MRS. LYDIA E. PINKHAM. OF LYNN, MASS.

DISCOVERER OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

The Positive Cure For all Female Complaints.

This preparation, as its name signifies, consists of Vegetable Properties that are harmless to the most delicate invalid. Upon one trial the merits of this Compound will be recognized, as relief is immediate; and when its use is continued, in ninety-nine cases in a hundred, a permanent cure is effected, as thousands will testify. On account of its purity and safety, it is to-day recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country.

It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhoea, irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the young of life. It will disperse and expel humors from the system at an early stage of development. The tendency to cancerous humors there is checked very speedily by its use.

In fact it has proved to be the greatest and best remedy that has ever been discovered. It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new blood and vigor. It removes fatness, flatulency, distension, all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach.

It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Irritability. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

For Kidney Complaints of either sex this compound is unsurpassed.

If Ar-kan-sas, is Arkansaw then sas-sa-fras, is sassafras.

We would rather hire a mule than to own one, on the principle, "Of two evils choose the leased."

A dull clergyman said to the boys in the gallery, "don't make so much noise, for you will wake your parents below."

A Rose. A blind man having a shrew for his wife, was told that she was a rose. I doubt it not, replied he for I feel the thorns daily.

"How did you find your uncle, Johnny?" "In apple-pie order."

"How's that?" "Tart and crusty."

"Why, Polly," said her mother, "what a time you've been. Where's the cotton I sent you for?" Polly (who has lost the money): "You shouldn't send little things like me to buy totten."

Don't blame the rooster for bragging over every egg that is laid in the family. Only human nature, nothing more. You remember when that bouncing boy arrived at your house it wasn't the wife who went about doing the crowing.

"My case is just here," said a citizen to a lawyer the other day "The plaintiff will swear that I hit him. I will swear that I did not.—Now, what can you lawyers make out of that if we go to trial?" "Five dollars apiece," was the prompt reply.

During a country ramble Brown fell into a mud puddle and fearfully muddled his clothes. Jones, his companion, was trying by means of a casual stick to rid Brown of some of the thickest of it, when a passing countryman inquired: "Say, yeou, what'r yeou doin'?" "My friend, I am simply scraping an acquaintance," said Jones in his blandest tones.

A witty old American judge, who had spent an evening with a young lawyer in the country whose office was on the second floor, on taking his departure stumbled on the stairs and fell to the bottom. The young lawyer hearing the noise rushed out, and seeing the judge lying at the bottom of the stairs, hastened down and with great anxiety asked, "is your honor hurt?" "No," said the judge, scrambling to his feet, "but my legs are."

His Money's Worth. A stranger from Brenham, who is helping Galveston out in the Mardi Grass business, took his watch to a watchmaker to have it repaired. After a few minutes' work on it the watchmaker handed it back with the remark that the damages were five dollars.—"What was the matter with it?" asked the stranger. "There was a hair in it."

"Was that all? You ought to have found a hair mattress in it for five dollars."

The Darkey's Repentance. Last Saturday night some sinner stole two chickens from the coop of Rev. Amidab Bledso, of the Galveston Colored Blue-Light Tabernacle, and the next day the Reverend gentleman preached a most powerful sermon against the sin of stealing chickens and promising everlasting punishment to the man who stole his two chickens. Early Monday morning Jim Webster called at the parson's door with a scared face and some poultry. He said: "Parson Bledso, dat ar sermon most scared me to death. I couldn't sleep a wink, so I fatched your chickens back."

"I dont keef for all the fowls, Jeems, but it pleases me mightily to know dat I am an humble instrument in de hans ob de Almighty to bring sinners to repentance and to cause dem to lead a new life. But, look heah, Jeems, dese chickens aint de same ones yer stole from me."

"I knows it. Your chickens am done eat up, but your sermon opened my eyes to der sinfulness ob stealin' your chickens, and I felt so bad about it dat the fust thing I did when church was out was to climb ober into Colonel Jones' yard and cablage two ob his fattest pullets to replace the chickens you missed."—Galveston News.
