

Trial of a Remarkable Case in Missouri.

The trial of Albert and Ed. Talbot for the murder of their father in Nodaway co., Mo., on the night of the 18th of last September...

On the fatal Saturday Dr. Talbot reached his home about 9 o'clock in the evening, when he repaired to his bedroom, where Mrs. Talbot and their son Albert, familiarly called "Bud," were sitting.

The doctor's injury was at once pronounced fatal. After receiving his death would be conversed freely with those around him, dictated his will, and when the fatal bullet was taken from its lodging place in the partition, he took it in hand, and, after examining it carefully, remarked: "This means death."

The hope of securing this reward led a detective named Brighton to disguise himself as a laborer and go to the Talbot mansion and apply for work assuming the name of Frank B. Hudson. He succeeded in finding employment on a neighboring farm, where he and his wife whom he represented as his sister, took up their abode.

Monday, October 25th, 1880.—We this day of the lord Eighteen hundred and Eighty go in contract together. Albert P. Talbot, Charles E. Talbot, Wilfred Mitchell, Frank B. Hudson together for the purpose of Bank robbery...

A short time before the time appointed for the killing of Wyatt, the hired man, Brighton had sprung the trap he had set for the boys, and had them arrested on the charge of murder, and Wyatt as an accessory.

Talbot, the youngest of the two brothers, aged about 21, put the doctor out of the way, and that Albert Talbot was in the plot to kill him, and that the two brothers had moulded the fatal bullet up-stairs in the family residence, a few days before the commission of the crime.

It will be a hotly contested battle for life, as the very best legal talent in the northwest Missouri has been engaged on both sides. In the case of Wyatt a motion for a change of venue will be heard at the March term.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE! THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below. From Rev. N. P. Grainger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DE. J. B. KENDALL & CO., GENTS:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent and with it cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that the ring bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

Stoughton Mass., March 16th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I fit to let you know that I have removed TWO BOTTLES SPAVIN with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one: don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunnies to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for its sale will be very great.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for best as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or Six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors. DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Keosburg Falls, Vermont.

WIDE AWAKE FOR 1881.

If the Boys and Girls of America could, but see the piles of delightful manuscripts, and the beautiful drawings for them, waiting to be grouped into the twelve numbers of Wide Awake for 1881, we are sure that during the next three months the subscription list of the Magazine would be more than doubled.

A NEW STORY BY GEO. MACDONALD, the Publishers having recently completed arrangements with Mr. George Macdonald to write and send them the original manuscripts of a Serial Story for older readers, which from its subject and character Americans will find of greater interest than any of his former books.

ROCKY FORK a Story of the Ohio Hill country, by Mary Hartwell Caterwood. Those who have read this Serial in Manuscript pronounce it one of the most fascinating stories they ever read.

POLLY COLOGNE and it will be very fresh and funny. At least one hundred and twenty illustrations will accompany it.

THE STORY OF HONOR BRIGHT by Margna Mcgweather, author of "A General Misunderstanding" and "Royal Lovers' Last Year at Sea." This new story is dedicated to the boys of a certain class, real live boys, who wrote to the author, claiming him to produce a story equal to the two just mentioned.

NEWSPAPER NEWS, or what the boys (and girls too) wish to know and ought to know of what the great world is doing, sayings and things, including Cash Prizes, for best original articles, drawings, puzzles, inventions, etc., will be introduced during 1881 (full particulars in January number).
