Brief Items.

Correspondents who wish their articles published must have them in not later than Saturday. Letters received Monday morning scarcely ever get published.

Senator Smiley has our thanks for favors extended.

Col. Hoy of Baltimore, will lecture on Temperance, in the Court House each evening this week.

The farmers of Perry, Cumberland and York counties are trying to get a free bridge across to Harrisburg.

A little daughter of Mr. Andrew Watt of Wheatfield twp., was badly burned a few days ago by her clothes taking fire.

The Carlisle Mirror seems to have gone crazy over "saw logs and fence rails." We wonder whose fence rails and saw logs he is after.

"Red Saxe" who is known to have been at the head of the McKeeban rob-robbery in Jan. 1879, in Cumberland county, has been lodged in the jail at Carlisle.

A horse belonging to Major Heistand, was frightened at the cars on Tuesday and breaking away from his hitching strap, ran away, badly breaking the new sleigh to which he was harnessed. To show the necessity of using good coal e notice that of 847 fires in Philadelphia, last year, one-seventh of them were caused by explosions of lamps, in which poor oil was used.

On Monday night when only a slight snow fell here, over a foot fell in New York, drifting badly and interfering with railway travel so much that all freight trains on some of the roads were discontinued.

The horse of Mr. John Rathfon, of Wheatfield township, scared recently and upset the sleigh in which were Mr. R., his wife and daughter. Mrs. Rathfon had her arm broken, and the others are broken, and the others are broken. escaped with slight bruises.

The sudden change in the temperature on Tuesday night, caused such cracking by contraction of the roofs that many persons had a bad night's eleep. Nearly every family in town was more or less annoyed, some thinking thieves were prowling around.

Dr. Eppley and wife, of Marysville, while driving down Third street, in Harrisburg, on Tuesday morning, were upset by a runner of the sleigh catching in the ear track. They were both thrown out, but the doctor regaining his feet, prevented the horse from running away. No one was injured. ning away. No one was injured.

The Millersburg Herald says: George Smeltzer, of near Newport, Perry county, visiting friends in this infected neighborhood, accompanied by a number of children has lost three children in a very short period, two of whom took sick here and died, and a third after resching home.

after reaching home.

Nearly every body in Millersburg has been vaccinated. One case of smallpox is reported.

Personals.—Mr. Ira Wentzel one of the enterprising merchants of Blain, was in town on Thursday.

We are glad to hear that Mr.W. B. Stambaugh who has been in danger of losing his eye sight is now thought to be safe from that affliction.

Mr. James D. Burn, son of Wm. Burn was home here on a visit last week; he was accompanied by his cousin, Miss Tillie B. Landis, of Lancaster. Jimmy is employed in a store at Oxford, Chester county.

About fourteen couple from this place visited Newport, on Thursday evening. They were entertained at the Gantt House, where they had a dance.

The Port Royal Times says the Rev. G. W. Dunlap is so reduced from derangement of the liver and stomach as be unable to attend to his ministerial

Mr. P. S. Kell, a "Perry county boy," but now manager of the Iowa "State Leader," made us a call on Friday.

What is His Name-The Millersburg Herald of last week says: "A hired man employed by a prominent farmer in Pfoutz's Valley, Perry county, brought a load of wheat to Graybill's mill on Tuesday. After unloading his cargo he loltered about the office until an opportunity presented itself to dive into the money drawer. But while in the act of relieving the till of its contents, the miller William Weaver, intercepted that part of the proceeding by collaring the fellow and giving him his just dues-a sound whaling.

Fatally Burned .- A Berrysburg, Dauphin county letter of Jan. 27th, says: A most distressing casualty occurred in this place between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Elljah Shutt, wife of an industrious man, was so horribly burned that she died between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning. The family live on Tunnel street, with near neighbors and the first that was known of what had happened was from the cries of a child who was alone in the house with its mother. The woman was found in the back yard writhing in the snow, and presenting a sight well calculated to make the stoutest heart quall. She was in a nearly nude condition, the upper part of her body burned to a crisp and hair nearly all burned from her head .-Mrs. Shutt's clothing took fire from a pipe she had been smoking, which was found on the floor in the kitchen of the dwelling.

Upset and Run Off .- On Tuesday morning Messrs. Samuel Moore and W. A. Boyd, of Howe township, met with a mishap that was not the most enjoyable affair, yet they escaped luckily, notwithstanding. Together they were coming to town in a sleigh drawn by a spirited though docile horse, and in descending the hill at potter Miller's when the turn to the right was made the sleigh careened, throwing the occupants out without ceremony, while the horse sped on. A few yards from where the misfortune befel the gentlemen the sleigh came in contact with a wood-sled standing along side of the highway. It lodged there, pretty well demolished, while the excited horse hurried on, neither knowing why nor where, the shafts swinging furiously at his heels. He ran as far as 'Squire Wright's, a distance of about half a mile, where he was captured. Neither of the occupants of the sleigh sustained injuries through the accident, but the coachmaker has another job on hand. It is an ill wind that blows nobody good .- News.

Is it a Miracle?—For nine months Miss Lillie B. Alter, of Greencastle, has been deprived of her faculty of speech, and was unable to articulate above a whisper. She has been under medical treatment for a long time, and recently came to Chambersburg to consult the physicians of this place. The physicians who attended her arrived at the opinion, after making a careful examination that no human power could cure her. Thus being left without any encouragement, and believing in answer to prayer, she placed herself wholly in the hands of the Great Physician, and for two months her malady was the subject of earnest prayer. She felt confident the Lord would answer and never ceased in her supplications to Him. While in attendance at the revival meetings, which are now in progress in South Second street United Brethren, a few evenings ago, her speech was restored and in a clear and distinct voice, she said, "Bless the Lord, for he has again given me my voice." She retired from the church feeling, without doubt, that it was an answer to prayer. The restoration has continued up until the present time. We have the above from a gentleman who had a conversation with Miss Alter after the services, and we can vouch for the above statement .- Repository.

Scalded to Death. - George M. Kennedy, a railroader, resides on Fulton street. On Monday afternoon his wife was ascending the stairs of his residence to a room in the upper story. She carried in her hands a pan of boiling water. Her little son John, scarcely two years old, hid at the top of the stairs and when his mother came along, suddenly sprang out to scare her. The playful trick proved a fatal one. The little fellow joited against the pan of hot water and it splashed over his head and shoulders. He was so badly scalded that he died in two hours. - Harrisburg Patriot.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week :

On Friday night the Hancock pole at Mt. Holly, fell with a crash across Baltimore avenue. It came within an acc of demolishing the Mt. Holly Echo printing office

On Tuesday a dog belonging to Mr.
John Cope, of South Newton, one mile above Jacksonville, this county, went mad. A number of the neighbors followed the mad brute for a whole day, some on horseback and some on foot, tracking him through the snow, until finally they came up to the dog near Jacksonville, where he was killed by Harry Foreman. Several dogs are supposed to have been killed. Those remaining in the neighborhood are tied up.

A number of reports of roofs breaking down have reached us, among which is the barn of Isaac Burkhart of Mifflin township. The barn of W. S. Morrow began to bulge from the weight of snow but was saved by the prompt use of iron rode.

Also the barn of Isaac Stover, on the old Getter place, in Newton township, gave way under the weight of snow and ice. Mr Stover noticed that the barn was showing signs of giving way took his stock out and soon after the structure fell. The barn is a complete wreck, and will involve a considerable loss.

A Tuscarora Valley man named Keller assaulted a neighbor last fall. For the offence he was taken to court in December; he was found guilty. He was not able to pay the costs, and in default of payment of costs was sentenced to a term in the county jail. Last Thursday Deputy Sheriff Wilson was greatly surprised to hear Keller cry and sob. When asked for the cause of the distress he said that he had just received word that his wife had died. It was a word that his wife had died. It was a perplexing moment for the Deputy Sher-iff. He was stupped interpretations. iff. He was stunned into complete silence, in wonderment as to which of the three wives of the prisoner had

The people of Mifflintown were a good deal moved last week, by information that was made, before 'Squire Parker in this borough against Joseph L. Deering. The information was brought by Samuel Pennebaker, of Beale township. The charge is, that Deering raised the value of, and lengthened the time, for the payment of a promissory exemption note. Pennebaker alleges that the note he signed with Deering was for tion note. Pennebaker alleges that the note he signed with Deering was for seven dollars, and was given for a period of six days. The note, as it appears now, is for the sum of seventy dollars, and for a period of sixty days. Proceedings against Deering for the same offense as that charged by Pennebaker have also been brought before 'Squire Richard Doyle, at Johnstown, by J. H. Rodgers. These several financial operations made a case for the officers of the law, and Sheriff Kelly went to Johnstown to see Mr. Deering, to have him arrested. He was held in $1000, ball.

Tribute of Respect.

A meeting of the Perry county Bar was held on Monday, Jan. 10th, 1831, to take action respecting the death of one of its members, A. M. Markel, Esq., which occurred Sunday, Jan. 9th, 1831.
Chas. A. Barnett, Esq., was called to the chair, and C. H. Smiley, Esq., was elected Seq. On motion the Chairman appointed the following committee on resolutions, to wit: W. N. Seibert, J. C. Wallis, and Wilson Lupfer, who reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas. The sudden death of A. M. Mar-

Whereas, The sudden death of A. M. Mar-kel, Esq., calls for a memorial expression from his confraternity of the Perry county Bar,

His contraterity of the Peris Course in therefore Hesolved, That his death occasions us a deep regret, made more profound by reason of his life closing in early manhood, before his bright intellect had reached the zenith of its possibilities.

Resolved, That we record our appreciations

Resolved, That we record our appreciations of him as a genial and pleasant companion in his social relations, and able and courteous in his professional life.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be published in the County papers, that a copy of same be sent to the mother of the deceased, and that the Court be petitioned to make an order directing the same to be entered upon the records of the Court of Common Pleas.

The Choice of Books.

The Choice of Books.

A very elegant little volume with the above title, by Charles F, Richardson, is just issued by the American Book Exchange, Tribune, New York, at the very low price of 25 cents; also a cheap paper edition at the nominal cost of five cents. It will delight all who love good books, and in its wise suggestions will be greatly helpful to all who want help in choosing the best books. In its various chapters it treats of The Motive of Reading, The Reading Habit, What Books to Read, The Best Time to Read, How Much to Read, Remembering what One Readis, The Use of Note Books, The Cultivation of Taste, Poetry, The Art of Skipping, The Use of Translations, How to Read Periodicals, Reading Aloud and Reading Clubs, What Books to Own, The Use of Public Libraries, The True service of Reading. The volume is remarkably rich in striking quotations from the world's most famous authors and thinkers, from Aristotle to Emerson, including such names as Addison, Bacon, Burns, Cato, Carlyle, Disraeil, Fenelon, Glbbon, Hugo, Keats, Lamb, Locke, Luther, Milton, Petarch, Ruskin, Shakespeare, and Thoreau. It is a real literary treasure house.
