His success as a practitioner of medicine is acknowledged by recommendations from former patrons, which are free for inspection at all times.

IN THE TREATMENT OF Chronic Diseases he has had very extensive experience, and has cured many hopeless cases, after years of suffering, and expense incurred in seeking relief elsewhere.

Among the many chronic complaints treated successfully are Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Hemorrhage of the Lungs, Consumption, (first and second stages,) Bright's Disease, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Melancholia, Scorfula or King's Evil, Skin Diseases, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, or enlargement of the Glands of the neck, Dropsy, Piles, chronic Diarrhoea, Constipation of the Bowels, Sick and Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Diseases of Females, Tumors, Kidney Diseases, Enlarged Spleen, Epilepsy, Deafness, Chronic Chills and Ague, Diabetes Mellitus, old running sores, Tapeworms removed.

INHALATIONS, which carries the medicine direct to the diseased parts.

When an incurable case presents itself he is free and candid in telling the patient that he cannot cure him, thus avoiding further expense.

In chronic ailments it is always best for patients to call at his office for personal examination and treatment, when that is practicable.

MANHOOD. How Lost, How Restored!

Just published a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhea or Seminal weakness, Sexual Debility, Losses, Impotency, Mental and physical Incapacities, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. In plain English, sent under seal in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps.

A FULL ASSORTMENT OF HARDWARE, IRON & STEEL WILL BE FOUND AT OUR NEW STORE-ROOM. F. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield.

"I have three children who are the very image of myself." "I pity the youngest," replied his interlocutor. "Why?" "Because he is the one who will have to resemble you the longest."

A young man while attempting to fix a misplaced switch on a young lady's head in a ball room, stepped on her dress and wrecked the train. She told him to conductor to a seat, and be more careful in future.

On a rainy morning, a small boy, who has exhausted all his excuses for not putting in an appearance at school, opens the door and says to the astonished master. "Sir, ma says I can't come to school to-day—it's raining too hard."

A Galveston school teacher had a great deal of trouble making a boy understand his lesson. Finally, however, he succeeded, and drawing a long breath remarked to the boy. "If it wasn't for me you would be the biggest donkey on Galveston Island."

"Nigger, who am de fuss man dat interduced salt perwishuns into de navy?" "Dar now, you're to hard for dis colored individual."

"It was Noah nigger, when he took Ham board his ark."

"So you enjoyed your visit to the menagerie, did you?" inquired young Syllabus of his adored one's little sister. "Oh yes. And do you know, we saw a camel there that screwed its mouth and eyes around awfully, and sister said it looked exactly as you do when you are reciting poetry at the church sociables."

When the teacher was relating the parable of the Prodigal Son, and was just at the interesting point where the father and the son meet, she was interrupted by a little boy who, with an eye to a business with which he was probably already acquainted asked; "Yes; but what became of the hogs?"

A young man with an umbrella overlooked an unprotected lady acquaintance in a rain storm, and extending his umbrella over her, requested the pleasure of acting as her rainbow. "Oh!" exclaimed the young lady, taking his arm, "you wish me to be your raindeer." Two souls with a single umbrella two forms that stepped as one.

"Ish dere some ledder here for me?" inquired a German at the general delivery window of the post-office lately. "No; none here," was the reply. "Vell, dot ish queer," he continued, getting his head into the window; "my neighbor gets sometimes dree ledders in one day, and I get none. I buys more daxes as he does, and haf never got one ledder yet. How comes dose dings?"

Waggs went to the station of one of our railroads the other evening, and finding all the seats occupied, said in a loud tone, "Why, this car isn't going!" Of course these words caused a general stampede, and Waggs took the best seat. The train soon moved off. In the midst the indignation the wag was questioned. "You said this car wasn't going?" "Well it wasn't then," replied Waggs, "but it is now."

A big fat colored woman came to the Galveston chief of police, and told him that her step son had run away, and that she wanted to know where he was. "It boddens me to know why he left. He had every thing he needed to make him cumfable. I done all I could for him," she observed. "Has he any marks by which he may be recognized?"

"Well, I don't reckon all de marks I made on him with a bed slat, while de old man was holdin' him, has faded out yet."

Poor Human Nature. Human nature is a curious study, says an exchange. The other night at the depot, one of the depot hands, while weeping out, thought he saw a twenty five cent piece under one of the benches. He went down on his knees immediately, and covered the piece with his hand. While he was in this position a well-dressed lady tapped him on the shoulder and said; "I just dropped that."

"What was it madam?" was the gentlemanly interrogatory. "I think it was a quarter."

He placed it, without further parleying, in her hand, and she, tightly holding it, went away. What was her dismay to discover that it was a peppermint lozenge.
