

The Bloomfield Times. HOUSE, FARM AND GARDEN.

Two Remarkable Apples.

About twelve years ago I became acquainted with a new seedling apple which promised to be an acquisition to the apple family. As I was then engaged extensively in the grafting business I began to propagate the variety as rapidly as possible; and now, after twelve years' experience, I can truly say it has proved an acquisition. I named it the "Yoke Apple," by which name it is known in these parts. The history of the apple is as follows: About the year 1860 and 1862 a young seedling apple tree on the farm of Benjamin Yoke, of Paradise, Jefferson county, Pa., was grafted in the top prior to its having borne any fruit; and some of the natural branches, through neglect or otherwise were permitted to remain till they bore fruit, which proved much superior to the grafts on the same tree; and omission or neglect saved to the world the "Yoke Apple." It is in season from the first of September to the middle of October. It is a large, round sub-acid apple, and in color is very much similar to the Fall Rambo.

I have had forty years experience in the grafting business; have become acquainted with and grafted almost all the varieties that have been brought to the country from far and near, from more than a dozen nurseries for the last twenty-five years, and will say that in my opinion the "Yoke Apple," for drying purposes, stands at the head; and is also very good when fully ripe for eating, and all culinary purposes; though its best use is for drying. About the 8th. of October last I bought a bushel which I gathered from trees which I had grafted about six or seven years before, and thirty-two apples was all that would lay on and on each half bushel. A portion of these I took to the Punxsutawney fair, where they were as much or more admired than any other apple among a very large collection of varieties there exhibited. It is without exception one of the best and most regular bearers that I ever knew among apples. The apple should generally be cut in eight pieces to dry, and when dry is of a rich, whitish-yellow color. This apple has but one drawback or fault, when the grafts are young and growing very thrifty, or when the tree stands in damp or very rich ground, they are somewhat disposed to rot, but when grown on high dry channery ground, suitable ground for the growth of the apple, it is without spot or blemish. It is a good grower, and is destined to become extensively cultivated.

But I must speak somewhat of another apple, and that is the "Gravenstine." This apple came into bearing for the first time in this community about four to six years ago, and now it is regarded by all who have it as the most perfect apple they ever saw. As a fall apple it seems to be without fault. About eight years ago I was told by an agent from Rochester, New York, that there was not a better apple known than the "Gravenstine," and our short experience in this community fully proves it true.

I feel like saying a word for the "Northern Spy." Were I to give my opinion, after forty years in grafting apples, and having set in that time near or quite 200,000 grafts, of the three above named apples, I would say: the "Yoke apple" for the purpose of drying is the most valuable apple ever grafted. The "Gravenstine" is the most perfect apple in all respects I ever grafted; and the "Northern Spy" is the most valuable apple to grow for use and market that I have ever grafted; and they should all be grown on high, or dry channery ground.

New Sheep Disease.

A new sheep disease which is killing off flocks, has made its appearance in Greene county, this State. The sheep are taken with a soreness in the mouth which prevents them from eating, and as a result they starve to death. The same disease has appeared among the sheep in this county. Mr. S. Shultz, of Henderson township, informs us that he has lost nine out of a flock of thirty-five sheep from this cause, and all the remedies he has tried proved ineffectual. If our readers know of any remedy for this disease they will confer a favor upon sheep growers by sending it for publication.—Huntingdon News.

Good Advice.

If you keep your stomach, liver and kidneys in perfect working order, you will prevent and cure by far the greater part of the ills that afflict mankind in this or any section. There is no medicine known that will do this as quickly or as surely as Parker's Ginger Tonic, which will secure a perfectly natural action of these important organs without interfering in the least with your daily duties. KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District, St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming, I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bump be found. Respectfully yours, P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell!

Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880. B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure, one very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bump to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me it will be very great. Respectfully yours, CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, callous, sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for beast as well as man. Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the Proprietors. DR. J. B. WIDE AWAKE FOR 1881.

If the Boys and Girls of America could but see the value of this delightful magazine, and the beautiful drawings for them, and the interesting stories that are given in it, they would be glad to have the twelve numbers of Wide Awake for 1881, we are sure that during the next three months the subscription list of the Magazine would be more than doubled. Out of many brilliant features we announce the following, leaving delightful surprises in store. Perhaps first in general interest will be

A NEW STORY by GEO. MACDONALD. The Publishers having recently completed arrangements with Mr. George Macdonald to write and send them the original manuscript of a Serial story for the year 1881, which from its subject and character Americans will find of greater interest than any of his former books. This story, the title of which will be announced later, will be given complete during the 12 Monthly Supplements, thus giving free to every subscriber one of Mr. Macdonald's longest and finest stories.

Those who remember with delight that charming home story of the "Ducherry Bunch" will read with still greater delight

ROCKY FORK A Story of the Ohio Hill country, by Mary Hartwell Catherwood. Those who have read this Serial in Manuscript pronounce it one of the most fascinating stories they ever read. It is as gay and sparkling as a wild mountain brook. Mr. George F. Harves will illustrate this story with thirty drawings.

Mr. A. M. Dix has written the Little Folks own serial, and it will be very fresh and funny. At least one hundred and twenty illustrations will accompany it. Those famous twin boys, the Jimmy Johns, are prime actors in this wonderful adventure.

For the older young folks there will be THE STORY OF HONOR BRIGHT by Magnus Merrivether, author of "A General Misunderstanding," and "Royal Lowrie's Last Year at St. Gwynn's." This new story is dedicated to the boys of a certain school, real live boys, who wrote to the author, challenging him to produce a story equal to the two just mentioned. In response, "Honor Bright" has been written, far superior to either, in both interest and influence. In the name of the Hero, Honor Bright, lies a great surprise. Mr. Walter Shirlaw, instructor at the Art Students' League, New York, will illustrate this story fully.

Several striking Two-Part Stories will appear during the year. King Philip's Head, by the Editor of the Boston Commonwealth, with Margaret, by Margaret Kytling, with eight drawings by George Foster, etc. A New Feature, including Cash Prizes, for best original stories, drawings, puzzles, inventions, etc., will be introduced during 1881 (full particulars in January number). And after long consideration of what would best meet growing demands, the Editors have decided to add a Fiction Department for Boys (which girls are also invited to contribute), which will be NEWSPAPER NEWS, or what the boys (and girls too) wish to know and ought to know of what the great world is doing, saying and thinking. This department will be under the able charge of Edward Everett Hale, whose name alone is guarantee of its certain remarkable interest and practical value. The publishers also have pleasure in announcing a New Cover, artistic and genuinely American in design and novel in color, which, with entire new type, will add largely to the attractiveness of this popular magazine. Subscription Price, $2.00 per year, post paid. Send now for this month.
