HOUSE, FARM AND GARDEN.

Value of Alum.

A bit of alum kept near a wash basin or towel rack and frequently rubbed over the face while yet damp, will do much towards removing tan and preventing unsightly pimples. I have never found anything better for cankerous sores on the lips and tongue. If mixed with vinegar and water, salt and pepper, it will cure ordinary sore throat; grated and stirred in molasses it is splendid for croup. I have known cases of toothache, when all the comnon pungent remedies failed, to be instantly quieted by inserting in the cavity of the tooth a bit of moist cotton sprinkled with equal quantities of pulverized alum and salt. Really good bread can be made from grown wheat if one tablespoonful of alum and two tablespoonfuls of butter are added to each ordinary baking, and it is excellent in cheap molasses cookies to give the desired crispness when little butter is used. A good cement can be made by melting a bit of alum and using immedlately, but one must be quick or the value will be lost. A gentleman has just told me how he so thoroughly deadened the nerve of a decayed tooth that it has not ached for years; by frequently using alum that has been dropped on a hot surface and left until it stopped "boiling." A piece the size of a kernel of corn was not all used for one tooth. It is good for hardening cucumbers after taken from salt brine.

Corn and Corn Bread.

If the inhabitants of North America were each to save three cents a day in their housekeeping the total saving would amount to the vast sum of over 700 millions of dollars in the year .-This enormous sum may be saved by very moderate econmy in Household affairs. In the single item of food it may be saved over and over again in cooking or in using a cheaper food .-The cheapest food in the world is Indian corn; and this valuable grain is too much neglected in the household, because few housekeepers know how to prepare it acceptably. But it may be used whole, partly broken, or ground, in a great variety of shapes and manners, and if one were to be reduced to a single article of food by any chance, the most useful one would doubtless be Indian corn, providing eggs, milk, sugar, and a little spice could be thrown in for trimmings. As a matter of cost it might be mentioned that the usual difference in cost is greatly in favor of corn as compared with other kinds of food .-Wheat is usually 21 times as dear as corn; potatoes four times as dear, considering that three fourths of them are water: and corn is a better food for the winter than either wheat or potatoes because it is much richer in oil or fat. Why then don't people eat more corn? Simply because of ignorance of its value or of the best methods of cooking it when the lard gets scorched by fry-loughnuts, as it sometimes will (especially if the girls are doing it) it can be made nice again by slicing a raw potato into thin slices, dropping them into the kettle and frying till quite brown. They absorb all the bitter taste and collect all the dark spots on the surface, and make the lard fit for use again. Another way to cleanse lard in the frying pan is, just before you set your kettle away, to pour in some boiling hot water, and let it stand and cool. When you wish to use it again, take a knife and run around the edge of the lard; lift it from the kettle, and lay it bottom side up on a flat plate, scrape off' all the brown coating for the soap grease turn out the water and cleanse the ketile; if any water stands in drops on the rd, let it drain off and your lard is re and sweet.

To Cleanse Scorched Lard.

How She Saved Money.

For nearly six years my daughter is most of the time on a sick bed from dney and other disorders peculiar to omen. We had used up our savings a doctors and prescriptions without my benefit. Our dominie advised us o try Parker's Ginger Tonic, and four ottres effected a marvelous cure. As it as been our only medicine since, and a ollar's worth has kept our family well ver a year, and have been able to lay y a little money again for a rainy day," Poor Man's Wife.

Honored and Blest.

When a board of eminent physicians When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were skeptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to-day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.—Democrat.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.

From Rev. N. P. Granger, Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District. St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents: — In repw to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring bone was forming. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Soavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.

Respectfully yours.

P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell!

Stoughton, Mass., March 16tu, 1880.

B. J. Kendali & Co., Geuts:—in justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendali's Spavin Cure," one very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have somed the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large, one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no hunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great.

Respectfully yours.

for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great.

Respectfully yours,
CHAS. E. PARKER.
