Vol. Infantry during the late Rebellion, holding his Commission from the then Governor of this Commonwealth. His credentials are from one of the best Medical Colleges in America. His success as a practitioner of medicine is acknowledged by recommendations from former patrons, which are free for inspection at all times.

IN THE TREATMENT OF Chronic Diseases

he has had very extensive experience, and has cured many hopeless cases, after years of suffering, and expense incurred in seeking relief elsewhere. Among the many chronic complaints treated successfully are Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Hemorrhage of the Lungs, Consumption, (first and second stages,) Heart Disease, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Melancholia, Scrofula or King's Evil, Skin Diseases, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, or enlargement of the Glands of the neck, Dropsy, Piles, chronic Diarrhoea, Constipation of the Bowels, Sick and Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Diseases of Females, Tumors, Kidney Diseases, Enlarged Spleen, Eriplepy, Deafness, Chronic Chills and Ague, Diabetes Mellitus, old running sores, Tapeworms removed.

Medical Electricity,

which carries the medicine direct to the diseased parts. When an incurable case presents itself he is free and candid in telling the patient that he cannot cure him, thus avoiding further expense.

In chronic ailments it is always best for patients to call at his office for personal examination and treatment, when that is practicable.

A FULL ASSORTMENT OF HARDWARE, IRON & STEEL

WILL BE FOUND AT OUR NEW STORE-ROOM. F. MORTIMER, New Bloomfield.

"A man may know more than his wife, but it is generally best for him to avoid suggesting such a possibility, when she is present.

"A German lately married says: 'Id vas jooost so easy as a needle cood walk out mit a camel's eye as to get der behindt vord mit a vomans.'"

"Why is it that your loaves are so much smaller than they used to be?" asked a Galveston man of his baker. "I don't know, unless it is I use less dough than formerly," replied the baker.

"The following sentiment was drunk standing at a public fete among 'de fast circle' colored of New York a few evenings since: 'Here's to de colored far-se; dar face needs no paint—dar head no 'fumery.'"

"If you are poor, and the chances are that you are, never wish to be rich; you've no idea how trying it is, to be rich. Just try going around with thirty-seven cents in your pocket that you don't know what to do with.

"A darkey, who was stooping to wash his hands in a brook, did not notice the peculiar actions of a goat just behind him, so when he scrambled out of the water, and was asked how it happened he answered: 'I duno 'zactly, but it 'peared as ef de shore kinder h'isted and frowed me.'"

"Do you say I've been a hard drinker all my life?" said an old toper to an acquaintance.

"Yes, I do."

"Well, there's where you're mistaken. At one period I didn't touch a drop for two years; in fact I drank nothing but milk." "Indeed! What two years was that?" "My first two."

Teacher—"John, what are your boots made of?"

Boy—"Of leather."

"Where does the leather come from?"

"From the hide of the ox."

"What animal, therefore, supplies you with boots and gives you meat to eat?"

"My father."

Who Was Shot.

We received from a correspondent the following somewhat incoherent account of a duel which was fought in his neighborhood. Some way or other, we are half in the dark about the result of the duel in question, but we shall leave the decision to our readers: "A duel was lately fought in Texas by Alexander Shott and John S. Nott. Nott was shot and Shott was not. In this case it is better to be shot than Nott. There was a rumor that Nott was not shot, and Shott avows that he shot Nott, which proves either that the shot Shott shot at Nott was not shot, or that Nott was shot notwithstanding. It may be made to appear on trial that the shot Shott shot shot Nott, or, as accidents with fire-arms are frequent, it may be possible that the shot Shott shot, shot Shott himself, when the whole affair would resolve itself into its original elements, and Shott would be shot, and Nott would be not. We think, however, that the shot Shott shot not Shott, but Nott; anyway, it is hard to tell who was shot.

Why they so Call Them.

A Dutchman being asked why he called his son John, said the reason was "because dat is his name." But these chaps named below had other reasons:

A young fellow call his sweetheart Revenge, because she is sweet. And a young married man calls his mother-in-law Delay, because she is dangerous.

A Boston man calls his wife Fact, because she is a stubborn thing. And the fourth wife of a district attorney calls him necessity because he knows no law. A Cincinnati man names his coachman Procrastination, because he stole his watch. We call a beautiful school-m'am we used to go to, Experience, because she was a dear teacher.—A Yonkers man calls his wife Frailty, because Shakespeare says, "Frailty, thy name is woman." Eli Perkins calls his wife Honesty, because he says it is the best policy. A New Haven man calls his wife Duty for Duty calls. Another man here calls his wife 'Stranger,' for she 'took him in.'
