MEDICAL NOTICE!

DR. O. P. BOLLINGER, Having located permanently in NEW BLOOMFIELD,

Offers his professional services to the citizens of the Borough and surrounding country. Dr. B. has been engaged in an extensive practice for over 23 years. He has also served his country in the capacity of Surgeon to the 75th Pa. Vol. Infantry during the late Rebellion, holding his Commission from the then Governor of this Commonwealth. His credentials are from one of the best Medical Colleges in America. His success as a practitioner of medicine is acknowledged by recommendations from former patrons, which are free for inspection at all times.

IN THE TREATMENT OF Chronic Diseases he has had very extensive experience, and has cured many hopeless cases, after years of suffering, and expense incurred in seeking relief elsewhere.

Among the many chronic complaints treated successfully are Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Hemorrhage of the Lungs, Consumption, (first and second stages), Heart Disease, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Melancholia, Scrofula or King's Evil, Skin Diseases, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, or enlargement of the glands of the neck, Dropsy, Piles, chronic Diarrhea, Constipation of the Bowels, Sick and Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Diseases of Females, Tumors, Kidney Diseases, Enlarged Spleen, Epilepsy, Deafness, Chronic Otitis and Ague, Diabetic Urtilus, old running sores, Tapeworms removed.

Dr. B. does not confine himself to any one particular system of medicine. He uses all the late improved methods and remedies, as also Magneto-Electric, or Medical Electricity, which is so successfully used at the present day in many forms of nervous complaints. In the treatment of the Lungs and air passages he uses

INHALATIONS, which carries the medicine direct to the diseased parts.

When an incurable case presents itself he is free and candid in telling the patient that he cannot cure him, thus avoiding further expense. In chronic affections it is always best for patients to call at his office for personal examination and treatment, when that is practicable.

Office at his residence on Main street, a few doors west of H. Smith's blacksmith shop, in what is known as the Galatin property. CONSULTATION FREE. Bloomfield, May 4, 1880.

"Say, John, is your sweetheart a factory girl?" "Yes, William, satisfactory."

An editor, who was told that his last article was as clear as mud, said: "Well, that covers the ground, anyhow."

Some papers have a department headed "Items of Interest." Is this to distinguish them from other matter in the paper which is uninteresting?

An ordinary Woman's waist is thirty inches around. An ordinary man's arm is about thirty inches long.—How admirable are thy works, oh nature!

A Galveston man who has a mule for sale hearing that a friend in Houston wanted to buy a mule, telegraphed him: "Dear Friend: if you are looking for a No. 1 mule don't forget me."

A bashful youth was introduced to a young lady, but did not say another word to her for some minutes, when she made him still more confused by saying: "And now Mr.—let us talk about something else."

Judge, to an unprepossessing tramp, "what are your means of living?" "I am an inventor, yer Honor." "Ah, indeed; and what have you invented?" "Nothing as yet; but I am on the lookout."

"What do you mean by humbugging, madam?" asked an ugly barrister of an old lady he was cross examining. "I don't know as I can exactly say, sir; but if a lady was to say you're a handsome man, that would be what I'd call humbugging."

Two convicts having escaped from Sing Sing, lived in a barn for three days on pie and a herring. One, who was piously inclined, constantly said, "Oh, be merciful to the erring." "By jove, you're right," said the other, "For its the only thing that's left."

"Do you really believe that an ass ever spoke to Balaam?" queried a man who prided himself on his intellect. Coleridge, to whom the question was put, reflected: "My friend, I have no doubt, whatever but that the story is true. I have been spoken to in the same way myself." The man of the inquiring mind retired for meditation.

"Benjamin!" shouted Mrs. Toodles to her husband, who was going out of the gate, "bring me five cents worth of snuff when you come." "Snuff! Mrs. Toodles, snuff!" he ejaculated, as he paused with his hand on the latch.—No, no, Mrs. Toodles, the times are too hard to admit of such extravagance; you must tickle your nose with a straw when you want to sneeze."

A Scotch clergyman, who was given to absence of mind, was once on his way to preach in a church at a village outside of Edinburgh. The wind was strong in his face; so that in stopping to take a pinch of snuff he turned his back to it, but forgot to turn again in his original direction, and so walked back into the city without knowing it.

Dr. Samuel Johnson had a gruff way of telling the truth. His praise was apt to be very light, but his blame was heavy enough to make up for it. There were women preachers in his day also, and his analysis of their apparent success is well worth considering, though years have gone by since he spoke. "Sir," he said, "a woman preaching is like a dog walking on his hind legs—it is not done well, but you are surprised to find it done at all."

Forgot the Hat.

A young lawyer had just finished an impassioned appeal in the Galveston court house and dropped, as he thought, into his chair, but missed it. As he struck the floor there was an explosion, as if a young cannon had gone off, creating much excitement. The prevailing opinion was that a pistol had exploded in his hip pocket, but, upon raising him up, it was discovered that he flattened out a beautiful silk hat. It seems that an old but reckless member of the bar was to blame for the explosion. When the young lawyer was about to sit down the elder pulled the chair away, but he had forgotten that his own silk hat was under that very chair. The elder lawyer laughed boisterously until he identified the mutilated hat as his own, and then he smiled a sickly smile.
