Brief Items.

85 Correspondents who wish their article published must have them in not later than Sat-urday. Letters received Mondaymorning scarcely ever get published.

A flat to ferry passengers and teams across the river, now takes the place of the Newport bridge.

Daniel Swartz of Juniata twp., has lost 32 skeps of bees during this winter. That was all he had too.

There will be singing at Center School house, two miles west of this place, on Thursday evening of this week.

Our exchanges from all over the country complain of the loss of bees, probably caused by the great cold for so long a Jerry Thompson of Newport was so unfortunate as to cut his arm so as to sever an artery. He got pretty weak from loss of blood before it was fixed.

A train passed through Newport on Wednesday taking as the canvas sign sald "The General Assembly of Ohio" who were on their way to Washington.

Rev. J. H. Dobbs will deliver a temperance lecture in Newport on next Saturday evening. This will be the last chance to hear him, as he soon leaves to take "a charge" in the west.

Mrs. D. J. Klinepeter of Newport was badly bruised, and had her shoulder joint put out of place by falling down the cellar stairs on Thursday last. Dr. Harry Stites attended to her injuries.

The greatest snow storm of the winter was on Thursday night, continuing till Friday noon. About 15 inches of snow fell which was wet and heavy, so that it did not drift but little.

On Tuesday Jas. B. Hackett Esq., came into town with his buggy running on three wheels and a rail; his buggy axle broke when about 3 miles above town. Having a quiet horse no further

S. H. Beck and his brother William have bought out Stouffer & Crist, and are pushing the Carriage building business to the best of their ability. They will no doubt do a better trade in that line than was ever done in this place by any of their predecessors.

Edward Smith of Newport, who was burned by a premature blast at Ashland a few days ago died from his injuries on Thursday, and his remains were brought to Newport for burial on

The deceased was a son of Daniel K. Smith, and leaves a young wife, having been married about five months since.

The Philomathean Literary Society will meet in Academy Hall on next Fri-day evening at 7 o'clock. The exercises will consist of essays, recitations, ora-tions and answering of historical queries. The following resolution will be discuss-ed: Resolved, that in the judgment of this Society the right of suffrage should be extended to women. Principal dis-putants Rev. A. H. Sonneler and Rev. putants, Rev. A. H. Spangler and Rev. J. Edgar. J. M. ARNOLD, Sec. J. Edgar.

Personal.-The editor of the Lewistown Free Press and family, narrowly escaped smothering to death by coal gas a few nights ago.

Alfred a son of Mr. John Shearer, of Center twp., has left for New York city where he will take a course of medical ectures.

Mr. Geo. B. Hackett and wife are in town on a visit. George is looking fine and don't appear any older than he did

Mrs. Samuel Kistler, of Iowa, is visit-ing her sister Mrs. Wm. Sheibley, Sr., of Duncannon. It being nineteen years since she visited her friends in the east Mrs. Sheibley did not recognize her.

The Rice boys, Joe and Zack, who run the stage route from Newport to Germantown, have bought the Landisburg and Carlisle route. We have no doubt it will be well cared for under their management.

Church Notices.

M. E. Church - Preaching this evening (Monday). Also, preaching on Sunday at 10t A. M., which will be Missionary day in the Sunday School.

Sam. Duffee, Miss Willimina Yeager. Persons calling for the above letters, please say they are advertised.

SAMUEL ROATH, P. M. Weather Report. - B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of February 1881: Average of Thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 23°26', and of Barometer, 30 inches minus 6-tenths. Average of greatest heat, 32°32', and of cold 15°45. Friday the 11th was the warmest day, the Thermometer registering 480 above zero, and Thursday the 3d the coldest day, the mercury sinking to 60 below zero. There fell 4 and 5-tenths inches of rain, and 15 inches of snow. There has fallen this winter 6 feet of snow, the ground not being clear of snow since the latter part of November. There was a continual freeze from 22d of November until the 10th of February. The average of the Thermometer was lower this winter than any winter for 20 years. In the winter of 1872-3 there was colder weather, but of short duration.

A Long Separation.-The Mechanics burg Journal says a brother and sister supposing each other dead have met after sixty-eight years separation and then adds: "Mrs. Pifer, an aged resident of Myerstown, Lebanon county, whose maiden name was Katle Stoey, had a son in Harrisburg, boarding with the family of Mr. Isaac Smith, on Two-and-a-half street. After being there six months he found out that Mrs. Smith's maiden name was also Katie Stoey. There not being any other Stoeys living to their knowledge, except Mr. Harriet Beecher Stowe, who is a distant relative, inquiry was at once made, revealed the fact that the old lady was a sister of George W. B. Stoey, one of the oldest men in this county, who now resides seven miles north of Mechanicsburg. A reunion was at once organized. Mrs. Pifer and family, with her son-in-law proceeded to Harrisburg where they were joined by Mr. Smith's family on their way to Mechanicsburg, where they received a hearty welcome at the residence of F. E. Rodgers, whose wife is also a daughter of Mr. Stoey. From this place the four proceeded by private conveyance to Mr. Stoey's, who did not know his sister, but was nonplussed to find a strange woman laughing at him and propounding questions to him in dutch. Finaly, when the case was properly unveiled, the occasion proved to be a pleasant one. The aged couple look well and healthy, and bid fair to live out the short balance of the century.

Dastardly Outrage. - Isaac Zearfoss, who resides in Southampton twp., this county, about a mile from Shippensburg was attacked on Saturday night last, and severely injured by some person at present unknown.

Mr. Zearfoss is a miller, and had taken a load of flour to Shippensburg in the afternoon, returning home about nine o'clock. He had put his horses away and was just coming out of the stable, when, without warning, he was struck on the back of the head with a sharp weapon, and again on the shoulder, felling him to the ground. He was able, however, to cry an alarm, to which his wife responded, when his assailant fled through a field to the woods and disappeared. The next merning search was instituted, without success. In the woods a hatchet, with which it is supposed the blows were inflicted, and a smoothing iron were found. The cuts are both severe, but fortunately not dangerous.

The villain had possibly noticed Mr. Zearfess with the load of flour, and had concealed himself in the stable to await his return, and made the attack for the purpose of securing the proceeds. Considerable excitement naturally prevailed in that vicinity, and had the scoundrel been captured, he would have been roughly handled .- Repository.

Marysville Items,-Our correspondent from Marysville says:

from Marysville says:

It has been snowing here since 7 P.
M., last evening (3d inst.,) and at this writing, 1 P. M., (4th) the snow, heavy and soggy, is about 12 inches deep. The wires between this and points east and west of us are in such a condition as to prevent communication, and hence travel and transportation are very much delayed. Forty-five car loads of soldiers destined for Washington, from the western part of the state, were delayed here from 2 A. M., to 6 A. M., to-day. Yesterday forenoon twenty-four passenger terday forenoon twenty-four passenger cars loaded with the boys in blue passed through here en route for the Capitol, thus making in all seventy-nine car-

Four valuable horses were slightly burned from cinders of a passing locomotive while waiting in the upper yard for transportation last night.

At 3 P. M., still snowing, with high wind from the west. Pacific Express, due here at 11:59 A. M., from the west, not yet arrived.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers

A straw stack on the farm of Mr. Stephen Weakley, of Dickinson twp., fell over burying three head of cattle—. Two of the cattle were rescued, but the third one had its neck broken.

Mr. Joseph Hefflefinger, of Hopewell township, while felling a lodged tree in the woods, last week, met with a very serious accident. In removing the tree it gave way all of a sudden and catching Mr. H. in falling, knocked him to the ground with such force as to dislocate his shoulder and otherwise injured him.

shoulder and otherwise injured him.

Mr. Joseph McDermond, Sr., of Miffiin twp., was badly hurt on last Saturday by falling from his spring wagon while in the act of getting into the wagon at Glauser's store. He was standing on the wagon when the horse started, throwing him backward to the ground dislocating his left shoulder and also his left knee. At this writing Mr. McD. is doing as well as can be expeted.

On Thursday night last, the wife of Mr. Holmes Norris, residing near the Fair grounds, in the Fourth Ward, died very suddenly of neuralgia of the heart. Mrs. Norris had retired in her usual health about 9 o'clock and before 10 was a corpse. The funeral which took place on Saturday afternoon was very large, and was attended by the Golden Chain of which the deceased had been an active member.

The following mail routes have been awarded to Messrs. H. C. & Z. T. Rice: Shippensburg to Dry Run.
Newville to Newburg.
Hunter's Run to Gettysburg.
Indiana to Paunxsauxtauny.
Brookville to Ridgway.
The Messrs. Rice have been in the mail route business for several years.—Harry C. Rice is well and favorably known in this county. They are the sons of the late Zachariah Rice, of Perry, who was also a mail contractor.

who was also a mail contractor.

From the above it will be seen that the Messrs. Rice have received five out of the thirteen routes for which they bid.

On Saturday evening as Messrs. Geo. Boyer, Geo. Longnecker and Ausustus Kimmel, were returning from Fairview driving a vicious horse attached to a spring wagon, the animal took fright near Rheinard's saw-mill and ran down over the river bank. The wagon was overturned and the occupants thrown some distance toward the water. Mr. Boyer had his left leg broken at the ankle joint. Mr. Longnecker was considerably bruised about the face and limbs, but strange to say Mr. Kimmel escaped unhurt. Dr. Basehore attended the wounded men and they are doing well. On Saturday evening as Messrs. Geo.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week :

Some days ago John Basehore, of Fayette township, had a fall from a horse and had his collar bone broken.

William McCachren, of Turbett twp., received the contract for building the Muddy Run school house,last Saturday. He is to build the house for $1,137.00

Allen McAlister, who lives at Cocolamus, on the main road to Richfield, fell from a load of hay last week, and split the cap of his right knee.

A rope ferry has been put across the river below the bridge, and a large flat crosses the river in two minutes time.—
The flat will safely carry twenty people.

Last Thursday George Vosburgh, a lad about 14 years of age, son of Tunis Vosburgh, was run over by a freight train of cars eastward-bound, near Port Royal. The youth had been to this place, and was on his way to Port Royal, at which place he lived with his father. He missed a step in the effort to get off the car, and fell across the rail. The train passed over his abdomen, killing him almost instantly.

Mr. Samuel Brubaker, of Fermanagh twp., was found dead in his wagon-shed on Tuesday noon. In the morning he was appparently in good health when he went to his work. His wife went to the barn to look for him for dinner, when she discovered him lying on the ground in the wagon-shed dead. He was about forty years old. He leaves a wife and two sons to mourn his sudden taking off.

The high water on Monday afternoon The high water on Monday afternoon got the better of the flat that is run across the river by the railroad wire cable and upset the boat. There were two persons in the flat when the misfortune overtook it, namely, George Goshen, passenger, and Jacob Wise, manager of the boat. Some thief stole a horse, that $150 had been refused for, from the stable of Samuel Rickenbach, about one mile east of McAlistervile, last Wednesday night. The horse had not eaten the hay that was put in the rack, and from that fact it is inferred that the horse was taken in the early part of the night.—The animal had been fed by the thief, as was evident by the corn cobs in the trough. A saddle, bridle and blanket were also taken. The night was a cold, blustery one. No clue to the stolen horse has yet been reported.

MR. EDITOR:— I have no important news to give you, except that our fellow townsman, Joseph M. Cook, who was stabled by Simon S. Fleegle on the night of September 20th, is still lying pretty low, without any hopes of recovery. Fleegle was let out of jall last week on $600 bail. The circumstances in the case were that Fleegle got on a drunk, and late in the night he ran after his wife with a gun, threatening to shoot her. She ran to Jos. Newcomer's, who came to town and swore out a warrant for his arrest. The constable, W. H. Cuppett, being unwell, deputed Mr. Cook, who in company with John M. Selfert, started to Fleegie's to arrest him. Calling him out, Mr. Cook tapped him on the shoulder, telling him he was his prisoner, when Fleegie struck him with a large dirk knife in the left side, cutting him into the lungs. Selfert then took hold of him, when he stabbed him likewise, but not so deep. The next morning he was arrested and taken to jall, where he has been ever since until last week.

FOR THE TIMES. Sumprimed, Ill., Feb. 28, 1881.

BREFFIELD, Ill., Feb. 28, 1881.

MR. EDITOR:—I regularly read your valuable paper, and see some news in it from all patts of the globe. If you spare me a little space I will try and tell a little of this State. It is now nearly one year since I left Old Perry. I felt happy having quite a trip before me,—leaving Millerstown and arriving in Sheffield.

Everything seems to be a little dull, but we have a bright prospect ahead. The expectations are for a good wheat crop here next summer. As we have had an immense quantity of snow here this winter, more than there has been for a good many years, it has been an extremely cold winter. It got cold early in November and has been freezing ever since. The ground is frozen from two to two and a half feet deep. It has been an extremely hard winter on stock, as people do not have as many barns here as they do in Pennaylvania. Hay is very scarce in some parts of this State. Prices of produce are as follows: Wheat brings from 75 to 80 cents per bushel, corn 30 to 35 cents, pork from $5.00 to $5.35, butter 16 to 20, eggs from 20 to 36. Groceries are nearly as cheap as with you. You can buy a fine two-horse wagon at from $65 to $50. Horses from $25 to $200. If I was to advise any one to come out here it be one who has money. A man with a trade can do better here than he can in the east. But men coming here with the lutention of getting rich without work and depending entirely on the amount of brains he has, he will find he cannot do it. There are smart men in the west as well as in the east. Farmers in this state make most of their money out of stock and corn. Land sells at from $60 to $100 per acre. There is no state in the union that has better schools than Illinols. Most people burn coal for fuel. Good coal can be got here at from 5 to 8 cents per bushel. Best wishes to you.

The Younger Brothers, and Frank and Jesse James.

The Historical Publishing Co., of St. Louis, Mo., has just issued a complete history of the noted Younger Brothers and Frank and Jesse James, bringing the events in the lives of these airy gentlemen of the bighway down to the present time. It is a volume of over 400 pages, containing more than 40 litustrations, and printed and bound in good style. Mr. J. W. Buel, the author, has been engaged during the last three years in collecting and preparing his materials, and recently visited the Younger in the Minnesota penitentiary for the purpose of verifying certain portions of his work. It is said to be of the most exciting and thrilling character, and its selling qualities are indicated by the fact that more than 10,000 copies were ordered in advance of publication. See were ordered in advance of publication. advertisement elsewhere.

The Illustrated Scientific News.

The Ladies as a rule like to dress well, and the men like to see them well dressed. There are some men though who cannot afford to spend very much money for pretty dresses, but for such persons we have some goods which don't cost much, and yet will make up in a stylish manner when combined with some appropriate trimming, and buttons to match. We intend to have at all times this season a good assortment of this class of goods.
