Brief Items.

Correspondents who wish their articles published must have them in not later than Saturday. Letters received Mondaymorning scarce-ly ever get published.

The delay in Mifflin accommodation east on Tuesday was caused by the en-gine jumping the track, while shifting cars, at Marshall Furnace.

Thursday, November 25th, has been designated as Thanksglvingday by the President and Gov. Hoyt. Let us all be thankful.

a hunting party consisting of G. J. De-lancy, and three others captured two deers, in Licking Creek Valley, last week. A Juniata county correspondent says

The Court Room in Carlisle has been renovated and improved and the Mirror claims that Cumberland county has one of the best court rooms in the Central part of the state.

The boss ear of corn we have heard of this year, was raised on the farm of W. A. Sponsler, Esq. It had 2450 grains of corn on it, weighing one pound two ounces when shelled.

The case reported in court proceedings at last term of Com. vs. Geo. W. Lupfer Samuel Bealor, and others, might mislead people. The whole trouble is regarding a few watermelons which were taken from the land of Philip Leonard. The parties named in the indictment are all persons of respectability and the whole case is merely a personal dispute.

whole case is merely a personal dispute.

The Gray Medicine Co., of Detroit has failed, owing the papers largely for advertising. We wonder so many papers take ads. from such unreliable firms. We declined their ad. until offered by a responsible agency, as we did another Western Medical one which we see some of our exchanges are publishing. If they should get stuck on that too, it would, as the Dutchman said, be "too pad."

pad."

Williamson and Tash of Harrisburg, the large Hat, Cap and Furnishing House, have an advertisement in another part of this paper, that it will pay you to read. We understand that the firm is a wing of one of the largest houses of that kind in this country, which probably accounts for the bargains they are able to offer. Read what they say and when in Harrisburg be sure to call on them.

Rye Township Items.—On Wednesday evening the 4th inst., some persons set are to Emanuel Keller's saw mill in Rye twp., destroying the mill a large lot of lumber and about a ton of leaf tobacco. It is certain the fire was incendiary as no fire had been in use around the mill for some time. Loss about $1,000. Since the Neyhart mill was burned, Mr. Samuel Barcley has put up a chopping mill to run by horse power, which saves those in that vicinity a long ride to another mill.

Mr. Reuben Hipple is putting up a new house, and Mr. Levi Rider is erecting a new bank barn.

The epizooty is afflicting nearly all the horses in this neighborhood, though none have as yet died from the disease.

Important Changes have been made in the time of trains on the Pennsylvania Rail Road. One of the most gratifying is the stopping of the Pacific Express, when flagged, going east at 11:27 A. M. The mail train west, now is due at Newport, at 3:21 P. M. Mifflin accommodation, 6:30 P. M. Going east the mail train time is now 6:30 P. M. See corrected schedule for other changes.

A Mean Thief.—A short time since Mr. Power Delancy of Centre twp., kept a stranger over night. After the man had been gone awhile it was found that he had carried Power's good beaver overcoat with him. The fellow was, or pretended to be, deaf and dumb. If Delancy could catch him he would be apt to make him feel if he couldn't hear.

A Close Call.-On Monday of last week Frank Murphy of this place had a close call for the other world. He was hunting and seeing some birds, hastily fired without placing his gun against his shoulder, and it was fortunate he did so, as the discharge fractured the barrel, blew out the breech pin and threw pieces of the stock so far that they could not be found. Had the gun been at his shoulder its effect would have been terrible, but as it was he escaped with a face somewhat scratched and badly burned with powder.

Girls Charged with Stealing a Heifer .-Simon Liddick, of Buffalo township, in the spring lost two young helfers' which strayed away from his premises. One of the young bovines was recovered about four weeks ago, but its companion's whereabouts was not known until a short time since, when Liddick, thought he was safe in saying that "the McKelvy girls" (two of them, aged perhaps eighteen and twenty years) had come into the posession of it, killed it and then disposed of it to a Liverpool butcher. He so charges. The girls were arrested the other day and are to have a hearing in regard to the matter, before a justice-of-the-peace on Saturday .-

Subjects for Week of Prayer .- Monday Nov. 15th,-In what does Life consist. Tuesday, Nov. 16th,-Investigation a Path to Faith. Wednesday, Nov. 17th, -Jesus testing the impulsive, the procrastinating and the undecided. Thursday, Nov. 18th,-A young man who obeyed the voice of Christ. Friday, Nov. 19th,-Crisis in Daniel's Life. Saturday, Nov. 20th,- An unconditional Surrender.

Meetings for Monday and Tuesday evenings, will be held in the Lutheran church, for Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the Reformed church, and for Friday and Saturday evenings in the Presbyterian church. All meetings to begin at 7 o'clock, P. M.

A Strange Case.—A young man named Alfred Rhoads while sitting in Barshinger's store in Tishing Creek Valley, on the 3rd inst., felt a sudden flash of heat pass over him which left a strange feeling. He at once started for home, but when he had gone about half a mile, he fell down unconscious, and in this condition was carried to his residence.-He remained insensible for several days, and when he came to his senses again, he had no recollection of anything since leaving the store.

A New Arrival .- Births on the emigrant train are not infrequent, but the little strangers, nevertheless, receive a hearty welcome when they do put in an appearance. There was a little German boy first opened his blue eyes on the emigrant train Wednesday morning at about 8 o'clock. His mother took the affair, as a matter of course, and in half an hour later was skipping around the cars as lively as any of them. When she arrived in Altoona she was tenderly caring for her husband who had become sick from the long ride. The youngster is to be named John Emigrant Johannes.-Altoona Tribune.

Sick of the West .- The Chambersburg Repository says: On Sunday, about noon, a covered wagon drawn by two pack jacks made its appearance on our streets. We learn from a friend, who had a conversation with the party, that they had left Philadelphia eight years ago and located in Indiana. Getting tired of western life they concluded to pull up stakes and return to the city of Brotherly Love, and had reached this place on Sunday. The party was composed of father, mother and about four children. They had a tent with them and camped out at night. The party attracted a good deal of attention as they passed through town, especially the jacks. We were unable to learn the man's name.

For the Little Ones .- We are in receipt of the first number of a magazine entitled "Our Little Ones," which pleased the little ones in our house better than any publication we have yet seen. It is published by the Russel publishing Co., Boston, Mass., at $1.50 per year.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of

M. R. Bashore, a citizen of Walker township, went to Huntingdon county to buy sheep. On Saturday, while coming through the Narrows between this place and Lewistown, the sheep disturbed a flock of wild turkeys that bad been feeding along the road. As the turkeys flew out of the way, Mr. Bashore threw a stone at one that flew close by him, and to his amazement the stone by him, and to his amazement the stone bit the turkey on the head and killed it. Mr. Bashore shouldered the turkey, car-ried it as far as the third lock, north of this place, and there presented it to Ben-neville Heller.—Sentinel

On Wednesday night a lamp exploded in the house of Jacob Etka, above town. destroying the furniture and wall in the room. Mr. E. was in the room at the time of the explosion and was nearly suffocated. The house was barely saved from destruction. The lamp sat on the table and had not been lifted or disturbed for more than two hours.—Tribune.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

On Monday evening of last week Mr. Samuel Bixler, employed by the Mt. Holly Paper company as a teamster, was thrown from a wagon while unloading paper at the warehouse of the S. M. R. R. depot, with such force as to break his shoulder-blade. He received the proper surgical aid and is now improving.

While Mr. Thomas Lee, of Dickinson twp., accompanied by his wife, was on his way to Mt. Holly, last Friday night, he had the misfortune to upset his buggy, near Moore's mill. In the extreme darkness he missed his way and drove over a small embankment, which caused the trouble. Although the occupants of the buggy were thrown violently to the ground, they both escaped

On Saturday evening last, Thomas E. Null arrived at Newville with his arm Null arrived at Newville with his arm in a sling, and upon being interviewed, said that he had the misfortune of losing his left hand. The cause of the accident was thus: He was called upon to shoot a squirrel for a boy, and loaded his gun, when upon firing the gun burst and shattered his hand so badly that amputation, at the wrist, was found necessary. Thomas had been in the employ of Mr. Harry Drawbaugh, in Huntington county.

On Tuesday, an accident of the most distressing nature befell Mr. James Highlands, who resides some three miles east of Shippensburg, in Southampton township. Mr. Highlands was unloading a wagon bed of corn, and was standing up on the corn in the bed, to do so, and while in that position fell, and in his decent struck his back on the block of the rubber, near the hind wheel. Mr. Highlands Highlands was immediately conveyed to his house, and the lower portion of his body was found to be completely par-

Mr. Highlands died Thursday about eleven o'clock, being fully conscious of his situation until almost the last moments of his life.
