Brief Items.

Correspondents who wish their articles published must have them in not later than Saturday. Letters received Monday morning scarce-ly ever get published.

Teachers' Institute in this county will commence on Monday, December 6th.

The accident to Marshall Furnace was repaired without much delay and the works are again in operation.

Singing at the Centre School House, two miles west of Bloomfield, on Friday evening of this week.

A few days ago a boat loaded with potatoes and coal, sank in the canal near Mount Patrick. It delayed traffic for several days.

Mr. Robert Wallis of Liverpool, is the possessor of a pig that has only the front legs. It is quite a curiosity and many persons have examined it.

Mr. John Kell, of Spring twp., while fireshing at Samuel Sheibly's, on Tues-day last, by some means got his hand in the machine and had three fingers

Mr. Wm. M. Horting was on Monday of last week shingling Ripman's tantery. While so doing he had a fainting fit, which very fortunately came on him while he had descended to the ground.

About two inches of snow fell at this place on Saturday and the weather since has been such as would be very credita-ble to January. Monday morning at 7 o'clock the thermometer was 10 degrees above zero, twenty-two degrees below

Mrs. Peterman, of Lancaster, who had a family consisting of her husband and nine children, has had eight funerals in as many months—losing her hus-band and seven children. The last band and seven children. The last death took place on Tuesday afternoon last, when a boy four year old died of

On Saturday evening Mr. Wm. Burn of this place slipped on the sidewalk just below the Presbyterian church, and in falling, fractured his collar bone and jarred himself so severely that he had to be helped up and taken home. This was one of the results of boys sledding on the sidewalk on the sidewalk.

Sudden Death.-The wife of Mr. Jonas Smith, residing in Oliver twp., died very suddenly on Thursday last. At the time of her death she was in an up stairs room. Mrs. Thomas, who resides with the family, heard a fall, and hastened up to find Mrs. Smith insensible, and in the agonles of death. She had not been in good health, but was able to move around the house. The cause of her death was heart disease.

A Case Tried. - The first case tried on last Wednesday morning was that of a silver watch, the property of Samuel Claudy, the janitor of the court house. The watch slipped from Mr. Claudy's pocket into the coal scuttle, and from there was thrown into the fire. After poking around in the stove for some time, Mr. S. recovered his chronometer, which by this time had become quite black, and passed the following sentence on it : "She'll have to be fixed."-Carlisle Volunteer.

Burned to Peath. - On Wednesday last, a child of Mr. George Foltz, residing in Landisburg, was burned so badly that it died a short time after the accident happened. The mother had gone out to a neighbor's, leaving the child alone in the house, asleep. When she returned she was horrified to find the little one in flames, which she extinguished at once but not before the child was burned nearly to a crisp, causing the death shortly afterwards. This family seems to be sadly afflicted as during the past summer several of their children died from scarlet fever.

Overy Wet and Badly Scared.—On Sat-arday a week two ladies from Millerstown crossed the race bridge at Newport just as a train was passing. While waiting for the train to go by, the horse became restive and backed the carriage into the race. Mr. Eshleman and some others came to their rescue and succeeded in getting ladies, carriage and horse out with no further damage than a good wetting and a bad scare. It is time that bridge was made more secure and if not fixed the township will sometime have a bill of damages to pay. Several times, persons have had accidents there which a ralling at the bridge would have prevented.

A Mishap to Harrisburg Gunners .-Two well known sportsmen - one of them a veteran-started from this city on Monday morning for the Cove, above Marysville, for a week's duck shooting. They had with them the necessary outfit -two valuable guns (one a borrowed gun) a valise containing several hundred shells, and about $12 in money, and some other traps. In pushing through the Dauphin rapids the boat capsized, throwing the guns, vallse, and traps into the river and soaking the gunners to the skin. They managed to hold on to the boat and save themselves without much trouble, both being "old salts" and hard to scare. They came back the same afternoon, perfectly disgusted with the result of their trip. The guns and amunition were lost at nearly the same spot where a Harrisburg party lost their guns by a similar accident a few years ago .- Patriot.

Peddlers. - The Gettysburg Sentinel

says:

"In order that the people may know who are legally authorized to act as Peddlers in Adams county, and thereby lead to the detection of illegal peddling, Judge McClean ordered the act bearing on the subject to be published in the county papers, with a list of persons to whom licenses have been granted."

It would be an excellent idea to take

It would be an excellent idea to take the same course here. The county is overrun with peddlers who have paid no tax and though they live off of the public they pay no share of the public expenses.

We can recommend the New York Observer to our readers as a family paper that is full of good and useful reading. It has both religious and secu-lar news, and a foreign correspondence which is entertaining and valuable. Any one can get a sample copy by send-ing to the New York Observer, 37 Park Row, New York.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week :

Some time ago, Mr. John Waldsmith, of Milford twp., broke one of his little fingers, and owing to mortification setting in, the finger had to be amputated below the knuckle. The operation was successfully performed on Wednesday of last week, by Drs. Graham and Shel-

About eight weeks ago, Miss Bine Bitner, aged 19 years, daughter of William Bitner, of Turbett twp., ran a stub in her foot while walking over the floor in her bare feet. The stub was immediately removed, but the injury done was too great for nature to repair, and rendered amputation necessary in order to relieve her of her sufferings, which were intense and save her life.—Port Royal Times.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

Ex-Sheriff David Gill lost a fine two-year-old colt, by lung fever, last week. The colt was sired by the celebrated horse, Papermaker.

On Friday evening of last week Miss Amanda Nailor came near drowning in the creek near Alexander's mill. She was on a visit to Joseph Trostles and while there accompanied Miss Trostle to the creek where they entered a leaky boat. The boat was about to sink and Miss Nailor, becoming frightened, jumped into the creek. She was rescued by the assistance of Miss T.

On last Wednesday George Scott, of Chambersburg, nephew of Col. Tom Scott, was thrown from his buggy while driving up Louther street, Carlisle, and received several severe cuts about the face and head. He was taken to Dr. Kieffer's office, where his wounds were dressed, and by the following morning he had so far recovered as to be able to return to his home.

On last Saturday night the dogs entered a flock of sheep, on the farm of Rev. I. N. Hays, at Middle Spring, and killed six outright and badly tore and wounded thirty-eight, of which six may die. The flock contained fifty-one wethers, so it will be seen that after the contest with the dogs, but seven sound sheep were left. The sheep were all in fine condition, and had been brought but a few weeks since from Washington county. Jacob Naylor, who lives on the farm, only succeeded in driving the dogs off when most of the damage was done. This is a serious loss, and we hope the dogs who did the damage will be shot. What this country needs just now is more sheep and fewer dogs. On last Saturday night the dogs enter-Bestiers—On the 9th of Nov. 1880, Harvey Clinton, oldest son of Henry and Mary A. Bistline, aged 1° years, 6 mouths and 19 days.

Death alms at a shining mark, and it did not miss its mark in the case of Harvey. He was in many respects, a model boy. He was obedient to his parents, kind and obliging to his playmates, and industrious in his habits. Thereligious principles instilled in his carly youth adorned his daily life. He was regular in the catechetical class, at Sunday School, and public services in God's house. He appeared to be too pure for this world of sin, so God took him into His everiasting kingdom to enjoy the society of the redeemed through the blood of Jesus Christ. On last Tuesday morning, after a week of severe suffering, which he bore without murmuring, he feli peacefully askep in Jesus, and his spirit was borne by invisible attendants home to glory, to be present with the Lord, which is far better. They gently closed his eyes, for they have no more tears to shed, felied his hands and laid the sweet form to rest, for it has no more pains to suffer, and tolks to endure. The deeply bereaved paients have our warmest sympathies in this hour of sore discress, and may a kind heavenly father pour the healing oil into their wounded hearts, and overrule the special providence to their spiritual interests, is our earnest prayer.
