HON. FERNANDO WOOD, member of Congress from New York city, died at Hot Springs, Ark., on the 14th inst.—He had gone there for his health.

ICE-BOATING on the Hudson River is now the rage. The boats race with the trains on the H. R. R. R., which for miles runs in sight of the river, and generally the boats can beat the fastest running the trains can do.

HON. E. B. COXE, of Luzerne county, whose conscience would not allow him to take the oath, as a Senator, has been re-elected and this time was probably careful to keep his expenditures within legal limits.

NO UNITED STATES SENATOR has yet been elected by the legislature. An attempt at compromise was made last week by the selection of a committee composed of twelve from each faction who were to select and report on a candidate. The person receiving a two-thirds vote in this committee was to be the candidate of the party and to receive the united support in joint convention.

TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS show that the independent voter was out in full force. In Pittsburgh the citizens' ticket for Mayor, beat the Republican, and in Reading the case was reversed, the Democrats being beaten by the independents.

"I regard this result as proceeding in a great measure, not from the exertions of the Committee of One Hundred, but from the deeply-grounded dissatisfaction of the masses of the Republican party in reference to the boss system of making nominations, and I believe that the same people will beat any man hereafter who may be nominated by the bosses, no matter how pure or competent he may be.

The whole secret of the disaffection is shown in the last four lines of the above quotation.

The Snow Blockade.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—The Inter-Ocean's special indicated that on the cross roads and railroad lines out of the thoroughfares there is still a virtual blockade in Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin. In some localities farmers are unable even to reach the markets. There is therefore, much distress.

Coal is scarce in Omaha, there being only forty tons of Iowa soft coal in the city, with a prospect of several days' blockade for freight. The loss of cattle in the grazing sections will be very heavy. To add to the discomfiture of rural points a heavy snow storm set in last evening in western Iowa and eastern Nebraska.

SIoux CITY, Iowa, Feb. 15.—The last

snow plow of the Illinois Central road broke on Sunday last. At Sioux Falls an indignation meeting of 200 delayed travelers decided to seize the train and open a road to the city, but gave it up when the engineer disabled his engine. They have little fuel and no whiskey.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 15.—The Kansas Pacific railroad is snowed up from Denver to Brookville.

The Change in Public Opinion.

It is noted by the Washington National Republican that "Fernando Wood was a member of the Congress which appropriated $30,000 in aid of Professor Morse's experimental telegraph line between Washington and Baltimore. Mr. Wood voted for the appropriation, and was, in consequence, defeated in his next race for Congress, his constituents having no confidence in the judgment of a Representative who was willing to give his countenance to such a visionary scheme as communicating human intelligence over wires hung on poles."

Arrest of a Son of Brigham.

DENVER, February 15.—John W. Young, a son Brigham Young, enroute to Arizona, was arrested on his arrival here last night by a deputy United States marshal on telegraphic instructions from the United States marshal at Salt Lake City, where he has been indicted for bigamy. He gave a bond for $2,000. The first wife supposed to be the complainant, is from Philadelphia, a lady whom Young married some years ago upon his pledge not to practice polygamy and who had left him when he took his second wife, Lucretia Cobb.—The latter was in Denver awaiting Young's arrival.

The Small-Pox

EDENs, D. T., February 16.—There are sixteen cases of small-pox in Calliope, a little village in Sioux county, Iowa. Rufus Stone, publisher of the Sioux county Independent, died last Saturday of smallpox and remains unburied, the fear of contagion being so great that no one can be prevailed upon to bury him. Five dollars a day has been offered for nurses in vain. The supply of fuel and provisions has given out.—Movements will be made in Sioux City for the relief of the suffering community.

Poisoned by Diseased Pork.

ROUNDOUT, Feb. 16.—Members of two families named Boyce and Felter, of this city have been made dangerously ill by eating what is supposed to have been diseased pork. Some of the same meat, which was given to two cats by the Felter family, killed the felines. The pork was purchased in this city of a dealer who said it was farm raised in Ulster county. The symptoms of the sick persons are the same as the symptoms attending trichina poisoning.

Two brothers died under rather peculiar circumstances, in this county, last week. It seems there had been a disagreement between them respecting some property, and they had not been on speaking terms for a long time. The older brother, lately expressed a wish to see the younger. The latter on being requested to call on his brother, replied that "he would see him in h—l first.—The elder one was buried last Friday, and the younger died on the day of the funeral. Was it judgment?—Railway N. J. Democrat.

Miscellaneous News Items.

The wife of William Bancroft of Marysville, Ohio, obtained a divorce from him, on the ground of drunkenness and cruelty, and on the following day, won over by his promise of reform, remarried him.

The postmaster at Wilkesbarre was greatly surprised one day recently at the explosion of a letter he was in the act of stamping. The letter was returned to the office at which it was mailed as unmailable matter.

The Montgomery Mutual Assessment Life Insurance Company is the title of a new corporation which has been organized in Montgomery county and for which a charter is asked. The capital stock is fixed at nothing.

The small-pox, which prevails at Cuba, Ill., as an epidemic, has caused a complete stagnation of business. There are to-day twenty-two cases of small-pox and varioloid in Cuba and vicinity. Six deaths have already occurred, and some of the sick are very low.

"In short, ladies and gentlemen," said Senator Conkling, in a husky voice and perspiring freely, "I can only say that I wish I had a window in my bosom, that you might see the emotions of my heart." And the newspaper printed the speech, leaving the "n" out of window.

A Louisville detective when asked how burglars got their tools made, said that each organized gang of burglars has a competent mechanic among its members. It requires a very competent one indeed to make a full set of burglars' tools. Some burglars learn this branch of the business while in prison.

Some Elmira young men took some Elmira young women sleigh-riding over to Hammond's Corners, one night last week and had a dance there. The funds all gave out, "twelve miles from home," and the girls had to walk home.

Elizabeth A. Anderson and Harry Osborne, of London, Ont., were married on the ice in the St. Clair river, between Port Huron and Sarnia, a few days ago. The justice of the peace got a $10 fee, and the bride and groom walked to terra firma in a happy frame of mind.

A seventeen-year-old daughter of a respectable family in Reading was arrested a few days ago on the charge of robbing the contribution boxes in St. Paul's German Catholic Church at that place. Several pieces of marked money which were put in the boxes she had when she was arrested, as well as a bunch of false keys.

While Sheriff Hanekamp, of Allegheny county, a few days since, was extolling the perfections of a new pair of handcuffs, they closed with a spring upon his own wrists, and he found himself manacled quite unintentionally. As he had no key, and the gentleman who had it could not be found, the bracelets had to be broken before he could be liberated.

In the midst of the excitement over the flood in Oil City on Thursday evening, the water ran into Reed's foundry, when the bottom fell out of the cupola, precipitating a mass of molten iron into the water. A terrific explosion followed, blowing the roof from the building, toppling over the smoke stack and sending streams of red hot coke from the furnace high in the air. The people in the vicinity were frightened almost to death and ran screaming in every direction.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 16, 1881. The debate on the River and Harbor bill continues in the House, and may for a length of time that will make the prospects of an extra session probable. Public attention is now being drawn to this bill in such a manner that the iniquities contained in it will be so fully exposed that there will probably be some improvement in the manner of legislating for Rivers and Harbors after this year.

Commodore Oliver Perry Green Watson, sixty-three years old, six feet high, arrived here yesterday by way of the chain bridge, all the way from Ashtabula, Ohio, having, as he states, left there in November last for Washington, and walked all the way to see President Hayes, whom he states he met last fall in Ohio, and received from him an invitation to visit him and remain until after the inauguration. He visited the Capitol, Smithsonian and the President's House after he came to town. He did not see the President but was sent by the doorkeeper to police headquarters, where he would be provided with lodgings, etc. He proposes to call on the President, who he thinks will receive him cordially, having invited him to Washington. It appears that the President on his recent trip to Ohio, made a speech, in which he invited his Ashtabula friends, if they came to Washington, to call and see him, and that induced Mr. C. O. P. G. Watson to make his long trip.

The discussion upon the funding bill commenced in the Senate yesterday, and from the few points now to be settled by discussion it is the intention to pass it by the end of the week. Senator Bayard, who is a Republican in financial matters, takes sides with the majority of them in advocating a 3 1/2 per cent. five-twenty bond.

The death of Hon. Fernando Wood, which occurred at Hot Springs, Arkansas, on Sunday night last, cast a deep gloom over members of Congress. The House and Senate passed appropriate resolutions in respect to his memory, and the former body, which in his death loses one of its ablest members, appointed a committee to superintend the funeral ceremonies. The remains will be brought here and will be in state at the Capitol.

Mr. Wood was Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the House and the value of his good judgment and wide experience in financial matters and in the financial history of the country, will make his death a severe loss in the deliberations of Congress upon these matters. The present funding bill is Mr. Wood's latest act of public service. It was his ambition to see it become a law, and to secure this he hastened his death, for until it passed the House he neglected the entreaties of his physicians and friends to retire from active duty and seek the quiet and rest in the loss of which the country now suffers a greater one.

MAGAZINE NOTICES.

The March number of Ballou's Monthly Magazine is issued, and contains a large installment of that thrilling Indian story, "The Crimson Trail," which is so much admired. There is also a nice picture of a banyan-tree, an illustrated article on Shakespeare and his home, a vivid sketch scene, some remarkably good poetry, a dozen or twenty stories, and five pages of humorous matter, the best that ever appeared in a magazine. This magazine gives more of a variety than any other publication of the kind in the country, and yet it is sold for the low price of fifteen cents a copy. Every family should have a copy, for it affords much good reading.

Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, Mass., at only $1.50 per annum postpaid, and for sale at all the news depots in the country at 15 cents a copy.

It had been acquired by a more laborious process. Contents as follows:—The Diamond-Mines of South Africa—Moose Hunting—Six Months in a Country House in Russia—My China Boys—Paris Art School—"The Kid" A Law of Nature—American Newgate—The Name Unsung—The Physical Uses of Pain—Our Monthly Gospel.

Specimen Number mailed, postage paid, to any address, on receipt of 20 cents. Yearly subscription $3.00. Address J. B. Lippincott & Co., Publishers, 715 and 717 Market Street, Philadelphia.

Dental Notices.

I wish to inform the people of lower Juniata and Perry counties, that I have located a Dental Office at the Martin Hotel in Millerstown, for the purpose of practicing Dentistry in all its branches. Having had ample city practice at Indianapolis, Ind., during the war period, sending out plate work to nearly all of the northern States, also had an office in the city of Auburn, N. Y., I will bring to the village of Millerstown, city practice at the ruling country prices. I will use no cheap material, consequently I will not advertise any of the low prices. Full set of rubber plates, either upper or lower, $15; filling teeth, from 50c upward; building up teeth with gold, from $3 to $10 and upward. All work guaranteed. No work done on trial.
