

Daggett's Boomerang.

When Congressman Daggett first, went to Washington, two years ago, he was charged $16.50 for extra baggage at Omaha. This angered the Congressman so that he vowed to make life a burden for every official on the Union Pacific and Central Pacific railroads. When he got to Washington he began to ship tons and tons of Congressional Records, which the Union Pacific and Central Pacific railroads are obliged to carry free of charge, according to a stipulation with Uncle Sam, made when he granted them so much of his broad public domain. Daggett shipped boxes of these documents over the road, addressed to himself and accompanied by his big frank and the words "Congressional documents, free." During the first session he sent seventeen tons of this class of matter over the road, and as soon as he reached home he sent it back again.—Daggett's big boxes of "Pub. Docs." soon became notorious, and the face and figure of the Congressman were also pretty well known. Wherever he stopped he was sure to ask some of the freight agents if they had seen any of "my free freight lately." He always made himself known and was sure to add, "You must handle these boxes gently; they contain the speeches of some of the greatest men of the nation. If you damage any of them I'll sue the road for the full value." On election day the boys got their revenge, and every mother's son of them voted and worked against Daggett. Those who ran on the Utah Division located their voting places in Nevada in time to get their work in on election day and they raked Daggett fore and aft from sunrise to sundown. When it was known that he was defeated nearly every freight and baggage man on the lines got drunk, and for a couple days the road was utterly demoralized.

A Woman in Man's Attire.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Oct. 30.—This city has a sensation of no small pretensions. A young woman was arrested yesterday who had been masquerading here for a year and a half as a young man, giving his name as Leon Belmont and claiming to be a nephew of August Belmont, of New York, and that he would soon come into possession of a large property. Belmont was a great flirt, making love promiscuously to many young ladies of the city, who regarded him as a good catch. He became engaged to Miss Grace Watts and Miss Brackett, both prominent young ladies. This dual engagement led to trouble, which ended in the arrest of the supposed young man and the discovery of her sex. It is said that Miss Brackett had before expressed doubt of Belmont's masculinity, but was bluffed into silence by her lover. Other and more serious charges will probably be preferred against the young lady, whose real name is not known. She is supposed to have stolen various sums of money in Watts' house, where she boarded, and never paid a board bill for more than a year.

A Much Married Man in Difficulty.

CHICAGO, November 23.—The Superior Court had before it this morning a case of curious complication. Some months ago William A. Sloan, married to a woman in Ohio, moved to Iowa, and there obtained a divorce through a Chicago divorce lawyer and upon the same day married another woman in Iowa. The courts of the latter State declared the divorce proceedings illegal and the second marriage adulterous. To-day the Chicago court held that the divorce was valid according to the laws of Illinois. It is therefore illegal for Sloan to live with either wife, although married to both, and although he has children by both. He might, however, legally live with his Ohio wife in Iowa, and with his Iowa wife in Illinois, but could not live with the Ohio one in Illinois nor with the Iowa wife in Iowa.

Very Unselfish.

They tell a good joke of the Sherman brothers, the General and the Secretary.—When Judge Davis was elected Senator from Illinois, Senator Howe was offered his seat on the Supreme bench, but declined out of fidelity to the Republican party, because the Wisconsin Legislature that would have chosen his successor was Democratic. When General Sherman heard of it, he shrugged his shoulders and said: "Yes; that was very fine, very unselfish.—I doubt whether John would have done it, though."

A Singular Coincidence.

Two young ladies of Bedford, a little village twelve miles from Cleveland, were courted about thirty years ago by two young men named Garfield and Hayes, but each suitor was rejected because the respected parents of the girls knew the young men were poor, and thought they would never be anything else. If both ladies are living now, they probably wish they had acted differently.

A Workman Literally Ground to Pieces.

READING, Pa., Nov. 23.—A terrible accident occurred this morning at the Reading iron works. J. M. Houck was drawn among the cog wheels in the pipe mill and was literally ground to pieces. Shreds of flesh, pieces of bone and portions of clothing adhered to the cogs after he was removed.

THERE IS A Balm in Gilead!

The success which has marked the introduction of Cream Balm, a Catarrh remedy, prepared by Ely Bros., Oswego, N. Y., is indeed marvelous. Many persons in Pittston and vicinity are using it with most satisfactory results. A lady down town is recovering the sense of smell, which she had not enjoyed for fifteen years through the use of the Balm. She had given up her case as incurable. Mr. Barber, the druggist, has used it in his family and commends it very highly. In another column a young Tunkhannock lawyer, known to many of our readers, testifies that he was cured of painful deafness. It is certainly a very efficacious remedy.—Pittston, Pa.
