Again this town will lose, while the west will gain one in population. This week, Miss Fanny, daughter of F. B. Clouser, Esq., will leave for the west, as the bride of Mr. J. H. Gable, of Odebolt, Iowa. We wish the young couple every prosperity in life. Mr. Gable, who is a Perry county boy, is telegraph operator and Express and R. R. On last Friday morning, J. J. Anderson residing in town went to the store of Jackson Bros., and bought some gun caps and after trial found they were too caps and after trial found they were too small and returned to exchange them, having with him a double barreled shot gun. After entering the room he pulled back the hammer of the right barrel of his gun and was in the act of pulling the left one back when the right barrel was discharged, the contents lodging in the discharged, the contents lodging in the floor overhead. Several persons were in the room at the time, and had it not been for the care exercised by Mr. A., in keeping the muzzle of his gun "well up" a serious accident would in all probability have been the result.—Record.

An Unlucky Butcher. - On Tuesday as Wm. F. Miller, of Watts twp., was killing a hog he slipped, which caused him to thrust the butcher knife into his knee making a painful wound, and one which may yet give him some trouble.

Caught a Possum.-Constable William Brown, of the Third ward, familiarly known as "Poley," is a man of nervenot only in the capacity of a daring fireman or courageous policeman-but in the chase. One morning last week as "Poley" was plodding along leisurely on his way to the new Harris park school house he discovered a big fat possum in the park, opposite the school house, and without the aid of dogs, gun, bludgeon or the "grip-sack," he went for the dangerous animal, seized hold of its caudal appendage and actually carried it into the school house, flung it into an empty barrel without receiving a scratch or bite! Talk about the adventures of Paul Du Challieu or Gordon Cumming after that .- Patriot

In the Crop of a Chicken .- On Saturday, Mr. J. F. Trout, residing on North street, between Second and Third, purchased a pair of chickens in the market, and killed them. In the crop of one of the fowls was found a gold coin of the value of a quarter of a dollar, of the coinage of 1871. The face side was in perfect condition, bright as the day it was coined; but on the reverse side was a dark spot, directly over the fraction and word "! Dollar," the size of a small pea, flattened, which was brought about by the action of something more powerful than acid. From outward appearance the coin had been in the chicken's crop for some time.

Charged with Abduction .- On the 23rd of last September, Alice Pool, a minor daughter of Josiah Pool, of Fannett twp., mysteriously disappeared from her father's house. Her parents since that that time have made dilligent search for her but have been unable to find her .-Mr. Pool had reasons to believed that she had been abducted and perhaps murdered. In the parents mind suspicion rested upon two men in that neighborhood, D. J. Wright and John Kent, and he accordingly had the latter arrested on Tuesday last, and brought to this place, where Wright who was in attendance at Court was also arresfed. They were taken before 'Squire McNulty and a hearing given them, after which they were held in $300 ball for their appearance at Court. Mr. Pool says his daughter was abducted away from her home by notes written by Wright. One of defendants says the girl can be produced at any time. It is certainly a singular case but as it is in the hands of the law, we give the fact only at this time .-Franklin Repository.

The Juniata County Church Suit .- In the case of the Presbyterian congregation of Lost Creek vs. the Presbyterian congregation of Miffln town, W. N. Seibert, Esq., Master in Chancery, filed his report in the office of the Prothonotary, on Friday last. The Master directs that the bill be dismissed for these among other reasons: That the trust which was created rises above the charter; that the ecclesiastical action loes not controvene or antagonize the charter; that there was no schism and no secession. This remits the parties to their original status and leaves them where they were previous to June 15th, 1875, the time when the Committee of the Presbytery organized the congregation at Miffintown. The case has been one of great labor on the part of the

On Sunday morning, between the hours of two and three o'clock, the hardware store of Stevens & Guss, in Patterson, was broken into and robbed of ten revolvers, a lot of pocket knives and some scissors. The room was entered by taking out a glass in the store door on Main Street. Mr. Stevens estimates the loss at about $95. The same night the house of William Nankivel, which is but a short distance from the hardware store, was entered and his coat taken. Nothing else was missing.

Daniel A. Notestine, of Patterson, died of heart disease after a lingering illness on Wednesday morning. In this community where he lived most of his life he was known as an upright citizen, an honest christian man. For many years he was a consistent member of the M. E. Church, and died in the hope of realizing the fulfillment of its teaching. He was also a member of Union Lodge, A. Y. M., American Mechanics and of Post 134, G. A. R. He served during the late war in the Third Pa. Artillery, and for a time was private orderly to and for a time was private orderly to that brave old soldier, General Ord. He was buried on Friday, by the beautiful and impressive ceremonies of the Masonic Order and was attended to the grave by the members of the Post and American Mechanics. He leaves a wife and three daughters to mourn the loss of father and husband.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

On Saturday evening, as Francis Tom-linson, a young man in the employ of ex-Sheriff Gill, was riding to town on horseback, and when on the Walnut Bottom road near town, the animal slip-ped and fell upon the left leg of the young man, breaking that member. He remained in a helpless condition until the arrival of Mr. Wm. Dinkle, of this place, who happened to come along and at once removed him to his father's resi-dence on West North street. Dr. Thos. Stewart, Jr., reduced the fracture, and Stewart, Jr., reduced the fracture, and he will soon be about again.

As Mr. John H. Zeigler and Mr. John Senseman were returning home from New Kingston a few evenings ago to their homes, one of the bolts that held the shafts in place dropped out, allow-ing them to fall, which so frightened their horse that he ran away, overturning the wrgon, and throwing the oc-cupants out. Mr. Zeigler fell on his head and was considerably injured, but Mr. Senseman luckily escaped unhurt.— The wagon was a total wreck.
