Brief Items.

We are sorry to learn that Sheriff Williamson died on Saturday last.

By an error in the type, we put the date of the Teachers' Institute on the 6th. It should have read Dec. 13th.

For two weeks only you will have an opportunity to get one of the ladies' Coats or Dolmans. The sale must be ver in that time.

A horse belonging to Mr. Hollen-baugh, of Centre twp., ran away on Wednesday evening and broke both hind axles of the buggy to which he was harnessed.

On Tuesday night the grinding and bitt shop, the hammering room, black-smith shop and inspecting room of Man's axe factory near Lewistown were destroyed by fire.

A valuable young mare belonging to Mr. Joseph Johnson, of Southampton twp., Franklin county, was found dead in the stable, a few nights ago. Cause of death is unknown.

We have just received from Ramsdell, 1113 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, a copy of the latest issue of Butterick's Monthly Fashion "Review." Ladies sending five cents to above address, will receive a sample copy.

Curtis Smith, Jr., while assisting to unload a canal boat of a cargo of limestone at Marshall furnace, at Newport, on Wednesday of last week, had the little finger of his left hand smashed by a heavy stone falling on it.

On Tuesday morning last. Mr. Fred Rudy, of Hellam township York Co., was attending the funeral of Miss Annie Peck, at Creitz Creek Church, and when the corpse was being carried into the grave-yard, Mr. Rudy fell dead from heart disease?

A man named Tyson, living near Northeast Cecil county, killed his infant child by giving it laudanum, because it was a girl, and to avoid the trouble of rasing it. Tyson was a brave soldier during the war, was wounded two or three times, but bears a bad name, is cruel to his wife and is thought to be not exactly of sound mind. exactly of sound mind.

Thos. Kitner whilst out gunning on Thursday last, discharged the right hand barrel of a double-barreled shot gun, the barrel bursting about three inches from the muzzle, blowing out a piece about the size of a ten cent piece. No one hurt, except the gunner, who received a severe thurty on the shoulder from the butt of the gun. from the butt of the gun.

C. C. Straub, of Ickesburg, Perry county, who was arrested for drunkenness late on Friday' night by Special Officer Graham, on Market street, and who had a loaded revolver and a quantity of amountion on his person, had a tity of ammunition on his person, had a hearing on Saturday morning, and in default of $300 bail he was sent to jail to answer at the January term of court.—

Who can Beat It.-Ephraim Clouser of Centre township, killed two hogs last week, about one year old, that weighed 800 pounds-good for Centre-who can beat it?

Death of Judge Bair .- Judge Bair of Spring township, died very suddenly on Saturday night. Two weeks previously he had been quite ill but was around again, and went to bed on Saturday night in apparent good health. During the night his wife was awakened by a strange noise the Judge was making .-She at once lighted a lamp, and returning to the bed found her husband dead. Judge Bear was a good citizen, and was highly respected. He closed a term as associate judge of this county the 1st of last January.

Ladies' Coats, etc.-We shall open on Wednesday a good assortment of Coats, Dolmans, etc. These garments are of the best styles made in New York, and the prices are such that all can be suited. Come early and get a better chance for selection. F. MORTIMER.

Robbary at Newport, - The Ticket office at Newport was entered on Monday night last, by prying open the shutters of one of the windows facing the track, the burglars using two carpenter chisels and a large knife for the purpose. Once inside, the freight money drawer was opened, and all the thleves got were two lead five cent pieces, and a few postage and revenue stamps. They must have been scared away, as they left behind them two chisels and the large pocket knife.

The same night John Wertz's store, in East Newport, near Marshall Furnace, was entered-no doubt by the same party-by removing the transom from above the front door. Tobacco, suspenders, socks, matches, knives, paper, flannels, muslins and handkerchiefs, to the amount of five or six dollars, were carried off. On Tuesday morning some of the stolen goods were found a short distance above the house of Mr. Wertz. There is no clue to the thieves.

The People's Freight R. R .- The suits against parties in this county by the above corporation, were taken to Mifflin county for trial last week, it having been found that juries in Perry were not disposed to make parties pay more money to that defunct company. But it was even worse there, for the judge gave the suits no countenance, and dismissed them, deciding that more than enough to grade the road had already been collected and that beyond the cost of grading there was no liability resting on the subscribers. It is to be hoped that this is the last that will be heard of these cases. The People's Freight R. R. has been a dead weight on this county for seven years, and has stood in the way of other railroad enterprises that would have succeeded had it not been for this company. If the corporation is now buried mourners will be scarce.

Fire at Green Park. -Some time during Tuesday night the school house at Green Park took fire and was destroyed. The building was of brick but was old and of little value. The building was used in the evening for a spelling school, but everything was in good order and the fires all appeared safe when it was locked after school. It is certain that the fire did not take from the flue at the roof as the building was burned inside before the roof was burned. A light of glass that had been put in several days previously with tacks was found to be removed and was standing beside the building, which would seem to indicate that some person had entered the building and set it on fire. A person passed the building at about 11 o'clock at which time there was no signs of fire.

Two Gunners Quarrel.-The Chambersburg Repository says: On Wednesday last, Tate Taylor and John Robinson, two colored boys of this place, were out gunning near the Hollywell Paper Mill, just south of town. They got into some dispute in regard to the powder, and finally came to blows. Taylor picked up the gun, and when he was putting on the cap, Robinson thought the further he w away from th ter for him, and vacated the grounds forthwith. Taylor fired after him, and Robinson says the shot struck him on the hip, though it did not penetrate the skin. He came to town and made information against Taylor, who was arrested and confined in jail for his appearance at Court.

A Dog has Some Fan. - As Baldwin Accommodation train on the Reading road was coming to this city over the branch this morning it was halted by an extraordinary occurrence. A large dog belonging to Peter Reel, Esq., at Sheesleytown, disputed the right of way trotted on ahead of the train, nor would it get off the track when the engineer whistled repeated warnings. The banks on either side of the track at that point are very steep, and it was a question, if the engine went over the dog, whether the whole train would not go over the bank. Several persons yelled at the dog but he seemed to know that he was master of the situation and did not heed them. Finally Conductor Quigley stopped the train, and the dog, having had all the fun he wanted, trotted off before he could be saluted with a volley of rocks from the train hands .- Telegraph of 25th inst.

Cut off Two Fingers .- David Watts, wagon maker, while engaged in dressing a plece of timber with a hand axe, on Tuesday afternoon, cut off the two middle fingers on the left hand. He had the hand tied up by a member of his family, and strange as it may appear, he continued to work at his job in the afternoon, and each day since the occurance.- York Press, of the 26th inst.

Mr. Watts was a former resident of this place, also of Newport, this county.

Shot by Mistake.—Two young men McKenrick and Carbaugh, of Adams county, were out hunting for deer on Sunday of last week. McKenrich hearing something in the bushes, which he believed to be a deer, fired, and shot his companion, who died the next morning. McKenrick was acquitted of intent to kill, but held under ball for his appearance to answer for the violation of the Sunday law.

The improvements at Elliottsburg during the past summer are as follows:

Martin Stambaugh built a house and stable at the upper end of town. Dr. Conrad put up an office near his dwel-ling. David Kistler erected a dwelling near the Lutheran church. Mrs. Willis built a shoemaker shop on her property. Thomas Gray built a stable on the hotel property. Other persons also repaired their dwellings, and the Evangelical church was repaired and remodeled, and now looks almost like a new one. The Lutheran church was also repainted.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week :

Clyde Swigert and John Shaner were in town on Saturday with a feative little nag hitched to a sleigh. Some time during the evening the nag got reative, ran off and demolished the sleigh. And this was the first sleigh of the season.

While shooting mark with the target gun on Tuesday evening at the fair, the gun went off accidently while in the hands John Barnitz, hitting David Hayes in the head. The bullet entered the scalp, causing a wound which bled freely, but is not supposed to be danger-ous.

During last week as a cistern was being cleaned out at the barn of Mr. Samuel M'Cullough, below town, among the dirt and debris at the bottom of the cistern were found two dies which evident-ly had been used for making counterfeit money. The dies had a capacity for making money from a five cent piece up to a dollar. Just how these things got there is a mystery, but Mr. M'Cullough suspects an individual who was in the neighborhood a few years since. The workman employed in cleaning the cistern was John Williams, colored.— Newville Star.

At half past eight o'clock on Saturday evening, flames were discovered issuing from a small frame dwelling on Chapel Alley, owned by Postmaster Meloy and occupied by two colored families. An larm was sounded and the fire department responded promptly, but owing to the headway the flames had made before discovered, nothing could be done except to tear down the sides of the building and thus save the surrounding property; this was promptly done by the Empire Hook and Ladder boys. All the furni-ture, with the exception of the bedsteads and a few other articles, was saved. The fire was caused by a stove pipe.

FOR THE TIMES. Mn. Epiron:—The Evangelical Church of Rillottsburg was recently repaired and remodeled at a cost of about $400. The Improvements to this church consist of a recess, a new pulpit, repainting and other necessary remodeling. The painting was executed by Messrs. Crawford and Weaver of Harrisburg, and the carpenter work by Messrs. Rhodes and Sowers of this place. The Improvements made to this building make it comfortable, pleasant and gives it almost the appearance in every respect to a new one.

to a new one.
It was re-dedicated on Sunday the 21st inst. It was re-dedicated on Sunday the 31st Inst. The exercises commenced on Saturday evening pravious, when Rev. Brader, pastor in charge, delivered an appropriate sermon. Rev. Gross of Leesburg, was expected to be present to conduct the dedicatory services, but for reasons unknown he falled to be present. Rev. S. W. Selbert of Liverpool charge, who was also invited to participate in the exercises of this occasion, preached very able and interesting sermons on Sunday, morning and evening. After the morning services a move was made to collect money to liquidate the debitesting upon the church. After very little effort the whole amount was raised. The dedicatory ceremonics were performed by Rev. Brader, immediately after the evening sermon. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the church was well filled and all who were present appeared well pleased with the exercises as well as with the improvements to the church.

FOR THE TIMES. Literary Societies.

This is the time of year when Literary Socie-This is the time of year when Literary Societies, which have suspended during the summer months, are re-organized. The evenings at present are long, and it is well that they should be spent in doing some good in one way or the other. All enterprising and ambitious persons seek self-improvement. They are continually striving to add something new to their already acquired store of knowledge, and to pass their time in some entertaining way. In no other way can this be done as pleasantly and profitably as in a well conducted Literary Society. The great problem of the day is intelligence, and here is the place where much of it may be communicated. Every farmer or mechanic, in order to carry on his pursuits mechanic, in order to carry on his pursuits successfully, should be intelligent and know how to conduct them in a business-like man-

Most of the people of this county are engaged in farming and mechanical pursuite, and consequently their children are allowed but a limited time to attend school. If a good Litterary Society would be organized in every community and the proper interest manifested in lis welfare, it would afford splendid opportunities to gain a vast amount of valuable information which the present short school term will not permit. The farmers' sons and daughters could attend them and take an active part. Their school days are usually very short and consequently when leaving school at an early age as many do, their education is very incomplete. It is natural that they want to spend these long evenings in a manner that will be profitable to them as well as afford entertainment.

A well regulated lyceum will give ample opportunities for all these. If conducted with an aim to do good, it will achieve noble results. Let a lyceum be organized in every community. The old as well as the young attend it, all aiding to made it a success. The neighborhood in which it is located will reap its fruits by seeing its sons and daughters growing up intelligent and useful citizens. It is certainly Most of the people of this county are engagby seeing its sons and daughters growing up intelligent and useful citizens. It is certainly much better to spend the evenings in this way than to be idling them away in the village store or bar room.
