Dr. B. has been engaged in an extensive practice for over 23 years. He has also served his country in the capacity of Surgeon to the 78th Pa. Vol. Infantry during the late Rebellion, holding his Commission from the then Governor of this Commonwealth. His credentials are from one of the best Medical Colleges in America. His success as a practitioner of medicine is acknowledged by recommendations from former patrons, which are free for inspection at all times.

IN THE TREATMENT OF Chronic Diseases

he has had very extensive experience, and has cured many hopeless cases, after years of suffering, and expense incurred in seeking relief elsewhere.

Among the many chronic complaints treated successfully are Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Hemorrhage of the Glands of the neck, Dropsy, Piles, chronic Diarrhea, Constipation of the Bowels, Sick and Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Diseases of Females, Tumors, Kidney Diseases, Enlarged Spleen, Epilepsy, Deafness, Chronic Catarrh and Ague, Diabetes Mellitus, old running sores, Tapeworms removed.

Dr. B. does not confine himself to any one particular system of medicine. He uses all the late improved methods and remedies, as also Magneto-Electric, or which is so successfully used at the present day in many forms of nervous complaints. In the treatment of the Lungs and air passages he uses which carries the medicine direct to the diseased parts.

When an insupportable case presents itself he is free and candid in telling the patient that he cannot cure him, thus avoiding further expense.

In chronic ailments it is always best for patients to call at his office for personal examination and treatment, when that is practicable.

"Do fishes go crazy?" is a conundrum proposed by Seth Green. Sometimes they get in seine.

The gatekeeper of a Western toll bridge was discharged, recently, because he always allowed his sweetheart to pass over free. He never tolled his love.

A youth who was trying to master a bicycle, when asked his age, said he had seen fifteen summers and about one hundred and fifteen falls.

"Tom, where can I get a good two-foot rule?" "I can give you one on the spot, John." "Well, let's have it." "Don't wear tight shoes! That rule applies to both feet."

"Do you pretend to have as good judgment as I have?" exclaimed an enraged wife to her husband. "Well, no," he replied, slowly; "our choice of partners for life shows that my judgment is not to be compared to yours."

"I say, boy, whose horse is that you're riding?" "Who is your daddy's?" "Who is your daddy?" "Don't you know? Why, Uncle Peter Jones."

"So—you are the son of your uncle?" "Why, yes, calculate I am. You see dad got to be a widower, and married mother's sister, and now he's my uncle."

A Civil Question.

"Mr. O'Rafferty," said the recorder, "why did you strike Mr. Murphy?" "Because Murphy wouldn't give me a civil answer to a civil question, yer honor."

"What was the civil question you asked him?" "I asked him as polite as you please, 'Murphy, ain't your own brother the biggest thafe on Galveston island, excepting yourself and uncle, who is absent at the penitentiary in Huntsville?'"

"And what rude answer did he give to such a very civil question?" "He said to me, 'Av course, pristin company excepted' so I said, 'Murphy, you are another,' and I struck him wid me fist."

Effective Speeches.

One of those individuals who are in the habit of inflicting twaddle on the Sunday Schools they visit, if invited by a too credulous superintendent to speak, once received a back set as follows:—"Children," he said, "My name is John Smith. I am from New York, and am on my way to Chicago, and I thought I would stop and tell you that if you did not love the Lord Jesus, you would all go down to hell. Now let us see if you remember what I have told you. What is my name?"

"John Smith." "Where did I come from?" "New York."

"Where am I going?" "To hell," the children shouted. It will be seen from the above it is well to be perfectly clear in your illustrations, especially to the infant class. Said a speaker, "Children, there was a little boy who used to swear and fight, who learned to love Jesus, and by and by died and went to heaven. Now children what must we do to go to heaven?" "Swear and fight," was the instant reply.

A Mixed Politician.

A Texas minister, who used to be a circuit-rider, reformed and became a politician, but he found it very hard to get rid of his clerical habits. During the canvass he lost his diary, which was found, and is now in the hands of a Galveston News reporter. One of the extracts, which goes to show how hard it is to teach old dogs new tricks, reads as follows:

"Dallas—Much religious interest is felt here. Addressed a large congregation last night. I preached a sermon on, 'What shall the Greenbackers do to be saved,' which was frequently interrupted by cheers for Hancock and English. During the sermon I cast out two devils who were opposed to my election. There was a meeting in the vestry-room afterward—beer, $275; segars, $135. A great many have asked me to loan them money, but I am afraid they are not in earnest. I have exhorted a number privately, not to allow the ticket to be scratched, and to see that nobody tampers with the colored brethren. If I had a few more campaign funds I think I could make my calling and election sure."
