"WHO IS OLIVER?" is the question lots of people are asking since his name has been brought forward as candidate for United States Senator. It is not probable one voter in a hundred throughout the State ever heard of him before.

His main opponent, Mr. Grow, has not only a State, but a National, reputation.

THE SENATORIAL CAUCUS held at Harrisburg on Tuesday last showed conclusively that the prominent machine candidate for U. S. Senator was exceedingly objectionable, and forty-seven Senators and Representative refused to be bound by the action of the caucus.

As the question now stands, the indications are that neither Grow or Oliver can be elected, though there is no doubt that three-fourths of the Republican voters of the State would be gratified if Mr. Grow should secure the position.

The Proposed "Temperance Law."

Petitions are being widely circulated through the State for the proposed "Temperance Law," approved by the State Temperance Convention held at Harrisburg, in April, 1879, and also for appointment of a "Commission of Inquiry," to investigate and report upon the alcoholic liquor traffic, in its economic, criminal, and moral aspects, and the results of license legislation.

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., have favored us with a complete edition of their Almanacs for 1881, neatly bound in one volume. Turning to its contents we find ourselves prepared to discuss the weather with our afternoon callers in English, German, Dutch, Norwegian, Swedish, French, Spanish, Portuguese, and Bohemian.

A Remarkable Crime.

Last fall a wealthy citizen of Calvert county, Md., was convicted of a remarkable crime, the details of which are as follows: He was charged with having brought about a marriage between his daughter Ella and a young man, generally supposed to be a distant connection, but who has since proven to be a son of the accused.

The marriage between the brother and sister was celebrated by Rev. Joseph P. Wilson, of the Methodist Church, at Prince Frederick, Calvert county, where the parties resided, on September 18, 1879, when Mr. Bowen gave the bride away and accorded the young couple his parental blessing.

the arrest of Bowen on the charge above stated. At the trial it was proven that Walters' real name was Enoch Bowen, and that he was the son of Thomas Bowen by a former wife.

It appears that the elder Bowen, about twenty-five years ago, seduced a girl in the neighborhood, and subsequently married her just before her baby was born. The mother died in childbirth, and Bowen desiring to avoid awkward questions adopted the infant as a child of an old friend. The boy baby was named Walters and grew up in the family, where he was of course in constant contact with Miss Bowen, resulting in a warm affection springing up between them.

The unfortunate brother and sister at once separated when their true relation was made known to them, and have taken steps to have the marriage formally declared void. Both are terribly prostrated by the shocking discovery. Bowen's application for pardon, based on a plea of ill health, has aroused a storm of indignation in Calvert county, and it is not probable that it will be granted.

A Tomb of Snow.

A dispatch from Middleburg, Loudon county, Va., says the snow in that vicinity has been on the ground for the past three weeks to the depth of forty-two inches on a level. It has drifted over the fences, hiding them from view and blocking up the roads completely. The farmers have been obliged to cut down the shade trees near the farm houses and use them for fire-wood, as the snow prevented them hauling from the woods. Great suffering is said to have prevailed among the poor people.

Terrific Explosion of a Boiler.

DETROIT, January 12.—The boiler in the Union flouring mills, of this city, exploded this morning about seven o'clock with terrific force, tearing out the side of the building completely and so wrecking the structure that it will have to be taken down to the foundation. The engineer, a young man named Whittier, the fireman and oiler were instantly killed and buried under the ruins. A fourth man standing just outside, was severely injured in the head, but will probably recover. Three horses standing near also killed. These mills, now a part of the new mammoth Glucose works, commenced operations here last week, and Mr. Sweet, the manager, was just entering the engine room as the explosion took place. He was blown some distance, but escaped without serious harm.

Miscellaneous News Items.

In this State there are 87 daily newspapers, 611 weekly and 137 others, making a total of 835.

Just after the Erie express left Pittsburg the other evening on the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad, a bogus conductor got a number of tickets from the passengers and escaped while the real conductor was in another car.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., January 12.—An explosion of celluloid occurred in a factory here this afternoon and killed Charles B. Scofield, fatally burned Chas. Hayes and, badly perhaps fatally burned Walter Vandusen. The building was totally destroyed.

Two doctors in Howard county, Ind., being sued for malpractice, got out of it in a manner said to be new to the courts in Indiana. They went before a Justice of the peace and sued the plaintiff for their fees and obtaining judgments thereon pleaded them in the circuit court in bar of the action of the plaintiff, and were sustained by the court.

Pat. Malady, a fireman on the Branch railroad, made a very narrow escape from death. He was on his engine when the tender and engine broke loose from each other while the train was running at the rate of fifteen miles an hour.—Malady dropped on the track, but quick as lightning rolled to one side and let the train pass by him. One foot was caught and his shoe was torn off, but he escaped other injury.

Some time ago a valuable horse belonging to Chas. E. Smith, of Stony Brook had his leg broken at Port Jefferson. The broken limb was set and the leg was imbedded in plaster of Paris. In two weeks the horse could walk around the stable; in three weeks he drove him home, a distance of five miles, and three weeks after the horse was driven to a road wagon a mile in four minutes.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—A despatch from Los Angeles gives the following: "On Sunday afternoon a Mexican named Miranda, about 16 years old, attempted to outrage one of a party of three girls near Wilmington, breaking her arm in the struggle. Her companions gave the alarm and Miranda was captured by a number of citizens, from whom he was taken by a body of masked men, and this morning his body was found hanging to a tree not far from the scene of his capture. A Coroner's Jury rendered a verdict of hanged by parties unknown."

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 12, 1881. The preparations under way for the inauguration of the new President, to say the least of them, give promise of being most complete. The committee on accommodations, as they should be, are especially active, and their zeal in procuring comfortable quarters for our visitors prospective will add more than can be told to their enjoyment. At previous inaugurations this portion of the programme has not received its proper share of attention and as a consequence hundreds have been here unable to get lodgings, and go away pouring maledictions upon our innocent city, taking with them by way of remembrance, a severe cold. But this time there will be no such annoyance.

Secretary Sherman, as was expected, has been nominated by the Ohio Republicans, to be U. S. Senator in place of President-elect Garfield. But there is a report that he is to continue as Secretary of the Treasury under the new administration, and that Governor Foster is to be then made Senator, in his stead. It is also said that the Grant element of the Republican party, represented by Senator Conkling, are becoming alarmed lest their old enemy should secure the position they unable to get, hoped to keep him from.

The Halifax Fishery award bids fair to be reopened, as it is charged by the British government that the evidence upon which the award was made, was fraudulent. The developments, particulars of which are known only to the State Department, may cause much Diplomatic correspondence of a nature not wholly amicable.

Correspondents, upon whom devolve the pleasant, sometimes, and special duty of reporting the proceedings of Congress, are having a hard time this Winter. Of matters to talk about there is an abundance, but of things interesting, and Congressionally exciting there is, also, a dearth. Congress met a week ago to-day, and have passed two appropriation bills, the Consular and Diplomatic and the Indian. Besides discussing the Wood funding bill in the House, and the District of Columbia tramp bill, and Halifax relief resolution in the Senate, nothing of importance has been done.

There have been numerous incorrect statements published in relation to the request made recently by General Walker, Superintendent of the Census, for an additional appropriation of $500,000, in order that he may be enabled to complete the work in the manner prescribed by law. For the Census of 1870 Congress appropriated $3,333,000. Thus far for this census the following appropriations have been made: First, $3,000,000, subsequently, $310,000, and finally, $125,000, making in all, $3,335,000. In this census not only has the increase of population made the task greater, but the duty of supervisors and enumerators have been greatly enlarged and the task in other ways has taken a wide scope than in 1870. Hence Gen. Walker is warranted in asking, and Congress will doubtless take pleasure in granting the additional appropriation.

OLIVE.

A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of acknowledged merit with the numerous quack medicines that are now so common. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative and will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for Rheumatism and when worn out by overwork. See adv.—Times. 24t

The Greatest Blessing.

A simple, pure, harmless remedy, that cures every time, and prevents disease by keeping the blood pure, stomach regular, kidneys and liver active, is the greatest blessing ever conferred upon man. Hop Bitters is that remedy, and its proprietors are being blessed by thousands who have been saved and cured by it.—Will you try it? See another column.—Eagle. 3 2t
