Brief Items.

Correspondents who wish their article published must have them in not later than Saturday. Letters received Monday morning scarcely ever get published.

Mr. Jesse Butz has sold his east Newport property to David Gring for $4,000.

Mrs. Susana Foote of Spring twp., had a stroke of apoplexy on Monday last week.

Scarlet fever is prevailing to a great extent around Mt. Holly, Cumberland county.

Junata county people are wanting the Millin bridge to be taken by the county and rebuilt for free traffic.

We call attention to the sale of valuable seed potatoes, on March 10th, by D. B. Dunkelberger.

An infant child of Rev. J. W. Ely of Blain died on Saturday. The body was taken to McVeytown on Monday.

Mr. Gruver father-in-law of Friday Grier, died in this borough on Friday morning. The old gentleman had been very feeble for a long time.

We were glad to see Mr. H. C. Dern, of the Altoona Tribune in town yesterday, and still more pleased to see him in such improved health.

The Newport Bridge Company will rebuild the bridge across the Juniata, and will receive proposals for the contract.

Edward, a son of D. K. Smith of Newport, was on Wednesday last badly hurt by a premature explosion at Ashland where he was employed.

Mr. Frank Dout, of Greenpark, was unfortunate enough to lose a bag of wheat off his sled on a recent trip to Newport. Did you find it?

Thursday last was one of the worst days of the winter for out door work. Though the thermometer was six degrees above zero, the cutting wind made it worse to be out than some of the days when the mercury was much lower.

On Wednesday last, a boy named Crum, residing near Newport attempted to board a moving freight train and slipped, falling so that the wheel mashed one foot so badly that it had to be amputated.

The Juniata Conference of the Synod of Central Pennsylvania will meet in the Lutheran Church in this place on Monday evening, March 14th, and will continue until after Wednesday.

We notice several of our exchanges say "Perry county is sadly troubled with organized bands of thieves." It would be more convincing if they would give us the particulars, as we have been under the impression that as little thieving was done in this county as any in the state.

Wilson, a little son of Rev. A. H. Spangler, of this borough, while playing in the alley near his father's residence on Tuesday last, fell, striking his head on a broken shovel, cutting a deep gash in the center of his forehead and severing the small artery. Dr. Bollinger was called in to dress the wound.

A villainous looking tramp has been going around through Centre, Carroll and Wheatfield townships making himself obnoxious. He generally makes his calls when none but the women are at home and in several instances has insisted on staying all day when he found the men would be absent. He should receive the attention of some of the constables.

On Thursday night last week the inquests on the bodies of Isaac V. Simmons and Henry Arnold, of York Pa., the two lads who died from eating a poisonous root, was concluded, and the juries rendered their verdicts. Judging from the manner and circumstances of the death of the two lads, the root, which they supposed to be sweet myrrh, was Cicuta Aquatica, known as "Water hemlock" or "cow bane."

The Rev. J. Kretzing enjoyed a pleasant surprise visit on the 22nd ult. from Messrs. C. N. McKeehan and Rufus Swartz of the Bloomfield congregation. They pulled up before the parsonage in Newport with a load of corn, oats, potatoes, apples, eggs &c. There were seventeen bags full of horse feed and three of potatoes, besides the fowls, some hen fruit and other substantial. Thanks for all and to all the donors.

The Philomathean Literary Society will meet in Academy Hall on next Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The exercises will consist of essays, recitations, orations and answering of historical queries. The following resolution will be discussed: Resolved that in the judgment of this Society the course of Enoch Arden was justifiable. Principal disputants, Geo. R. Barnett and J. C. Wallis.

Mr. E. R. Sponser of this place had an accident on Friday night which might have been rather serious. In coming up the hill by the Newport mill he met Mr. Ensminger's team hauling logs. Just as they were passing each other the logs made a sudden slide towards Mr. Sponser's horses, causing them to jump, and go partly down the bank, throwing Ed. out and mashing down one wheel. Fortunately the teamster caught the horses and held them, so that no other damage was done, and Ed. reached home safely on horse-back.

We call the attention of those wanting Carpets to the advertisement of Samuel Adams, Harrisburg. He has a splendid line of goods, and he is the kind of a man we like to recommend to our readers, for we are sure they will be fairly dealt with if they call on him.

Duncannon Items.—From the Record we take the following:

A child of James Patterson, on Market street aged about two years, was badly scalded the other day by drawing a coffee pot from the stove upon itself. The child has since died.

The cold water pump at the mill factory gave out on Wednesday and there not being a sufficient supply of water in the reservoir, the factory was idle in the afternoon.

Mr. Joseph M. Hawley, one of Duncannon's most enterprising citizens and one of our best business men, is erecting two dwelling houses this winter on High street opposite the residence of Mr. John Rose. He expects to have them completed by the first of April. One will be occupied by Mr. Robert Branyan and the other by Mr. Tressler of Markleville.

A Small Pox Cure.—"I am willing to risk my reputation as a public man," wrote Edward Heins of the Liverpool Mercury, "if the worst case of small pox cannot be cured in three days simply by the use of cream tartar. One ounce of cream tartar dissolved in one pint of hot water and drank at intervals when cold, is a certain, never failing remedy. It has cured thousands, never leaves a mark, never causes blindness and avoids tedious lingering."

The Poisoning Case.—There has always been a mystery connected with the death of Mr. John Sanders, who died from poison, mention of which was made in the Repository at the time. A few days ago a package containing arsenic was found in the lot adjoining the residence of the deceased, and it is believed by many that the deadly drug which did the work was from this package. How it was administered and by whom has not yet been revealed and perhaps never will be. Franklin Repository.

A Careful Horse.—Mr. Adam Leffard, of Millin county, who was a delegate at the recent convention of Presbyterian elders, while on his return to his home was very much surprised and annoyed because the horse which he was driving refused to cross the bridge at Alexandria. He was very grateful, however when he learned that his entrance of the bridge would have insured his death for while the effort to persuade the horse to go on was still in progress the bridge yielded to the pressure of the and went sweeping down the stream.

Narrow Escape.—On Friday last Mr. J. W. Eyster, of Carlisle, and Mr. Thomas Daley attended the sale of Mr. George M'Pherrin, three miles east of Chambersburg. They were driving into the barnyard to hitch their horse when suddenly they were met by a runaway horse, which being unable to stop himself, jumped into the gentlemen's buggy tearing the seat out and badly breaking the vehicle. Mr. Daley was thrown out backwards but strange to say neither of the gentlemen were seriously injured. They are both surprised that they got off without broken limbs, and cannot conceive how they made such a narrow escape.

A York County Sensation.—Dillsburg, a town in the upper section of York county, has had an abduction, and the staid little village is in consequence thrown into a glow of excitement and society provided with a delicate morsel for digestion. A fifteen-year-old daughter of Dr. Farrel, a highly respected physician of Dillsburg, was abducted on Thursday last by Alex. Harbold, who invited her from home under the pretext of taking her for a drive. Harbold was a mutual friend of Miss Farrel and Charley Newman. The latter, it seems was deeply in love with Miss Farrel, but her father had forbidden him the house. It is charged that he then conspired with Harbold to carry Miss Farrel away from home. Newman was to meet them and they would be married. Accordingly Miss Farrel was taken by Harbold to John Ringwalt's hotel, in Mechanicsburg, where the proprietor took her to a room and locked her in. The abduction was well planned. Newman happened along just after his lady love had been imprisoned and accordingly ushered himself into the young lady's apartment. He was explaining the delicate matter when Dr. Farrel appeared on the scene and Newman consequently withdrew. No marriage had taken place nor had the young lady been in the hotel long with her abductors before her father's arrival. Harbold, who was arrested on sight, gave bail and Newman was also captured and brought to Harrisburg and placed in jail. He was taken to York next morning, where he will be given an opportunity to furnish bail for an appearance at court. The young lady was taken home by her father, suffering considerably from the shock which the affair occasioned.

A Church Trouble.—The following reference to a squabble among members of the Salem church of Lancaster, of which Rev. J. B. Soule, at one time a resident of Landisburg this county, is pastor, will be read with interest: The Lancaster Inquirer says the congregation is composed of seceders from the Union Bethel Church of God, of that city. Rev. J. B. Soule was the pastor of the Salem church, and so well did he do that the congregation grew and prospered, and when the East Pennsylvanian Eldership ordered Mr. Soule to another charge the people revolted, and ignoring the itinerant system, retained him.—All went well until a few weeks ago, when a Rev. Mr. Bauman, an Adventist from South Carolina came here to assist at a revival. He preached peculiar doctrines, and soon had an extensive following, while others of the congregation so abhorred these tenets, that they absented themselves from the church. In this action they were indorsed by Mr. Soule, their pastor. The affair culminated in a meeting of the church council on Monday, at which, by a vote of five to three Mr. Soule was requested to resign, and did resign. Mr. Bauman left Lancaster on Thursday, and it is reported, will send an adventist clergyman to continue his work. In this, however, there may be some difficulty, as Mr. Christopher Dalsz, one of Lancaster's oldest grocers and a member of Salem, holds a claim of something like $3,800, principal and accrued interest, against the church, and he is one of those who cling to Mr. Soule, the rejected pastor.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

An accident occurred at the stock sale at the Thudium House, on Saturday, which resulted in the breaking of an arm of a youth named Harry Lamson. Some careless person drove against one of the horses being sold, and a general stampede took place. In endeavoring to escape from the danger of being trampled upon, the lad slipped and fell on the ice, with the above result.

On last Friday morning Mrs. Eliza Robinson, an aged lady who lives in the family of Mr. James R. Means, a short distance west of Carlisle, met with a very painful accident. In walking out into the yard she slipped on the ice and fell dislocating her right shoulder and severely injuring the ball of the shoulder joint. Her age and feeble physical condition are very much against her speedy recovery and her sufferings have been intense. Dr. Kieffer attended her and at present it is thought she will recover. Mrs. R., is an aunt of Mrs. Means and is past seventy-three years old.

A $10.00 Biblical Prize.

The publishers of Rutlege's Monthly offer the following easy way for some one to make $10.00: To the person telling us how many times the word "Jerusalem" is found in the New Testament Scriptures, by March 15th, 1881, we will give $10.00 in gold as a prize. The money will be forwarded to the winner March 15th, 1881. Those who try for the prize must send 10 cents with their answer, for which they will receive the April number of the Monthly, a handsome Magazine of 36 pages, in which will be published the name and address of the winner of the prize, with the correct answer thereto. Address, RUTLEGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Pa.

Dental Notice.

I wish to inform the people of lower Juniata and Perry counties, that I have located a Dental Office at the Martin Hotel in Millersburg, for the purpose of practicing Dentistry in all its branches. Having had ample city practice at Indianapolis, Ind., during the war period, sending out plate work to nearly all of the northern States, also had an office in the city of Auburn, N. Y., I will bring to the village of Millersburg, city practice at the ruling country prices. I will use no cheap material, consequently I will not advertise any of the low prices. Full set of rubber plates, either upper or lower, $10; filling teeth, from 50c upward; building up teeth with gold, from $3 to $10 and upward. All work guaranteed. No work done on trial.

Junata County.—We copy the following from the Junata county papers of last week:

Tuscarora valley people drive to Millintown by way of Port Royal bridge.

If people cannot walk across the river they may talk across by telephone.

The late flood swept about one-half of the breast of the Nevin Pomeroy mill dam away. The mill is located not far from Academita.

On last Tuesday evening Miss Kate Galsbur fell on the ice in front of her residence and broke one of her arms between the wrist and elbow. Dr. Banks rendered the necessary surgical attention and the patient is doing well.

Frank Noble's gentle driving horse concluded to play wild horse on Tuesday morning, and did it up to nature by beginning kick while in a spring wagon to which he was hitched, being driven down Cherry street hill by his master.—The kicking was supplemented by leaps, sudden starts and other horse performance, till a post was reached at Sandoe's corner. There the case was aggravated by Constables Noble and Lapp, who were both in the wagon, being thrown out. The horse pursued the terror of his frisky ways on down Water street, demolishing wagon and harness in the most approved wild horse style. Neither of the two men sustained great injury.—Sentinel.

FOR THE TIMES.

How a Preacher was Treated.

MR. EDITOR, please allow me through your popular columns to tell everybody how strangely the people around Shermansdale treated me on the evening of the 23rd. Mr. Joseph Hair and Mr. Adam Sweeger took their wagons and drove around to the houses of the Methodists, Presbyterians, United Brethren, and others, and told them they wanted something, and after they had got their wagons loaded they came here to the parsonage and stopped, and came right into the house and threw out potatoes, sweet potatoes, apples, wheat and buckwheat flour, all over the floor, and on the table their coffee, sugar, canned fruit, butter, eggs, dried fruit, etc., and then they went and filled my corn box so full of corn that I could scarcely get it shut, and then the worst of all Mr. Sweeger took some money out of his pocket book and made me take that, and you know Mr. Editor how mad that would make a man; but I'll return "good for evil," and "whosoever will lay hands on the devil and those that help to do this have the heartfelt thanks and prayers of preacher and family. All amounted to about $25.

The New Bible—Quick Work.

The new version of the New Testament, which has been so many years in course of translation and which is unquestionably the most important literary enterprise this century has seen, is being waited for with curiosity and anxiety by hundreds of thousands. It is not generally known that a first edition of 500,000 copies has already been manufactured in England, and 100,000 copies are said to be already in New York City, not one of them permitted to be sold. They are awaiting a telegram from the authorities in England authorizing their issue. The first copies can only be had at the extravagant price of $10 per copy. The Literary Revolution proposes fully to meet the demands which its army of friends are making upon it by doing probably the quickest work in book-making which has ever yet been accomplished. Arrangements have been fully made to put the entire book into type inside of 24 hours from the time a printed copy of the English edition can be procured, and within three days at least 10,000 copies will be bound ready for delivery to waiting purchasers, and at least 5,000 copies will be manufactured every day thereafter, until the demand is met. It will be printed in large, beautiful type, neatly and strongly bound in cloth, in a volume of about 600 pages, and sold at the nominal price of 50 cents. A fine edition in half Russia, gilt top, will be sold for 60 cents, and one in full Turkey Morocco, gilt edges, for $1.35. Of course, the popular demand will be enormous. Orders will be filled in the order in which they are received, with remittance. AMERICAN BOOK EXCHANGE, New York.
