The vendors license in Altoona catches many an agent. Isaac Mansbach well known in this county, was caught last week and compelled to pay $20 and costs.

On Wednesday night a week, Mr. John Sheaffer, of New Buffalo, retired not feeling very well, but he soon fell asleep, which proved to be the sleep of death, as he did not wake again.

"Insurance Frauds,"—the charge you make against one of the parties is such that we must decline to publish your communication. Make your statement to the district attorney.

Mrs. Sarah Miller, residing in Pfoutz Valley, fell on Sunday the 28th ult., and fractured one of the bones in the hip joint. Dr. Samuel Stites rendered the proper surgical aid.

A large number of loaded canal boats were caught by the ice on their way home. Over fifty boats are now in the Juniata canal, above and below Duncannon's Island.

A farmer at Middle Spring, Franklin county, who had lost a large number of sheep, recently prepared a lot of poisoned meat for the depredators. Next morning eighteen lifeless curs were found on the premises.

A little son of Ed. Davis' at McVeytown, was supposed to be lost a few days ago, and the town, the canal, and other places were searched, when finally the little chap was found fast asleep at home under the table.

Nos. and plans of routes can be seen at the Post-Office in this borough.

A Pennsylvania law provides that all money put into a stakeholder's hands as a wager, may be seized and devoted to the support of the poor. The statute is sixty years old and has long been a dead letter, but should have new life put into it.

John Shearer, Esq., is very indignant at the manner he is referred to in the insurance article, published in a Philadelphia paper and copied into the Freeman, but as we did not publish the article we can hardly be expected to give room to his long letter in reply.—We have no doubt that Judge Baker will give room for the explanation.

The Carlisle Herald says: On Friday last, Mr. Joseph W. Galbraith, of Dickinson, shipped a lot of fine oats to S. Y. Haines, of Philadelphia. These varieties included the White Belgian, which weighed 37 lbs. to the bushel, and the New Zealand, which weighed 33 lbs.—He received $1.00 per bushel, and we understand has upwards of 100 bushel, sold for future delivery.

Fine Venison.—One day last week the foreman of this office received a fine hind-quarter of venison, by express, from Dr. D. H. Sweeney, a former resident of this borough, but now pleasantly located at Clearfield, Pa., where we are happy to learn, he has a lucrative practice. The Doctor wished to be remembered to several of his old friends. All requests complied with, Doctor, and you have the thanks and good wishes of all mentioned.

Sudden Death.—Frank Gillespie, of this place, died suddenly, it is supposed of heart disease, on Monday night. He was on the street during the day and evening and remarked to a friend that he did not feel so well, and would have to keep off the damp pavements. During the night his condition becoming alarming a physician was summoned, but before he arrived Mr. Gillespie was a corpse.—Franklin Repository.

Taking the Widow's Place.—On Monday of last week, Chief of Police Bautz, of this Borough, received from the United States Marshal, at Harrisburg, a warrant for the arrest of David Carbaugh, of Carlisle, charged with forgery. Carbaugh left this place on the 25th of last October, and nothing certain was known of his whereabouts, but Chief Bautz, assisted by Officer Humer, succeeded in tracing him to Loysville, Perry county, and arrested him. He was brought to this place and locked up, and was subsequently taken to Harrisburg. On Saturday he was given a hearing. The evidence in the case was such as caused United States Commissioner McCarrell to send Carbaugh to Philadelphia to await trial at the next United States court, in February next.

The particulars of Carbaugh's alleged swindle are remarkable. His father was a soldier of the war of 1812, and after the old man's death his widow was allowed a pension. Mrs. Margaret Carbaugh, the pensioner, died in January, 1879, a fact which the son concealed.—In September, 1879, he induced his wife to personate his mother as the pensioner and going before Squire Green, of this place, she made affidavit that she was Margaret Carbaugh, bringing as witnesses to this Jeremiah and Lydia Minich, residents of this county. By this means Carbaugh received a pension claim of $142.67, and secured the money by forging his mother's signature, or mark, on the check issued October, 1879. Jeremiah and Lydia Minich, the two witnesses, were arrested in Lebanon county, and gave bail for trial at the U. S. court.—Carlisle Volunteer.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

Mr. Thomas Kelley of Lack township received, last week, over $1400 back pension money. Of course Mr. K. feels happy.

Mr. Henry Brubaker, of Oakland Mills, lost a valuable horse—from epilepsy. Wilson Bros., also lost a horse, and Mr. Isaac Puffenberger, of Fermanagh township, lost a valuable colt—all recently.

On Wednesday night of last week, G. Wash Snyder, of this place, freight brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad had his right hand so badly mangled while engaged in coupling cars, in the Harrisburg yard, as to require amputation at the wrist. He is now in the Hospital at Harrisburg receiving the proper care.—Port Royal Times.

E. A. Allen's stage ran after the horses so fast the other day, that it was capsized and fell on two passengers, holding them until parties came to their rescue. They were not hurt. The horses came to Patterson with only some bits attached. Result—A new stage now runs between this point and McCoyville.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

On Friday night last, Mrs. John R. Dunfee, of East Main street, Newville, became the victim of a serious coal oil accident. They had retired to bed, and about eleven o'clock, Mr. Dunfee was awakened by an explosion and on opening his eyes found the table on which the lamp had been sitting all ablaze and the burning fluid running to the floor.—Wife and he both in haste and under considerable excitement proceeded to extinguish the flames. This was partly accomplished when the night clothes of Mrs. Dunfee were found to be on fire and before her husband could extinguish the flames she was seriously burned from her hip down, one arm and one of her hands very badly. As a consequence she suffered considerable but was relieved by the usual applications.

Some time ago a roll of Brussels carpet was taken from a car in Newville.—For a long time nothing was heard of the thief or his spoils, but a few days ago, suspicion pointed to James Nickelson as the culprit. An investigation followed, and it was discovered that Nickelson had stolen the carpet and sold it to Adam Bentz, of that place for five dollars. A warrant was placed in Officer Byers' hands, and he arrested Nickelson and Bentz. They were held in $500 bail each. Nickelson has left the country, and it is likely that when the time arrives for him to appear, his bondman, Mr. John Woodburn will have $500 to pay.

FOR THE TIMES.

"Man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn."—Burns.

Mr. Errol.—We are glad to see that the Press, not only in the State but in the county, have commenced to ventilate this species of gambling called life insuring, in which men who have money send out agents or spies, secretly hunting up along the road of life, all who are poor and sickly and old, like so many vultures, that they may pick their bones before they are covered up in the grave forever; better, as Shakespeare has it, coin their hearts for money than get it by such means. It is arrogance against God, and an insult to all whom they approach in this way; and we wonder that their children do not rebel the insult thus offered to their venerable parents. And in vain do men preach and pray while such a hardening process is going on in their midst, it stops up all the pores of humanity, and hardens the heart more than the African slave trade, for avarice is the prevailing and leading sin of the world and makes men not only forget God but their own species.

HUMANITY.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, for January, is before us, in advance; and has outdone itself even. Besides two beautiful steel engravings, a double sized colored steel fashion-plate, and a superb colored pattern in Henri III. embroidery, and some half a hundred wood-engravings of fashions, work-table patterns, etc., it has an array of tales, novelets, etc., such as is rarely seen in any magazine. The terms are but Two Dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs, and handsome premiums to persons getting up clubs. Specimens are sent, gratis, if written for, to persons wishing to get up clubs. Address CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. N. B.—We furnish "Peterson," and THE TIMES, for one year, for $3.00 cash in advance, to those wishing to take both.

Godey's Lady's Book for January, 1880,

Shows that the old, established favorite still stands at the head of Fashion, Literature, and Art. Opening with one of Darley's gems, "Grandfather's Call," a New Year's Poem in a Picture, it gives page after page of attractive matter for the fair sex, in Fashion and Fancy Work. Mrs. Benjamin's novel, "Jim the Farson," is the first of the novels we are promised this year, and is written in the same earnest, pure tone that made "Glenarcan" and "Hilda and I" so popular. The usual literary department loses nothing by this addition, as we find short stories and poems by our best writers in succeeding pages. Every department is well filled, and Godey for 1881 means to keep all its enviable reputation and standing by deserving them. We receive subscriptions at this office for Godey's Lady's Book and THE TIMES, furnishing both to subscribers at the low price of $3.00 per annum.
