated successfully are Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Hemorrhage of the Lungs, Consumption, (first and second stages) Heart Disease, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Melancholia, Scrofula or King's Evil, Skin Diseases, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, or enlargement of the Glands of the neck, Dropsy, Piles, Chronic Diarrhea, Constipation of the Bowels, Sick and Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Diseases of Females, Tumors, Kidney Diseases, Enlarged Spleen, Epilepsy, Deafness, Chronic Catarrh and Ague, Malaria, old running sores, Tapeworms removed.

Dr. B. does not confine himself to any one particular system of medicine. He uses all the late improved methods and remedies, as also Magnetoelectric, or Medical Electricity, which is so successfully used at the present day in many forms of nervous complaints. In the treatment of the Lungs and air passages he uses INHALATIONS, which carries the medicine direct to the diseased parts.

When an incurable case presents itself he is free and candid in telling the patient that he cannot cure him, thus avoiding further expense.

In chronic ailments it is always best for patients to call at his office for personal examination and treatment, when that is practicable.

Office at his residence on Main street, a few doors west of H. Smith's blacksmith shop, in what is known as the Gallatin property. CONSULTATION FREE. Bloomfield, May 4, 1880.

MANHOOD How Lost, How Restored! Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhoea or Seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c. The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps. Address the Publishers, THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO., 46p1y 41 Ann St., New York; P. O. Box, 4286.

A FULL ASSORTMENT OF HARDWARE, IRON & STEEL WILL BE FOUND AT OUR NEW STORE-ROOM. F. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield.

The Chifese can handle mortars and produce great destruction. The same may be said of inexperienced drug clerks.

A newly married couple were sitting in a palace car when she said, "Georgie, aint you glad? We're relatives now."

A facetious old lady, describing the rambling sermon of her minister, said: "If the text had the small-pox his his sermon, would never catch it."

A pretty answer was given by a little Scotch girl. When her class was examined, she replied to the question, "What is patience?" "Wait a wee, and dinna fret."

There is something peculiar about flour. When wheat goes up ten cents a hundred flour finds it out by telegraph; but when wheat goes down, flour gets the news from the east by canal, and mighty slow canal at that.

"Will you and your son occupy one room?" asked a hotel clerk of a woman of 35, who arrived at Omaha with a boy of 16. "This is not my son," she said, with emphasis, "But my husband. We are on our bridal tour."

Rev. Mr. Flagg, of Wyandotte, published the bans of six couples last Sunday. His friends now speak of him as a star spangled banner.—Buffalo Express. "United we stand," as the six couples remarked when they took their places in front of the A-marry-can-Flagg.

"Good morning," remarked two gentlemen as they stepped up to the bar. "Mornin', gentlemen, what'll it be?" asked the bar keeper. "Well, I'll take a Han-cocktail," said one. "Give me a ci-Gar-field," said the other, and they both laughed and said it was a very good joke.

An otherwise estimable young man of Philadelphia, who recently joined the archery club, asked the fair being whose striped hose he hoped to have the honor of buying if she would not like to become a toxophilote, but she said her family had been Presbyterians so long that she should feel quite lost in any other denomination.

A gentleman who had grown tired of a suit of clothes, said to his valet: "John, I have a great mind to give you this suit; suppose you try it on, and see if it will fit." John replied in language not propitious to the further exhibition of generous impulse: "I am sure it will fit me, sir; for I tried it on the other night and wore it to the circus."

"Mamma, what must I say when I feel like being naughty?" said a little girl whose conscience had smitten her for some misdemeanor. "Why, my child, just say, 'Get thee behind me, Satan,' and you will not be tempted," replied the mother. The little youngster paused a moment, and then said: "I did say that, and do you know, mamma, the old devil said: 'Ha! ha! I am behind, you and don't you forget it!'"

In a Milwaukee street car the other day a near-sighted man was seated near the fare-box reading a newspaper, when a lady passed up the aisle and accidentally dropped her handkerchief in the lap of the near-sighted man as she paid her fare. She did not notice her loss, and after she had taken her seat a gentleman sitting opposite the near-sighted man looked down and saw the white handkerchief. The near-sighted man looked down, saw the white handkerchief in his lap and immediately covered it up with his paper blushing as he did so. Then he inserted his hand under the paper, tucked the handkerchief in out of sight and went on reading.

Puzzled Children. Recently a certain Sunday School went on a picnic to the seaside. One of the teachers, about the middle of the day, asked a member of her class how she like the sea. "Very well, ma'am, but where are the tinnamies?" "The what?" asked the teacher, wondering. "Why, you know," said the child; "the tinnamies that go down with the sea. You know the fourth commandment says 'the sea and all the tinnamies.'" This reminds us of another Sunday-school pupil who had no better understanding of the fourth commandment clause alluded to: "The sea and all that in them is." She wondered what the "mix" was, mentioned as "the sea and all that in the mix."
