

THE TIMES.

Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after Monday, Jan. 17th, 1881, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for Westward and Eastward routes, listing stations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and New York.

Public Sales.—We call attention to sales of Real and Personal Property as follows:

Tuesday, March 22nd.—John Souder will sell at his residence in Spring twp., young cattle, sheeps, sheep, 4 wagons, sleigh, and farming implements.

Brief Items.

Our thanks are again due Senator Smiley and Hon. M. B. Holman, for public documents. Millerstown Bridge Company will now take proposals for the re-building of the bridge at that place.

J. W. Rice of Sandy Hill, recently killed three hogs, about one year old that weighed 1225 pounds. A young man named Mintzer, residing at Marysville, had his leg badly mashed by the cars at Harrisburg on Tuesday night.

The boys who went to the school taught the past winter by Mr. Geo. Barnett came home delighted on Tuesday evening. The term had ended.

The fellow who committed the assault on Mr. Zerfoss, near Shippensburg two weeks since was arrested at Altoona and now awaits trial for his rascally deed.

A man buys a horse for $90 and sells him for $100, buys another for $95 and sells him for $100, how much has he made?

B. F. Hall of Carroll twp., postponed his sale on Saturday last, owing to the bad weather and it will take place on THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK.

Read the Carlisle Carpet House adverb on 8th page of this paper. Also, read notice headed "Attention, Housekeepers," on 4th page of last week's TIMES.

The Carlisle Mirror and the Herald have been combined, and a paper is issued called the Herald and Mirror. Mr. A. H. Addams is the editor. The first numbers look remarkably well.

A little girl named Annie Porter, living in West Harrisburg, died last Thursday from over exertion in jumping rope. Parents should guard their children against this foolish practice.

Two horses belonging to John Dimm of Pfouts Valley, got scared and jumped from the flat upon which they were to be ferried over the Juniata at Millers-town. A broken wagon pole was the injury caused by the scare.

Leo Lantz, who gave sheriff Gray so much trouble during his term of office and who finally escaped from jail in this place, was so badly hurt on the N. C. R. R. a few days ago that he died from the effects of the injuries.

The Ledger wants to know how a railroad is expected to sustain itself when a single line telegraph won't pay. We can't ship freight on even a "single wire," and if we could the poles are so poor that a pound package would endanger the line.

On Thursday Mrs. Thomas Tressler of Juniata twp., was thrown out of a wagon and somewhat bruised while driving to Newport. The accident was caused by the wagon striking the animal's heels in going down hill, causing it to run.

Henry S. Date of Chicago, Ill., promises to send pictures for money sent him. We know of parties who have sent him money but failed to receive any return. He may be a very honest man but his manner of doing business does not please those who have lost their money.

The parties who committed the burglary on the premises of Marx Dukes & Co., at Newport, have been arrested at Harrisburg. It seems they did succeed in entering the room formerly occupied by E. B. Fleck, from which they stole some articles which had been left there. They are all Harrisburg fellows known as hard cases.

The News says: While Rev. S. W. Seibert was regularly appointed by the late Conference of the Evangelical Association to the Juniata district, he was also granted supernumerary relations, which he proposes to take advantage of and rest from ministerial labor the current year, which leaves Juniata district to be supplied.

The following are the officers and teachers of the Evangelical Sabbath School of Ellottsburg: Supt. D. R. Kane; Assst. Supt. D. J. Kell; Sect. H. Poose; Librarians, J. Shatto; and Frances Hartman; Teachers of Bible class, Mrs. Brader and J. W. Gehr.—Other teachers, Frank Rice; Thomas Hensch; Benj. Zimmerman and Phenie Brader. Lecturer from the Black-board Dr. Conrad.

Personals.—Mr. Calvin M. Hackett, son of J. B. Hackett, Esq., is home again, looking remarkably well.

Jacob Dalby, a former resident of this place, but now of Altoona, was in town last week.

Maj. Stroup and wife were in the county last week attending the funeral of Miss Jennie Diven.

J. W. Hoffman who went from this county to Smithville, Ill., has returned again, and will locate in Perry.

Mr. David Rickabaugh of Millerstown made a short visit to this place on Wednesday. Dave was in as great a hurry as he usually is, but says there is no more small pox in their place.

S. K. Rice, of Sandy Hill, started on his return to Colorado Springs, yesterday.

Among the former residents that visited our town last week was Mr. Joe Work of the Steelton Item. Joe is looking well.

Don't Forget, if you desire to change your post office to send the old address as well as the new one.

A Girl's Composition.—A little girl of this place wrote a composition on the horse, of which the following is an exact copy:

"I should like to have a horse and I would select a gray horse. A horse can go in a sleigh. A horse can trot. A cow has hair and a horse has hair too but no horns and a cow has no shoes, but a horse does. A horse has a little pony, a smart horse can go faster than a cow, but a cow has a little calf, and a cow gives milk but not a horse, and a cow can ball but a horse can't. I would like to have a horse I would so."

The following persons have recently obtained pensions through their attorney, Lewis Potter, New Bloomfield, Pa.

John Yohn, Sandy Hill, Perry county, Invalid Pension, $748 back pension and $4 per month hereafter.

Thomas McConnell, Mount Patrick, Perry county, Invalid Pension, $802 back pension and $4 per month hereafter.

Drusilla Graham, Center, Perry county, Widow's Pension, $1800 back pension and $14 per month hereafter.

Also bounty and back pay for heirs of Aaron L. Woodward of Millerstown, Perry county, deceased.

Duncannon Robberies.—On Thursday night, March 10th, thieves broke into the clothing store of Mr. Henry Hirsch in this place. They had taken tools from the wagonmaker shop of Enoch Baker, with which they took out a panel of the back door of the store, and effected an entrance in that way. The tools were found on the floor the next morning. They then lit a lamp which was burning in the morning and put a piece of muslin up at the window that the light could not be seen on the street.

They then ransacked the whole store, strewing the floor with clothing that their footsteps might not be heard. They took a large quantity of goods, the best clothing in the store, all the jewelry, revolvers, a large number of shirts, handkerchiefs and many other articles, the money drawer was also opened and $3.50 in change taken. They took two large carpet sacks and five shawl straps in which they packed the goods.

On last Saturday night between 10 and 12 o'clock thieves entered the residence of Mr. John Harper above town by cutting two large window glass and hoisting the window. They plundered around awhile and gathered up the following articles: an umbrella, 4 doz. cigars and a pocket-book containing 30 cents the property of Miss Mattie. A set of solid silver spoons and a number of other small articles of value was unmolested. Mr. Harper is in the habit of prowling around the house at night and discovered what had been done about 2 o'clock in the morning, and he says if they had been there they would have met with a cool reception as he has the implements of war around. He thinks the parties belong to Duncannon, and from the tracks in the snow there were three of them.

On the same night the residence of Rev. Hellman was entered by breaking open a window shutter but nothing was disturbed except some canned fruit.—Record.

A Road Sinks.—On Friday last, while Abner Miller, residing on the Malavery farm, Franklin county, was driving along the M'Dowell public road leading to Shady Grove, and was enjoying the sight of a field of fine growing wheat opposite, a loud cracking noise was heard, which frightened his horse so much that it was with difficulty that he was restrained from running off. On investigation Mr. Miller discovered the report to have been caused by the sinking of the roadbed alongside his wagon. Capt. Samuel Lesher and several others measured the hole and it was found to be ten feet in diameter one way and twenty the other. A pole twenty-one feet long was run into the hole and no bottom found. It is now filled with water within three inches of the surface.

Suicide.—Jacob Fry, an aged citizen of Horse Valley, in Letterkenny township, Franklin county, committed suicide about noon on Friday last, by shooting himself.

A correspondent furnishes us with the following particulars: The weapon used was a short barreled shot gun, charged with heavy duck shot, and death must have resulted instantaneously as the charge passed through his heart. W. A. Hunter, Esq., summoned a jury and held an inquest on the body. A post mortem examination was made by Dr. James W. Gelwix. The jury found that the deceased "came to his death by a gun shot wound at his own hand."—Repository.

Gene South.—The Port Royal Times, says: On Monday evening of this week Mr. Leonard Manger, of Spruce Hill township, took his departure with a force of carpenters for Luray, Page county, Virginia, where he has taken the contract for building a large tannery, which will take six months to erect.—The following is a list of the gentlemen who accompanied Mr. Manger: S. H. Meminger, John Brackbill, A. L. Meminger, W. J. Culbertson, Joshua Delaney, S. L. Manger, Robert Stewart, Robert Brackbill, A. R. Meminger, Peter Deiner, Millerstown, A. J. Mumper, New Germantown.

Lutheran Conference.—The Juniata Conference of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church convened in this borough, last week, passed the following resolutions relating to speculative insurance:

WHEREAS, Believing that speculative Life Insurance as now existing, and so rapidly spreading over our Commonwealth, is a monstrous evil, demoralizing in its tendency, dishonest in its purposes, and disastrous in its effects, we hereby Resolve, That as the watchmen to whom the master has given the oversight of his flock, we recognize the duty to defend and protect the moral and spiritual interests of the same.

We hereby sound the note of alarm and most earnestly advise our people to give heed to this specious but dangerous evil, and not be entangled therein.

A. H. SPANGLER, Sec.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

The past winter has been extremely severe on bees. Mr. Henry Kepner, of Turbet twp., lost twenty skeps out of twenty-three. This is a great loss to Mr. K.

John S. Graybill has sold his farm near Van Wert, in Walker twp., to John Heckman for $8,800. The farm contains 103 acres, and was formerly known as the Benjamin Weidman farm.

Rev. S. Aug. Davenport, of Bealetown, was visited recently by members of McCulloch's Mills Presbyterian congregation, residing near McCoyville, who presented him with many of the substantial of life.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

A band of vagabonds (Gypsies) have been loitering in the vicinity of Blosserville, for some time begging and stealing. They have been a great annoyance to the community, who have been unfortunate enough to be near their camps. Having their camps near the public road has caused several accidents from runaway horses.

Mr. William Zigler, of Frankfort twp., during the late snow storm started for the mill, but before he got home the roads were drifted so badly that he could scarcely get home. But by the timely arrival of some of his neighbors he was saved from freezing after having his wagon broken to pieces and his horse sticking in a snow drift.

The Philomathean Literary Society will meet in Academy Hall on next Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The exercises will consist of an essay by J. C. Willis, selections by Wilson Lupton and C. W. Rinesmith, and the reading of the following Historical queries: Buffalo Mountain, by Wm. Orr; Bella Hill, by R. H. Stewart; Crayley's Hill, by Rev. Spangler; Buckwheat Valley, by J. W. McKee. The following resolution will be discussed: Resolved that in the judgment of this Society the course of the U. S. Government in respect to the ship Virginia, was disgraceful. Principal disputants, W. H. Spangler and G. R. Barnett. A cordial invitation is extended to all persons interested in the welfare of the Society to be present at its meetings, the Society having resolved that henceforth the doors be thrown open to the public and a general invitation given to be present.

MAGAZINE NOTICES.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for April, just received, is an unusually brilliant number, especially in its engravings. In addition to a beautiful steel-plate, "In the Balcony," illustrating a tale by Frank Lee Benedict, it has a charming little love-story, by Ella Rodman Church, with numerous engravings. There is also a very able article, on the late George Eliot, the novelist, with illustrations. That powerful novel, "The Twelve Great Diamonds," by Mrs. Jane G. Austin, is completed in this number; and will be followed, we see, in the next, by "Held for Ransom," by Sidney Trevor, said to be even more thrilling. There are two colored patterns; a colored steel fashion-plate; and nearly half a hundred other illustrations. Address, CHAS. J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE.—The April number of Ballou's Illustrated Magazine is now before the public, with a liberal installment of that thrilling Indian story, "The Crimson Trail." The hero is making his mark on the Indians as they hem him in on all sides; but we suppose that his deliverance is sure to come at the proper time. Besides this great leading story, there are twenty some others, with poetry, and a leading illustrated article on the town of Aden, in the Red Sea, and a very well-prepared article, with engravings, representing a life on the Arctic Ocean while on a whaling voyage in company with a French ship. All this for only 15 cents, or $1.50 per annum, postpaid. Published by THOMAS & TALBOT, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, Mass., at only $1.50 per annum postpaid, and for sale at all the news depots in the country at 15 cents a copy.

GOEY'S LADY'S BOOK for April is on our table. The steel plate is a beautiful picture from Scott's "Monastery," and one of the very best of the popular series which have enriched this magazine for several years. In the literary department are given a complete novel, of intense interest, entitled "Sacrifice," and a number of short stories, poems, and sketches. In the fashion department are elegantly colored full length figures, numerous illustrations of dress for women and children, and the work department is replete with useful instruction, supplemented with engravings, upon various matters of interest to housekeepers. The array of recipes and the fun for children are still kept up with old-time care.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for April presents a very varied list of contents, yet all of a light and vivacious character. "A Peep at the North of Ireland," by W. George Beers, and "Characteristic Dances of the World," by Amelia E. Barr, entertainingly written and well illustrated, are otherwise sufficiently described by their titles. The first of a short illustrated series of papers on Zoological Curiosities, by Dr. Felix L. Oswald, treats of Mountain Sheep. A new serial story, with the quaint title of "Craque-o'-Doom," opens well. Of the short stories, "John Henry," by Sydney Chase, is laughable, while in "Slater Weeden's Prayer," by Sherwood Bonner, there is a mixture of humor and pathos. The poems are by Matrice Thompson, Howard Glyndon, and Charlotte Bates, and among the good things in the "Monthly Gossip" is a notice of Carlyle which describes his person, manners, and conversation in the surroundings of his own home.

Specimen Number mailed, postage paid, to any address, on receipt of 30 cents. Yearly subscription $3.00. Address J. B. Lippincott & Co., Publishers, 715 and 717 Market Street, Philadelphia.

Mammoth Pearl Potatoes.

I have a lot of this excellent variety of potatoes—a seedling of the Victor—raised from seed purchased of A. C. Ashald, of the original stock, which I will sell at $1.25 per bushel, 65 cents half bushel, 35 cents per peck, and 30 cents half peck. This potato is free from rot, never hollow, skin and flesh pure, pearly white. Eyes few and even with the surface. Ripens in August, and yields better than any other variety I have ever raised.

ROSS HENCH, Eschol, Perry Co., Pa.

Still Alive!

I am still alive and ready to cut and fit suits in good style. If wanting any work in my line, give me a call. Satisfaction Guaranteed. SAMUEL BENTZEL, TAILOR, April 6, '80. [New Bloomfield, Pa.]

Pay Up.—Having sold out and quit the business we want allowing us to call and settle their accounts. All accounts not settled by the 1st of April, will after that date be found in the hands of a 'Squire for collection. STOFFER & CRIST, March 5th, 3 t *

A CARD.

A new enterprise has been started in Meehanisburg, Cumberland county, by J. W. Ringrose & Co., and that is the making of a new style of Leather Fly Nets. These nets are said to be a great improvement over any style yet made, while the price they will be sold at, is no greater than is asked for the poorer article. Store keepers, before supplying themselves should see these nets and learn prices, and farmers should ask the merchant with whom they deal to get at least a sample to show them. For price list, etc., address J. W. RINGROSE & Co., Mechanisburg, Pa., or KENNEY & Co., Willing & Co., 100 and 102 North 3rd Street, Philadelphia, 5tf.
