

THE TIMES. Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after Monday, Jan. 17th, 1881, Passenger Trains will run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing train numbers, departure times, and destinations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburg.

Pacific Express West will stop at Duncannon at 4.30 and at Newport at 11 A. M., when flagged.

Don't Forget, if you desire to change your post office to send the old address as well as the new one.

Brief Items.

Mr. George J. Hench formerly of Blain has moved to Centre, where he will continue the mercantile business. The firm of Evinger & Hench, Blain, has been dissolved and is now Evinger & Adair, Mr. Hench having moved to Centre.

Personals—Mr. D. B. Luper formerly of this place, but recently of Selingsgrove has removed to Steelton.

Dr. Wilson, is now in this town painting the portraits of some of our citizens.

Rev. G. W. Kirafoe has removed from Shermansdale to Littlestown, Adams county.

Will Shuler formerly of this place has located at South Pueblo, Col., where he is in the tobacco business.

Mr. George M'Keef of New Washington, Crawford county, Ohio, accompanied by his wife and daughter, are guests of Mr. Wm. M'Kee, of this town.

John, son of Mr. Wilson McKee of this borough is home on a visit. He starts this week for New Mexico. John has our best wishes for his success.

Nathaniel Rush of Juniata twp., has got the western fever again, and once more has moved to Mitchell co., Kansas.

We are sorry to learn of the serious illness of the wife of Mr. Lucien D. Woodruff, at Johnstown. Mrs. W., who was from this place has many friends here.

Leg Broken.—On Wednesday last, Jacob Holman of Liverpool, in attempting to mount a horse in front of the Owens House, fell and broke his leg. This is the second time the same limb has been broken within a year. The fracture was adjusted by Dr. A. A. Muney, and the patient is doing as well as can be expected.

Of Interest to Teachers.—Dr. Higbee, the new State Superintendent of public instruction, is calling in the permanent certificates held by teachers, and will compel them to undergo a re-examination before they can take out new ones. Many of the teachers employed in this county hold such certificates from the State, which licenses the holder to teach in any part of the State. Without one a teacher can not teach outside of his own county. The examination of applicants for State certificates is very rigid, and teachers holding such certificates will likely be compelled to devote months to refreshing their memory in certain branches.—Patriot.

A Surprise.—Administrator Hines, of Greencastle, Pa., in settling up the estate of the late Jacob Smeltzen, in Bell twp., made a discovery which proves interesting. The will leaves each of his three sons a farm, and to each of his three daughters the sum of $1,000 is left. In addition to this part of his estate, was left three pots of gold and silver coin which had been buried under the hearth in the kitchen. The exact amount cannot be correctly determined, but it is supposed to be in the neighborhood of $10,000. No one even suspected that such a treasure was buried there, as the old man had never mentioned it to any one. The deceased carried a tumor weighing sixty pounds on his right leg for the last thirty years of his life.—Valley Spirit.

Highway Robbery.—Saturday afternoon last, a daring and dastardly robbery occurred in the pines, above Al. Clouser's residence, on the road to Newport cemetery. From all the information we could learn, the particulars are about as follows: Levi Steinbarger, who resides in Penn township, was in Newport, and had a sum of money amounting to about $125. While in town he ran across some old cronies, with whom he imbibed a little too freely, rendering himself unfit to take care of himself. Just before the arrival of the Mail train west, at three o'clock, on which he intended to take passage for Lewistown, one of his friends "took him a walk" to the location above mentioned, where they were met by three others. While in a semi-unconscious condition, from the effects of drink, Levi says he was robbed of his money. Persons who saw the party say they could recognize them, and it is to be hoped that Levi will make information, and have the punishment meted out, as deserved. A highway robbery to be perpetrated in or near our town, and left go unpunished, is not a very good recommendation to the peace of Newport.—Newport Ledger.

Garden Seeds.—We have this season had seeds put up especially for our trade, from those fresh grown. We can warrant them to be true to name and good.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

Sunday morning, April 3, Mr. Wm. Bentz, of Mt. Holly Springs, whilst sitting at the breakfast-table, was seized with sickness, and expired shortly after. The cause of his death was dropsy of the heart.

A Lower Allen township school teacher, named Miller, returning from Mechanicsburg to his home on Thursday night, was stopped by a party who asked him to let him ride with him; and, after getting into the buggy, drew a revolver and told Miller he had been to Mechanicsburg and got some money, and he wanted it. Miller grasped for the revolver and the robber shot, the ball passing through the fleshy part of Miller's hand. The robber then went through Miller and took about $125.

On Sunday last the large barn belonging to Mr. Amos Miller, in Middlesex twp., near what is known as the Ridge, was totally destroyed by fire, together with its contents, except the stock and a covered wagon. A number of children were playing in the wagon-shed, which was attached to the barn, when they built a fire, the flames from which communicated to some cornfodder on the loft, and from thence to the barn, and in a short time both structures were enveloped in flames. It was with difficulty that the stock was rescued. This will be a heavy loss to Mr. Miller, as there was no insurance on the property.—Volunteer.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

Jacob Leedy, aged 80 years, died at his home in Lack twp., on the 29th ult. Insurance $100,000.

Recently George, a son of Daniel McConnell, of Turbet twp., was thrown from a horse, sustaining an ugly gash on his lip and another on his forehead.

Henry Titzell, of Lack township, while on his way home from Millintown took sick and was compelled to stop at a house in Spruce Hill township where he died.

Bealetown has had a fire. A stone dwelling in the narrows owned by Mr. Wm. Van Sweringen was seen to be ablaze about half-past eight o'clock on Tuesday evening. The roof was on fire, and every other step had been tried off the stairs. It was put out as supposed and the party of helpers returned. In the morning however it was all burnt out from cellar to garret. It was unoccupied.

A sad accident, which resulted in the death of a young lady occurred in Monroe township, on Sunday last. The facts as we can learn them are about as follows: A Miss Cloifelter was going up stairs and took with her to put away a coat belonging to her brother. She attempted to hang it up it slipped from the hook and fell upon the floor. In one of the pockets was an old fashioned single barreled pistol, with cock and cap, and in the fall the cock struck the floor, exploding the cap, which discharged the pistol, sending its contents, two buckshot, into her chest, near the region of the heart. She lived about an hour after the accident. Will our young men heed the lesson and quit carrying fire arms.—Tribune.

On Tuesday night of last week the Lutheran Parsonage and Shields' hotel at McAlisterville were entered by burglars. Two gallons of gin, a tin bucket full of ale and ten pounds of beef were taken from the hotel. The Parsonage was entered by prying open a shutter. The thieves entered the room that Rev. Copenhaver and wife occupied. His wife heard them and awakened Mr. Copenhaver, who jumped from his bed, and the robbers fled. On examining the house Mr. Copenhaver found that they had been in every room, had turned things upside down generally, and had taken some clothing and other articles in a basket which he found setting on the porch—the thieves in their hurry to get away leaving the basket behind. Mr. Copenhaver's hat was taken, but he got it the next day hanging on a fence.

Mammoth Pearl Potatoes. I have a lot of this excellent variety of potatoes—a seedling of the Victor—raised from seed purchased of A. C. Ashald, of the original stock, which I will sell at $1.25 per bushel, 65 cents half bushel, 35 cents per peck, and 20 cents half peck. This potato is free from rot, never hollow, skin and flesh pure, pearly white. Eyes few and even with the surface. Ripens in August, and yields better than any other variety I have ever raised.

A CARD.

A new enterprise has been started in Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county, by J. W. Ringrose & Co., and that is the making of a new style of Leather Fly Nets. These nets are said to be a great improvement over any style yet made, while the price they will be sold at, is no greater than is asked for the poorer article. Store keepers, before supplying themselves should see these nets and learn prices, and farmers should ask the merchant with whom they deal to get at least a sample to show them. For price list, etc., address J. W. RINGROSE & Co., Mechanicsburg, Pa., or KENNEDY, WILLING & Co., 100 and 102 North 3rd Street, Philadelphia. 51f.

A NEW WRINKLE.

Wheat grists exchanged on sight or ground in a few hours. We have no low water now since tapping the Pennsylvania canal. We have the only Smith purifier in the county, and allow no one to make better flour. We pay five cents advance on market rates for Mediterranean or Lancaster flour. We also sell Pillsbury's XXXX flour on commission, which is the best in the world.

Oh, Parents! who with tender love, Has wept beside dear Mary's grave, Hast thou not sought a friend above, Who died thy little one to save?

Then lift thy weary, weeping eye Above the waves that round thee swell, Is not thy darling safe high? Can't thou not whisper all is well.

Yes, it is well, though never more Her little form to earth be given, She rests where sin and grief are o'er, And thou canst meet thy child in heaven.
