Dr. J. L. Ickes, of Altoona, brother of Mrs. John Rice, of this borough, died at Altoona, on the 25th ult. The de-ceased read medicine in this town with Dr. Vanderslice, about 50 years ago.

A young man named J. F. Kauffman who belonged in the vicinity of Dun-cannon, fell from the cars on Wednesday last and was crushed to death. The unfortunate man has been running as brakeman only a short time. The accident happened near Petersburg.

On Wednesday morning a horse belonging to Chas. N. M'Keehau, was found in the stable apparently very sick. Charley was away, and Mr. Kepner was sent for to come down. He got the horse out and it seemed better. The next morning however the animal was found deed in the stable. found dead in the stable.

It was reported that Mr. W. B. Stambaugh of Newport, had lost his eye sight. We are glad to be able to state that the report is not correct. Mr. S. has one eye so badly affected that it is sightless, but has the use of the other, and is so as to be around attending to business. We hope he will soon entirely recover.

Mr. Gesalla, of Millerstown, had a Christmas tree in Martin's Hotel, at that place which is said by those who saw it to have been "just splendid."— Mr. G., is fond of children and had taken pains to make as many of them happy as possible. The hotel was crowded on Christmas with persons ex-amining the gifts exhibited on the tree.

The latest story about Albright is that a cousin of his recently from California, reports having seen Sam Albright and talked with him about the murder.— There is also well authenticated reports of letters having been received from the murderer. The Harrisburg Telegraph gives a long account of his doings and evidently believes the report.

A few days ago while Mrs. Samuel Flickinger, residing at 251 North street was attending to some household duties and while standing close to the cooking stove, her dress caught fire, and was soon in a blaze. By the prompt assist-ance of her daughter and another girl, the dress was quickly torn off and the flames extinguished before the lady was injured .- Harrisburg Patriot.

Not long since, Mr. Jacob Dum's sheep were attacked by two dogs, one night in his barnyard, a few rods from the store building at Ediottsburg. One was kill-ed and five severely bitten. The two dogs were killed a few days thereafter.

Mr. Wm. Hoobaugh has organized a singing school at Elliottsburg, with forty pupils in attendance.

A Literary Society has also been in-augurated at the same place.

On account of the excessive cold weather, Mr. Eby has suspended work in his iron ore mines in Spring twp.

Mrs. Amanda White, daughter of Mrs. Abrams of this place is now home on a visit. Mr. White, her husband, who was a former resident of Penn twp. is now located at Hastings, Nebraska.

Mr. James Work, of the Steelton Item made a flying trip here on Monday last. He came by the way of Duncannon and seems to have a special liking for that part of Perry county. We hope Jim's trip will work satisfactorily.

Our friend, John McKee, son of Mr. Wilson McKee, of this place, was home on a Christmas visit. John is employed at the Central Hotel in Sunbury, and his services are evidently well appreed-

Mr. Frank Fry, editor of the Newport News made us a pleasant call on Monday last. He was accompanied by Mr. Hart-ley of Bedford county, who is a son-in-law of Mr. Jesse Butts. The gentlemen were enjoying a sieigh ride.

Kicked by a Horse.-On Wednesday last, Mr. Wm. Kepner of Centre twp , had a close call. While stooping down fixing a singletree he was kicked by one of the horses, the cork of the shoe striking him just below the left eye, making an ugly wound and knocking him over. He fortunately escaped further injury. He was engaged at the time in dragging out a dead horse for C. N. M'Keehan.

December Weather Report .- B. M'Intire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of December, 1880: Average of Thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 22-15', and of Barometer, 30 inches minus 5-tenths. Average of greatest heat 30°12', and of cold 16°14'.
