Brief Items.

We will be ready this morning to name some low prices on Ladies' coats. See 8th page for a list of good Harrisburg business houses.

Rev. J. Kretzing got a black eye a few days since by treading on a hoe in such a manner that the handle flew up and struck him just under the eye.

Milligan's hardware store was broken into by burglars, on Thursday night.— The change in the cash drawer and some cutlery was stolen.

On Monday the stage came into town with the hind parts riding on a sapling. It was the result of running against a heavily loaded team, thus breaking an

Mrs. Etter, in Newport, had a narrow escape from burning the other day. Her dress had commenced to blaze when a young man came to her rescue and smothered the flame before any injury was done except to damage] her cloth-

Friday morning a week a little daughter of Frederic Louden, residing in Howe township, was burned so badly by her clothes taking fire, that she died in a few hours. The mother was out milking when the accident happened.

The public would be better served in its mail matters if more good common sense and less red tape was used in some of the post offices. It would be very sad however, if any one should think that this remark applied to the Newport

Tuesday evening of last week, Mrs. Adam Ludwig, of Liverpool, fell and broke her leg above the knee. The acbroke her leg above the knee. The ac-cident happened while going over a crossing. Dr. Morris was called in and set the limb, and at last accounts she was improving finely. The crossing is was improving finely. The crossing is a dangerous one, and if the borough don't soon fix it, they will pay dearly for their negligence.-Record

Mr. John Miller, an old and highly respected citizen, who resides on the old Hagerstown road, about 3‡ miles from Waynesboro, was found dead in his yard on Monday afternoon last. At the time of his death he was engaged in covering plants around the house with manure, to protect them from the cold, and is supposed to have been dead an hour before the body was discovered. hour before the body was discovered.

Rev. Chas. A. Cleaver, member of the Baltimore Conference, M. E. church, and father of Rev. J. W. Cleaver, late of this place, died on Thursday morning a week, at his residence in Hereford, Md., aged about 65 years. For months he had been afflicted with paralysis, which finally caused his death. A few which finally caused his death. A few days before his death he became totally unconscious.

Trinity Reformed S. S. at Landisburg will hold a Christmas Festival on Christ-mas evening. A Bible reading, songs, chasts, and address, and erecting a mon-ument of truth will give variety to the

The St. Peter's Reformed church, in Spring twp., will also celebrate Christ-mas with a responsive Bible service, giving of presents and singing of hymns and chants. The public is invited to attend these celebrations.

Toys and Christmas Presents. - We have made a special provision for the little folks this season. Our assortment of Toys, Picture Books and other articles suited for Christmas presents will be found complete.

F. MORTIMER.

Very Profitable .- It will perhaps be profitable, (profitable to us we mean,) if you will read the figures on the label on this paper. It is a pretty game to play, and we will let you have the first deal.

Perjured Insurance .- The amount of insurance that is taken out on aged and sick persons is perfectly astonishing .-We know of one case in this county, where over one hundred thousand dollars was placed on an old man, and the last policy was actually taken outseveral hours after the man was dead. This is worse than the famous Berks county

Concert.-Under the management of the young ladies and gentlemen of the Presbyterian Church, an entertainment, consisting of charades, tableaux and music, will be given in the Court House in this place, on Thursday, the 9th inst. Doors open at 6½ o'clock, performance to commence at 7½ o'clock, P. M. Admission, 20 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

Whose Baby Was It?-The dead body of an infant child was found in the fire box of a stationary engine at Marysville, on Tuesday last. The engine had been shipped from Sunbury the day previous. The body had been sewed up in a muslin bag and had evidently been born alive and healthy. An inquest was held, but no facts were elicited tending to show who had placed the body there.

Sudden Death. - Miss Rebecca Hench died very suddenly at her father's residence in Spring township, on the 27th ult. She had partaken of a hearty dinner, after which she went out and asisted in capturing a colt that had broken out and in loading some straw at the barn, and then went to attend to her household duties, apparently well, when she sank to the floor and immediately expired. The physician called pronounced paralysis the cause of her death. She was about 40 years' of age and a consistent member of St. Peter's Church.

Robbery in Millerstown. - The store house of T. Cluck, in Millerstown, was broken into Tuesday night, by forcing the front door. The intention of the thieves was, no doubt, to "crack" the safe. A burglar alarm which connects the store with Mr. Cluck's residence warned that gentleman of the doings in his store. There was nothing taken .-The parties were tracked into Centre Equare, Newport, a distance of five miles, where all track was lost. The tools used to break in the above store were taken from Ziegler's wagonmaker shop, just above Newport.

Weather for November .- B. M'Intire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of November, 1880: Average of Thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 32 86', and of Barometer, 30 inches minus 5 tenths. Average of greatest degree of heat, 36°14', and of cold, 26923'. The warmest day was Friday the 5th, the Thermometer registering 61°, and Friday 26th was the coldest, the Mercury sinking to 50 .-There fell 5 and 1-tenth inches of rain, and 8 inches of snow. This was the coldest November for over twenty years, and there was more rain and snow than any November for the same time.

An Upset .- On Thursday last John Clouser met with a mishap that was caused by icy roads. He had on a load of charcoal and was passing around the bend near the residence of Samuel Brown in Centre township, where the road slopes toward the meadow when his wagon slipped over the bank. Fortunately the hounds broke, or the weight of the load would have pulled his team over too, perhaps injuring some of his horses. As it was his wagon bed was broken and the charcoal scattered over nearly half an acre of ground. The supervisor has since fixed the road.

The Peoples' F. R. R .- From the short reference we made last week to the cases brought before the Mifflin county court, perhaps the result may not be understood. These suits have been brought to recover on subscriptions for grading and work. The subscriptions being only for work to be done in grading .-As long as it could not be shown that sufficient money had been collected to cover those outlays, there was no question in any court as to the liability of the subscribers. Hence the company always recovered and the supreme court sustained the decisions.

Since the cases were last tried in this county a number of parties had settled their assesments, and these amounts added to former collections enabled the defendants to put in as answer, that enough money had already been collected to cover all expenses for work done. That being established it left the company without anything to base their claim on, and justified the court in taking theaction that was so satisfactory to the defendants. Some persons may wonder why such a defense was not sooner made. Had it been done it would probably not have been successful, as it was only the latter payments that warranted the defendants in taking this Smiley, att'y.

Report of Chas. H. Smiley, Esq., auditor appointed to distribute the funds in the hands of Samuel Smith's assignee,

At the instance of W. A. Sponsler, Esq., attorney of D. S. Zook, guardian of Ida Jane Trostle, deceased, a rule was granted upon Catharine R. Reeder, widow of Elias Trostle, to show cause why there should not be a trustee appointed to whom she should pay the one third of $784.15. John T. Briner was appointed said trustee to receive said amount and to pay the interest on the same to the said C. R. Reeder during her natural life and at her death to pay said principal to the two minor children of said Elias Treetle. pal to the ty Elias Trostle.

In the case of the Com. of Penna, vs. John Derrick and Alonza Clouser, wherein defendants were charged with an assault, a motion was made for a new trial at the Oct. term. Motion was argued and refused. The Court sentenced the defendants to pay the costs of prose-cution and to stand committed until the sentence is complied with.

Juniata County .- We copy the follow ing from the Juniata county papers of last week :

David Heck fell from the "over-head" to the threshing floor in John Zook's barn in Fermanagh township, last Wednesday, and was seriously hurt. He lay unconscious several days.

A son of Lucien Louder, in Patterson, fell from a horse a few weeks ago, and hurt the top of his head seriously. Drs. Crawford and Banks performed an operation on the crown of his head, removing a piece of the skull. He is doing quite well, and in all probability will fully recover.

A tenant house, occupied by farmer Swartz, on the Stouffer Cedar Spring farm, was entered by thieves last Wednesday night. Entrance was effected by putting a lever under the sash of a window in the basement story of the house. Nails had been put above the noise. Nails had been put above the sash, but the lever was strong enough to break the nails. The thieves did not get into the upstairs of the house. There was stolen from the house house. There was stolen from the nouse a double shawl, three pairs of woolen stockings, one pair of new buck-skin gloves, woolen shirt, glass-ware, and other articles, with bread butter and

Cumberland County .- We copy the fol lowing from the Cumberland papers of last week :

Rev. Jno. W. Tressler, the Lutheran minister at West Fairview, has resigned. He preached his farewell sermon on Sunday 28th ult. Mr. Tressler is going to his home in Somerset county.

On last Thursday evening, Mr. John Hyer, an aged and respected citizen of Carlisle, fell on the pavement in front of Capt. Miller's hardware store on Hanover street, and broke his leg between the knee and hip. Mr. Hyer was picked up and taken to his home on East Louther street.

Weddings do not always take place in high life. On Monday evening, Edgar L. Shryock, Justice of the Peace in the First Ward, married a couple of inmates of the County jail. Everything passed off pleasantly, and later in the evening the newly wedded couple were vociferously serenaded by some of the inmates.

About 7 o'clock on Monday evening last, a little eighteen months' old son of Mr. Wm. Deaner, residing on W. North St., Carlilse, accidentally upset a tin of bolling water upon itself, from the effects of which it died the following morning at 7 o'clock. The distressed parents have the sympathy of our peo-ple in the sudden death of their only child.

Says the Shippensburg News: "One evening last week, a coal oil lamp in the store of J. R. Pague & Co., West Main street, while sitting on the desk, exploded, and threw the burning oil in all directions. It was only by the utmost exertions of those present that much danger was averted, and the surroundings saved from destruction. The burning oil ran down and over the desk, to several boxes of glass, which contained a quantity of straw, and in close proximity to this combustible material was a keg of powder with a paper stopper in the hole from which the powder was poured. The flames, however, were extinguished, but the persons most active in doing so were not aware of the dangerous surround-

THE TOMBS.

THE POLICE GAZETTE (of New York) will commence in No. 168 a history of this famous Jail. The incidents which it contains are full of startling interest. The lives of its noted inmates in the past and present are sketched in a graphic manner. Romance and fact are blended together in a style which cannot fail to delight all who love sensational reading. This history, in connection with the POLICE GAZETTE'S sporting and general news, makes that journal one of the most entertaing weeklies published. In No. 169 a full-page illustration of scenes of the interior of the New tion of scenes of the interior of the New York Tombs, sketched specially for the Police Gazette, will appear.
