they eagerly refund the money in every instance that it is desired. There is probably no better place in the city to buy Christmas gifts.

Sad Accident.—A correspondent from Man's Choice, Bedford county, says: A sad accident occurred at our place on the morning of the 7th inst.

Life Insurance.—The Juniata Sentinel gives the following list of insurances: There must be nearly, or quite a half million of insurance on old people who live within a circle of not many miles to Richfield.

Special Notice.—Owing to the lateness of the season we have determined to close out our fall stock of Carpets at reduced prices. Persons in need of the above will find it to their advantage to call and see our prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week: Two deaths occurred at the Indian School this week.

On Friday last, while Mr. Robert Jackson, and his son James, who resides near Oakville, were engaged in hauling logs from a woods near his residence, and while in the act of loading, the chain, which held the log slipped off striking Mr. Jackson, knocking him to the ground and rolling on his breast and stomach causing a rupture internally which resulted in his death about two hours afterward.

On Saturday last, while General Napoleon was standing near the counter at Allen's cigar stand, Geo. P. Meyers, Esq., came in, and the room being dark, ran against the General, knocking him down, and breaking several small bones in both legs below his knees.

Teachers' Institute.—The Thirty-first Annual Session of the Perry County Teachers' Institute convened in the Court House in New Bloomfield, on Monday, December 13, 1880, at 1 P. M.

W. E. Baker answered the following questions: 1. Why should primary instruction deal largely with concrete knowledge? 2. Why should we teach children things before names, ideas before words that represent them, and process before rules?

Announcement of programme. Prof. J. R. Filckinger, Rev. J. Edgar, and Chas. H. Smiley, Esq., were appointed by the Superintendent, a committee to examine pupils work, to report upon its merits, and to decide which is best in the various departments.
