A Dutch Victory.

The other day a German called on a grocer to pay a bill, giving him a ten-dollar note. The grocer examined it closely, and said:

"Hullo, where did you get this note?"

"'Tis the reasons mit dose note?" replied the honest Teutonic. "Don't she vas got, hein?"

"Good! why you're a lucky man; that note is worth $10.50!" answered the grocer.

"Ish dot so? Why for?"

"You see the signature over here don't you?"

"Dose tings like a corkscrew mit de worms? Yah."

"Well, that's Spinner's signature."

"Well, Mr. New is now Treasurer of the United States."

"You don't tole me so, vell?"

"Well the notes signed by Mr. Spinner are getting scarce, and people pay five per cent more for them than for the new issue."

"Py shiminy! Ish dot so?"

"Let me see your bills. Why, every one of them is a Spinner! Man alive, your fortune is made!"

In pursuance of the grocer's advice Mr. Schneider called at the sub-Treasurer to get the premiums on his bills.

What success he had it is impossible to state, but he was seen later in the evening lurking around the street by which the grocer must go home, and being accosted by an acquaintance, the following conversation took place:

"Der peeples von Sharmany fight vell hein?"

"Oh, yes; the Germans are unquestionably a military nation of the first class."

"Some big fights, hein?"

"Yes."

"Lelpic?"

"Yes."

"Und Sadowa?"

"Yes."

"Und Konniggratz?"

"Yes."

"Und Worth?"

"Certainly."

"Und Mars-la-Tour?"

"Yes."

"Und Gravelotte, and Sedan?"

"Of course, of course."

"Dose was all big battle, and the Deutch licked?"

"Yes."

"Vell, you joozt wait ill dot grocer store shuts himself, and you saw a Deutch victory vot makes you forget all dem little vones."

The Rev. Doctor Broadus, an old Baptist parson famous in Va., once visited a plantation where the darkey who met him at the gate asked him which barn he would have his horse put in.

"Have you two barns?" asked the doctor.

"Yes, sah, dars de ole barn' and Mar's Wales has jest build a new one;" replied the darkey.

"Where do you usually put the horses of clergyman who come to see your master?"

"Well sah, if dey's Method's or Baptist's, we generally put 'em in de ole barn, but if dey's 'Piscopals we put 'em in the new one."

"Well, Bob, you can put my horse in the new one; I'm a Baptist, but my horse is an Episcopalian."

"Now, Mary, my dear, suppose I were to shoot at a tree with five birds on it, and kill three, how many would be left?" asked the teacher.

"Three, ma'am."

"No two would be left."

"No there wouldn't though," said Mary. "The three shot would be left and the other two would be fled away."

"But Freddy, how could you think of calling auntie stupid? Go to her and tell her immediately that you are sorry." Freddy goes to auntie and says, "Auntie I am sorry you are stupid."

Nervous lady passenger on the train, after passing a temporary bridge, "thank goodness, we are now on terra firma." Facetious gentleman: "Yes, ma'am. Less terror and more firmer."

Haunted Me.

A Workingman says: "Debt, poverty and suffering haunted me for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since; and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost."—Christain Advocate.
