IN THE TREATMENT OF Chronic Diseases

Among the many chronic complaints treated successfully are Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Hemorrhage of the Lungs, Consumption, (first and second stages,) Heart Disease, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Melancholia, Scrophulous or King's Evil, Skin Diseases, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, or enlargement of the Glands of the neck, Dropsy, Piles, chronic Diarrhoea, Constipation of the Bowels, Sick and Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Diseases of Females, Tumors, Kidney Diseases, Enlarged Spleen, Epilepsy, Deafness, Chronic Chills and Ague, Diabetes Mellitus, old running sores, Tapeworms removed.

INHALATIONS, which carries the medicine direct to the diseased parts.

When an incurable case presents itself he is free and candid in telling the patient that he cannot cure him, thus avoiding further expense.

In chronic ailments it is always best for patients to call at his office for personal examination and treatment, when that is practicable.

MANHOOD How Lost, How Restored! Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhea or Seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps. Address the Publishers, THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO., 40 1/2 1/2 41 Ann St., New York; P. O. Box, 4588.

A Whitehall woman calls her husband kind words, because he is so bald-headed that he can never die.

Some one asked a lad how it was he was so short of his age. He replied: "Father keeps me so busy I hain't time to grow."

"Mamma," asked a little girl, "why is it they sing in church, 'We're going home to dine no more,' and then go right home and dine?"

The woman who is exceedingly sweet to one's face and is very bitter behind one's back may be said to bear false sweetness against her neighbor.

"How greedy you are," said one little girl to another, who had taken the best apple on the dish. "I was just going to take that."

It is said that a shark will not bite a swimmer who keeps his legs in motion. If you can keep kicking longer than a shark can keep waiting, you'll be all right.

"Och," said a love sick Hibernian, what a recreation it is to be dying of love! It sets the heart aching so delicately there's no taking a wink of slape for the pleasure of the pain."

A reverend doctor said every blade of grass was a sermon. The next day he was amusing himself by clipping his lawn, when a parishioner said: "That's right, Doctor; cut your sermons short."

On a homeward-bound Charleston car a jolly looking Irishman was saluted with the remark: "Tim, yer house was blown away." "Deed, then, it isn't," he answered "for I have the key in my pocket."

Billington had passed away.—Mrs. B., who had just read the notice of his death, in the newspaper, said: "What a pity John couldn't read this! He would be so pleased to see his name in print!"

A man called another an extortioner for suing him. "Why, my friend," replied the man who had brought the suit, "I did it to oblige you." "To oblige me, indeed. How so?" "Why to oblige you to pay me."

A Galveston colored servant, on her way home with a basket of preferred groceries meets a friend. "How is your commin' on wid dem white folks?" "I 'se gwine ter leab 'em." Dey hasn't paid dar grocerman in sich a long time I 'se ashamed to meet him on de street.

A perplexed German tailor who had made a coat for a youth, and found himself unable to dispose of the surplus fulness that appeared when trying it on the young candidate, declared vociferously, "De coat ish goot enough but de poy ish too slim!"

"You are now one," said the minister to the happy pair he had just tied together with a knot that they could never undo with their teeth. "Which one?" asked the bride. "You will have to settle that for yourself," said the dominie. It was subsequently settled with a broomstick.

The bashful young man who asked a lady on the beach if he "could see her home," was much surprised to hear her reply: "That he could go up and see if he wanted to, but she didn't think her father wanted to sell," and then coolly walked off with the man of her choice.

A little Galveston boy visited his uncle on his birthday, and congratulated him. He then asked his uncle if he had washed himself. "Why so?" asked the uncle, patting the innocent little prattler on the head. "Because papa said if you did the clean thing you would give me a dollar, at least."

Before a contemplated attack in the Peninsula, when a regiment was floundering through the mud in a very wild part of the country, a company became scattered, and the officer called out to the men to form two deep.—"Why, hang it!" shouted out a soldier, up to the knees in soft clay, "I'm too deep already!"
