MANHOOD

How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverweil's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorhoga or Seminal weakness. Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and physical Incapacity. Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption. Epilepsy and Fits. induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured: pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

43-This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Recorder (to witness with bandaged head)-"Did he have any provoca-tion when he struck you?" Witness -" He may have had something of the kind concealed on his person, but it was a brick he struck me wid."

Ta A stranger passing a graveyard and seeing a horse standing hard by, inquired who was dead. The sexton informed him. "What complaint?" asked the inquisitive one. Said the old man :-There is no complaint; everybody is sat-

Wery singular. A young lady at the examination in grammar, was asked " why the noun bachelor was singular." She replied immediately, with much naivette. "Because it is very singular they don't get married."

"Mother, what is an angel?"-"An angel? Well an angel is a being that flies, "But, mother, why does papa call my governess an angel?"-Well" exclaimed the mother she's going to fly immediately."

My case is just here," said a citizen to a lawyer the other day; "the plaintiff will swear that I hit him. I will swear that I did not. Now what can you lawyers make out of that if we go to trial?" "Five dollars apiece," was the prompt reply,

A sub-editor and a reporter were quarreling one day in the editor's room. "You are a donkey!" said the sub-editor. "You are another!" reblied the reporter, promptly. "Pooh, pooh!" retorted the sub-editor; "you are the great-est donkey I know!" Gentlemen gentlemen!" you forget, I think, that, I am present."

He was a simple-minded old man, and principal witness in an aggravated assault case. After the trial was over he was paid his fee, $1.50. He expressed great delight in receiving the money, and addressed the judge: "Your honor, I am an old citizen of Galveston, and have a large family on my hands."-"Well, what have I got to do with that?" "I only wanted to say that, if any thing of this kind turns up again you will please let me know. I hope you will throw it in my way. Every little helps you know."

He Put His Arm Around Her.

The other day several men were stand ing on a street corner, talking, when a handsomely dressed lad y passed.

"You may not believe me," said a man named Spriggins. "but I have had my arm around that lady."

You vile slanderer, ar," exclaimed young Mr. Paperage, and, drawing off, he struck Mr. Spriggins a heavy blow between the eyes. Both parties were instantly arrested, and when Mr. Spriggins requested the lady be summoned, a policeman caught up with her and requested her presence in court, which had just convened in afternoon session.

"Judge," said Paperage, while several acquaintances and myself were standing on the street talking, this lady passed. Then this man, " pointing to Spriggins," remarked that he had put his arm around her. The lady is nothing to me, Judge, but my mother was a lady, and my sisters are ladies, and I have always made it a point to chastise a man who speaks ill of a lady." "Mr Spriggins," remarked the Judge, "did you say that you had put your arm around the lady ?"

"Then the gentleman did right in your statement."

"Yes, sir."

"Judge, allow the lady to speak," requested Spriggins. "Certainly. You will please make

" I didn't hear the man when he said that he had put his arm around me, and as I passed on I do not know what occurred."

" Excuse me for being so blunt, but-"Do you mean to ask me if the man ever put his arm around me?"

44 Yes. 12 "Then, I must say that he has. For a few moments there was a deep silence, only disturbed by a boy who picked at the plastering with a horseshoe nail. "What right had he to put his arm around you?" stammered the Judge.

"Because," answered the woman, "he . is my husband."

When the court adjourned, the men took beer, and "the court adjourced."
