The last two days of March and the first of April, were as disagreeable as any days ought to be in January. We had rain, sleet, snow and ice, and persons who had to move were entitled to the pity of those who were more fortunate.

Are you going to Philadelphia this spring? If so and you want to stop at a good hotel we recommend the St. Elmo, on Arch, below 4th, as the place. Terms are only $2.00 per day, and there is no better hotel in the city. Col. Feger, the proprietor, understands his business.

The Philomathean Literary Society will meet in Academy Hall on next Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The following resolution will be discussed: Resolved, That in the judgment of this Society, the execution of Mary Queen of Scots, was unjustifiable. Principal disputants, J. L. Markel and J. W. M'Kee. A cordial invitation is extended to all persons.

Lieut. Wm. Allison, Post, No. 196, G. A. R., had a special muster on last Saturday afternoon, in their hall. Delegations from Posts 116 and 58 from Harrisburg were present, also a representative from Pottsville. This Post entertained the visitors by a supper given at "Charter's". In the evening a very pleasant time was had in the Hall, such as old "Vets." generally have—speeches, old army songs, etc. The string band furnished the music for the evening. The Post is prospering and now numbers 67 members.—Record.

The Carpet Advertisement of F. W. Yingst, Harrisburg, Pa., will be found on 8th page. If wanting Carpets, Oil Cloths, or anything in his line it will pay you to read it, and if in Harrisburg to give him a call. His stock is complete and he allows no one to undersell him. We can commend him to our readers as a reliable business man.

Mr. Samuel Bowman, a resident of Mechanicsburg, was rather roughly handled in Marysville, Perry county, last Thursday, whither he had gone to collect rent money from tenants. One family considered his proceedings irregular, and both husband and wife pitched into him, the latter inflicting rather murderous looking wounds upon his head with a dull hatchet. Mr. Bowman had his assailants arrested, but afterwards withdrew the accusation upon their agreeing to give security for good behavior, pay all costs and vacate the premises.—Carlisle Volunteer.

Friday the 11th was the warmest day the Thermometer registering 47°, and Saturday the 5th the coldest, the mercury sinking to 10°. There fell 1 1/4 inches of snow and 4 inches of rain. The weather was colder this March than for several years past.

Table with columns: Name, Where located, License. Lists names like Robert Wallis, E. D. Owens, J. Zortman, etc.

Fire.—On Thursday evening last a fire broke out in a house belonging to the Iron Company, on week street in Lower Duncannon, and occupied by Robert Clark, causing some damage and a great deal of excitement. The fire started in the back part of the house from a flue, burning the roof and the weatherboarding of the kitchen considerably. The two fire engines were run to the fire but before they could decide where to get water the fire was put out by the use of buckets. The house was but slightly damaged. Mr. Clark's household goods were scattered around in a way that was anything but pleasing to that gentleman.—Record of the 1st inst.

A Plucky Woman.—On Tuesday night last, burglars made several attempts to force an entrance into Yous' store, on South Carlisle street. Mr. Yous was absent in Philadelphia, which no doubt led to the attempt. After being unsuccessful at the front door, the burglars went back into the yard and tried to force the rear door, but Mrs. Yous heard them, hoisted a window and fired at them with a revolver, which apparently drove them off. In a few minutes, however, she heard them in the alley alongside the house, when she again fired, which caused the burglars to beat a hasty retreat. Mrs. Yous is satisfied that there were three of them. She says she fired to hit, but there is no evidence so far that she did so.—Greencastle Echo.

Suicide.—David Liddig, sen., residing in Watts twp., this county, committed suicide on Sunday 27th ult. His granddaughter and her husband had been to church on that day, and on their return home, found his dead body on the floor in a pool of blood. From information received it appears that the old man had gone to visit a sister (Mrs. Carl), after departure of Johnson and wife, where he met his son Benjamin and where he remained until about 3 o'clock P. M. when in company with his son started to go home, the two traveling together until near the old man's dwelling where they separated, this was the last seen of the old man alive. He must have gone to his home and commenced preparations to take his life for it is asserted by Johnson that the weapon used (a short rifle) had no load in it when he left home in the morning. The opinion of those who examined the room and the body is that having carefully loaded the weapon he seated himself in a chair and resting the butt of the weapon against the bed—near which the chair stood—he held the muzzle against his temple with one hand and touched it off with the other, the ball took an upward and backward direction coming out at the top of the head and lodging in the floor above. It is said by those who saw the body that the entire contents of the weapon must have entered his head and that the wound made by the exit of the ball was a horrid and ghastly one, portions of the skull bone being scattered about the room. "Squire Baskin assisted by Dr. B. F. Klugh, Hugh Carlin, Jesse Johnson, Sr., James Low, Nathan Dorman and Wm. Hammaker as jurors, proceeded to hold an inquest. Verdict suicide.

The Presbyterian Church Case.—Judge Junkin, on Saturday last filed in the Prothonotary's office his decision on the exceptions filed to the Master in Chancery's report. The decision on the different points is entirely too lengthy for publication, besides is of but special interest to the parties involved in the litigation. The following is the decree: DECREE OF COURT:

And now to wit, 11th April, 1881, this cause came to a hearing before the Court on the 1st March, 1881, on exceptions to the Master's report, and was argued by counsel; whereupon after due consideration, it is hereby decreed; that the office of pastor in the Presbyterian Congregation of Cedar Spring, County of Penn'a., incorporated 1st March, 1807, is vacant; that the pulpits of the two congregations of Millin and Lost Creek, comprising the Presbyterian Congregation of Cedar Spring, are vacant; and all persons are hereby enjoined not to assume the functions of pastor of said Presbyterian Congregation of Cedar Spring, in either the Millin or Lost Creek Branch thereof unless called and inducted into said office in the manner prescribed by said charter of the 1st March 1807. This decree, however, is not to be construed as prohibiting preaching by supplies, sent by Presbytery, or at the call of either of said branches.

It is further ordered that the costs of this proceeding be taxed and paid by the parties thereto in equal portions. By the Court, PER B. F. JUNKIN, Pres't Judge.

The matter is now in shape to be carried to the Supreme Court, but whether either party will do so or not seems doubtful, as both profess to be satisfied with the decree.—Democrat and Register.

If in Newport give him a call, and read his advertisement on the 8th page for particulars as to prices of his stock.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

Mr. Adam Stong, after a long and painful illness, died at his residence near Waterloo, on the 21st inst., aged 64 years, 6 months and 6 days.

The Juniata Division of the Pennsylvania canal now extends only to the Three Locks near Anderson Station Millin county.

Mr. Foreman, of the Central Hotel, Patterson, has purchased the Juniata Hotel, in this borough, for $3,000. He took possession the 1st of April.

In the suit by the supervisors of Fernmanah township against the borough authorities growing out of the repair of the basin bridge by the former, in obedience to the order of court, Judge Junkin rendered his decision on the point reserved, on Saturday, in favor of the Township, and hence the Borough authorities must now refund the cost incurred.

On last Sabbath morning, Rev. E. E. Berry, announced from the pulpit that during his five years administration as pastor of the Lutheran church, in this place and in Licking Creek, he had officiated at 105 funerals and 56 weddings.—He also announced that he had in that time taken into the church, at this place, 107 persons, and 46 persons into the Licking Creek church by certificate, confirmation and baptism. Into the two congregations, he received 153 persons.

On Tuesday last week, George McConnell, son of Mr. Daniel McConnell, of Turbett township, was thrown off a young horse near his father's residence and when found was unconscious. Dr. G. M. The cut on his lip had to be sewed up. He is able to go about and work a little. He made a narrow escape from being killed.

The following postmasters have been appointed for this county: Mf. Holly Springs—M. R. Saylor; Green Spring—P. A. Ployer.

While a young gentleman from an adjoining township was driving up North Hanover street on Saturday evening a front wheel of his buggy suddenly collapsed. With the aid of two or three men and the "small boy" he succeeded in getting the buggy to a repair shop.

The dried grass in a field at the edge of town was discovered to be on fire on Saturday evening and for a while threatened the destruction of the fences. The flames were however extinguished by a number of boys before any considerable damage was done. The fire originated by sparks from the locomotive of the evening train east.

A Grand Prize for Beauty.

Richard K. Fox, the enterprising publisher of the Police Gazette, of N. Y., announces that a magnificent gold medal will be presented to the handsomest lady in each State of the Union. The awards will be made by three citizens of New York of the highest respectability, and the successful candidates will have their photographs published without any expense, if they desire; all others will be destroyed. Here is an excellent opportunity for the pretty girls of this State, and our only regret is that the publisher did not see fit to offer the medals without boudry restrictions, as by so doing our State would in all probability capture the major portion of them. Our beauties should make no delay in sending on their portraits to the editor of the Police Gazette, 183 William St., New York, P. O. Box 40. All communications will be strictly confidential.
