THE people of Denver will have to pay roundly for the little riot which was got up in that city just before the Presidential election. The Chinese government has taken official cognizance of the affair, and the upshot is that the great damage done to the property of the Chinese residents at Denver will have to be made good by the municipality. This is a lesson which other cities besides Denver may profitably take to heart.

A Good Suggestion.

It is understood that the Secretary of the Treasury will recommend that the silver dollar be increased in weight from 4121 grains to 450 grains of silver, and that existing laws be repealed or modified so as to allow the recoinage of the silver dollars stored in the vaults, the increase of value and cost of coinage to be paid out of the seignorage which, on the silver already coined, amounts to over $3,350,000, and which amount would pay for the increased value of the silver dollar.

THE MEETING of the Electoral College was held at Harrisburg on Wednesday last, and the twenty-nine votes of the State were cast for James A. Garfield for President. The meetings of the Electors in the other States (with the exception of Georgia) were held and the votes cast, in accordance with the wishes expressed by the vote of November 2nd. The electoral vote of Georgia is probably lost to Hancock and English, as the Revised Statutes of the United States require that the electors shall meet to cast the votes of the several States on the first Wednesday in December, and the Georgia code provides that the Governor shall notify the electors to meet on the first Monday in December, to be ready on the following Wednesday to cast the vote. This notice was given, but the electors have not met, and the leading officials and lawyers are of opinion that they have no right to meet and vote next Wednesday.

In detail the result was as follows: For Garfield & Arthur. For Hancock & English

Prohibiton Adopted in Kansas.

Sufficient returns have been received to show that the constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquors in Kansas has been adopted by at least 20,000 majority. The friends of temperance made special efforts in favor of the amendment on election day, that being the principal question in most localities. In all the cities, and many small towns, the ladies electioneered for the cause of temperance and had tempting lunches spread in the vicinity of the polls, which voters partook of freely, the only consideration being a promise to vote for the amendment. The opponents of the measure made no effort to defeat it, and will content themselves with devising means to evade its operation and surmount it with such legislative enactments as will render it of no effect. The amendment will go into effect when the vote is canvassed and published by authority of the state board, and in the opinion of many lawyers this will abrogate all licenses heretofore granted by any municipal law. It also Virtually repeals the present dram shop act of the state relating to the granting of licenses. The other provisions of the act prohibiting penalties for sale, without authority of law remain in full force and effect. It is not known how the legislature elect stands on the questions growing out of the amendment, and a strong fight will be made by the two factions.

Terrible Accident.

MACON, Ga., November 19,-Early yesterday morning a passenger train on the Georgia Central railroad broke in half, twelve miles from Macon. The steam break stopped the rear half on a down grade. A heavy freight train following telescoped the sleeper half way, killing the engineer. The president of the Central railroad, W. M. Wadley, and the vice president, Mr. Raoul, were in the sleeping car, but escaped through a window, Several of the passengers were hurt but none fatally. A few minutes after the collision a second heavy freight train ran into the middle train, smashing the cars into fragments. Engineer Crosby, of the middle train, was standing with his hand on the lever, which was reversed; he was jammed against the hot boiler by the freight car leaping over the tender and was disemboweled and roasted. The other engineers and firemen leaped and were saved. Mat Freeman, of Macon, was badly cut in the head by a fragment ot a car sent. Raoul had his ankle sprained. The accident occurred on a steep grade where the trains could not be checked. The track has been cleared and the trains are again running.

A Woman of Many Husbands.

NEW YORK, November 30. - Mrs. Theresa Reimenschneider, alias Aurback, alias Grau, alias Templeton, a prepossessing woman, 25 years of age, was arrested to-night in Brooklyn, charged with bigamy and grand larceny. It is said that she has married fourteen Germans in Newark, N. J., and elsewhere for the simple purpose of robbing them. She will be taken to Newark for ### Garfield's Successor in the House.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, November 30 .- At a special election to-day in the Nineteenth Ohio District, Judge E. B. Taylor elected in October to be Garfield's successor as Representative, was elected to fill the vacancy in the present Congress.

Miscellaneous News Items.

Mr. George Davis an employee in the Mint at Philadelphia dropped dead while in the act of siguing some papers in that institution on Tuesday last.

About the middle of November, a farmer near Pughtown, Chester county, was observed mowing in his fields, and he actually cut and took in a lot of second or third crop hay so late in the season.

On Thursday a magistrate in Butler united in marriage Nelson Dorsey, colored, and Mrs. Margaret, white ; also C. Allen, colored, and Miss Chaudler, white. Mrs. Adams owns a farm and is worth $15,000.

Galusha Maranville, an inventor of some note and patentee of a calendar clock and other articles, was killed on Tuesday by falling into the flywheel in the engine room of the Harris Manufacturing Company at Rutland, Vt.

STOUGHTON, Mass., November 29 .- Mrs. Littlefield, who on Saturday poisoned her husband and child, shot berself dead this morning with a revolver purchased at the time when she procured the morphine for her family.

On Thursday evening last, a strange lady stopped at the house of Mr. David Zeller, near Williamsport, Md., and was assigned comfortable quarters in the house for the night. In the morning she was found in an unoccupied stall in the barn with a new born child by her side.

New Haven, Conn., November 29 .-Lucius Hotchkiss, a retired merchant and banker, died this morning very suddenly.

A few minutes before his death his wife, who had gone in to see him, on being informed that he was dying fell dead on the bed on which he was lying. He was seventy-eight years of age and she was seventy-two.

On Monday morning the bodies of two men identified as Charles Brown and Hack, a laborer, were found in a building known as Marble Hall, in Hawkins county, Tennessee. An examination showed that they had been murdered. Brown was known to have several hundred dollars in his possession. There is no clew to the Captain Harper, of Lebanon, Tenn., a noted confederate guerilla, is still living and trading stock in Texas. He didn't stop fighting till about a year after Lee surrendered. He was captured once in Tennessee and chained with another prisoner, his arms being tied behind him with a rope. With a knife he freed himself from the rope and severed a weak link in the chain. There were seventeen or twenty soldiers standing around, but he ran through the group and escaped, hotly pursued by bullets.

In North Beaver, Lawrence county, is a school district that, a few years ago, was one of the most populous in the county. For the past eight years not a child has been born within its limits, and none are expected to put in appearance there for an indefinite period to come. At the present time there are but fourteen children in the district, and this and next winter's operations will clean up the school for want of pupils.

FARMLAND, Ind., November 30 .- Last night William Barres, who had all day been drinking and quarreling with every one he met, especially with his family, took up a double barreled shotgun, and while his wife was sitting with her babe in her arms shot her through the head, killing her instantly. He was arrested and taken to Winchester. He says the shot was accidental. He came near shooting her when he was drunk once before with the same weapon.

DANVILLE, Va., November 30 .- Lorenzo Ivy, colored, teacher of a colored free school here, was attacked this morning by two of his boy pupils, brothers, aged fifteen and eighteen years respectively, and was repeatedly stabbed with knives. His injuries are probably mortal. He had punished the younger of the two brothers for playing with the girls, and in revenge was attacked by the two brothers.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 30, 1880. One week from to-day the Forty-sixth Congress convenes for its third and final session, From now on the Senators and members of the lower house will arrive daily. Each train will bring to the city the returning Congressmen and scores of visiting strangers. The streets already show signs of the large luflux of visitors who are attracted here when Congress is at work. The hotel men say the outlook for the winter is most auspicious. For the inaugural season the hotels will not have the necessary accomedations to meet the demands. The bouse committee on appropriations, it is expected, will have a quorum in the city to.morrow. Prof. Munroe, who with Congressman Singleton, of Memphis, will have charge of the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill, are in the city, and will proceed at once to complete the bill.

President Hayes has completed his message, and the question which now disturbs him is, whether or not to put it in print. He is apprebensive if he prints it may have premature publication. Editor Smith of the Cincinati "Gazette," advised him to compel the Associated Press to telegraph it from manifold copies to be furnished. Meanwhile the President has telegraphed for Wm. Henry Smith, the Western Associated Press agent at Chicago. to come to this city and consult him with reference to its distribution. Mr. Smith left Chleago for Washington this morning, and will arrive here to-morrow night.

It is learned here from authoritive source that the $250,000 Presidential pension fund started by Mr. George Jones, of the N. Y. "Times," promises to be a success. Over two hundred thousand dollars has already

The present outlook is that the coming session will be a dull one, confined to the passage of the regular appropriation bills, an appor tionment bill probably, and a financial bill to enable the refunding by the Secretary of the Treasury of the bonded debt which falls due in May and June next. It is not believed, despite the President and Secretary Sherman's recommendation, that there will be any legislation which will affect the present status of the standard silver dollar with respect to it's weight or coinage. The disposition is to keep politics as much as possible out of the debate, more especially so in the House. There is no apprehension that the tariff will be tinkered, although the effort will again be made to put salt and pulp on the free list, which will fail probably. If the Republicans will consent to make the session one of business only, the Democrats will accommodate them in this respect. A few Republicans urge an extra session, so that their party can secure the control of the organization of the House, directly after March 4th. This will be frowned down by the leaders. All that could be gained by such control would be a few officers, and the disposition of the Republican leaders is to let the Democrats hold on to them until December of next year. Of course there will be a special session of the Senate to confirm General Garfield's appointments. How long this will last will depend on the question, whether the new Chinese treaty of immigration is ratified between now and March 4th, next. If not the Senate may remain here until the middle of May, as the Chinese matter has now reached that shape that neither party cares to ignore it.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Lippincott's Magazine for December opens with an interesting and finely illustrated paper entitled "An Historical Rocky-Mountain Outpost." Another illustrated article, "Our Grandfather's Temples," by Charles F. Richardson, is a very readable account of the oldest places of worship still existing in the country. "Will Democracy Tolerate a Permanent Class of National Officeholders?" "The Anthors of Froufrou," by J. Brander Matthews, has a timely interest in connection with Sara Bernhardt's performances. Other papers deserving of notice are "Gas-Burning and its Consequences," "An Episode of Spanish Chivalry," the conclusion of Dr. H. C. Wood's exposition of "Automatism;" and a contribution to Shakesperian studies. The popular serial, "Adam and Eve," reaches a dramatic and satisfactory termination in this number, which also contains several striking stories, including a thoroughly realistic sketch of Edinburg street life, by the author of "Flitters, Tatters and the Counsellor." The "Monthly Gossip" is unusually full and entertaining. With the January number this Magtzine will enter on a new series, at a reduced price and with the promise of greater attractiveness and wider claims to popularity.

We are quite certain that the reader of this, if he does not already take it, will find a rich treasure in THE ILLUSTRATED CHRISTIAN WEEKLY, published by the American Tract Society. It is intended to counteract the influence of the sensational and corrupting pletorials which are so fatal among the youth of ever wood families.

pictorials which are so fatal among the youth of even good families.

It is superbly illustrated with the fluest wood engravings, enriched by choice contributions from many of the best writers of the day, contains first-cless stories for the youth, well-considered editorials for the thoughtful, able notes on the International Bunday School Lessons for teachers and scholars, and a trust-worthy outlook on the news of the day.

Do you want all this and much more? Then let The Illustrated Christian Weekly find an entrance into your being, and your heart will be warmed and gladdened by its very presence. Giving as it does twelve pages weekly, with about four hundred cuts yearly, elegantly printed on fine paper, and at the low price of $2.50 per year, postpaid, we do not think that for quality or price it can be excelled.
