Brief Items.

The canal is now open and boatmen are consequently happy.

A number of cases of measles are reported at the Indian school in Carlisle. So far the cases are mild.

If it was as hard to "settle" coffee as it is to get some men to settle, most per-sons would drink water or whisky.

The Philomathean Literary Society will meet in the Academy Hall on Fri-day evening at 7 o'clock. The public are invited.

The change in the Judicial districts, puts Juniata county into the 20th dis-trict with Snyder and Union, and puts Huntingdon with Perry as the 41st district.

On Monday a tramp in jumping from a train at Thompsontown, had a leg broken. He was taken to Harrisburg where his injuries were attended to.

Jacob a son of Isaac Zerby was badly bruised a few days since by falling off a car which he was helping to load and falling heavily on the stone ballast. The accident happened at Millerstown.

The Juniata county papers last week said that Henry Titzell took sick and died while on his way to town. The only error they made was that it was the horse and not the man that died.

David Geib, Post G. A. R., at Marys-ville, will hold a fair and festival at that place on the 18th, 19th and 20th of May, to which all who feel like assisting the new Post are invited.

On Friday a week while Philip Peters was hulling clover seed the belt came off he wheel, increasing the speed so great as to cause the balance wheel to break into pieces but fortunately the pieces injured no person though they flew around lively.

In some portions of the County many of the horses are sick. In Rye twp., the disease seems to be particularly bad. The sickness resembles what used to be called the distemper, the neck swelling up and the swelling finally opens and discharges.

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. M. G. Einstein, Harrisburg, Pa. It is as his "ad." says the largest Dry Goods House in Central Pennsylvania. His stock is such that he can in variety and styles please all who give him a call while his prices are sure to please. Give him a call if in Harrisburg and if not send to him for samples and prices. A young man named Daniel Garman A young man named Daniel Garman was drowned at Duncans Island on Tuesday last. The young man was em-ployed on a canal boat and by the stretching of the line was thrown into the water, striking his head so as to stun him thus preventing him from seizing the rope which was thrown to him by the Captain of the boat. The captain being unable to swim was not able to go to his relief and before other help came it was too late. The body help came it was too late. The body was sent to his home at Rupert in this state.

Beware .- All persons are cautioned to beware of insurance policies that are offered throughout the county on the life of Susannah Foose, of Spring twp. They have been obtained by fraud and will be protested by the friends and relatives.

Professional Certificates.-At the teachers examination held at Duncannon, April 16, 1881, the following persons received Professional Certificates:

Laura Gibson, of Spring Twp. D. W. Dunkleberger, "" Ida M. Stewart, of Penn C. O. Smith,

Geo. R. Barnett, of Bloomfield Boro.

Fire .- On Thursday the 7th inst., the house of J. R. Roads, in Rye twp., took fire in the upper part. The furniture on the upper floor was all burned and the household articles on the lower floor were badly damaged by their hasty removal. The fire was extinguished before very much damage was done to the building.

Found Dead. - On Friday last Dr. Warner, of Duncannon, died in his carriage while on his way home from Allen's Cove where he had just visited a patient. His buggy was found standing in the road by Mr. Ell Coup, who requested the doctor to move and let him pass. As no attention was paid to his request, Mr. Coup went up and shook the buggy, and then began to think something was wrong and called to Mr. White who was near. He came and they then examined the doctor and found he was dead. An inquest was held by 'Squire Chisholm and the verdict rendered was the deceased came to his death from enlargement of the heart.

Riot at Chambersburg .- On Wednesday last the iron ore miners employed by the Mt. Alto Iron Company, to the number of two hundred, went out on a strike for shorter time and higher wages. After holding a meeting the strikers proceeded to the ore mines of C. Burkhart & Co., and persuaded their miners to join in the strike. The rioters, thus reinforced, then proceeded to Smith, Duncan & Avery's ore mine. The men employed by this firm refusing to go out on the strike, the strikers assaulted the men and compelled them by force to quit work. A threatening letter was then written and sent to Colonel Weistling. Colonel Weistling at once proceeded to Chambersburg on a special train, and raising a posse returned to Mt. Alto and succeeded in arresting Gouder and Snavely, the two ring leaders, and had them placed in jail last night. This morning Smith, Duncan & Avery's is the only bank running, but the rioters openly avow their intention to proceed to this bank and compell the men to stop work. They also threaten to stop the cars of Mt. Alto railroad and retard all business until their demands are acceded to.

Highest and Lowest Prices.-From a circular issued by D. H. Denton & Co., Chicago., we get some interesting facts regarding the highest and lowest figures at which produce has been sold in that market during the last twenty-three years.

Hood, a young bdy of great personal attractions, was sitting conversing in her father's parlor with a lady friend, when a young man came up behind them and suddenly jerked the chair from beneath her. In attempting to save herself, Miss Hood injured her spinal column so severely that she went into convulsions. The doctor gave his opinion that if her injuries did not prove fatal her mind would be deranged from the effects. the effects.

Mr. Ashwell, living on the farm of Mr. Duncan, on the Big Spring turnpike met with a painful accident on Tuesday last, the particulars of which are as follows: While Mr. Charles Myers was driving up the Big Spring turnpike in a wagon, having thereon a new plow, the horse became unmanageable, and in some way the lines dropped from Mr. M's hands, and the horse started to run. Mr. Ashwell saw the horse coming at full speed, and as the horse rushed by he grabbed the lines, which were trailing on the ground, bringing him to such a sudden stop as to throw the horse off his feet, and swung Mr. A., against the point of the plow, piercing him clear through the calf of his leg, making a very painful wound.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week :

On Monday of last week Jonathan Kanagy, a nine year old son of David Kanagy, of Turbett twp., fell off the overhead of his father's barn and in falling struck on a straw carrier, twirling him around and breaking his right arm at the shoulder joint. The fracture was reduced by Dr. A. W. Sheiley and the boy is doing well.

Mr. E. Darwin Crawford, of Mifflin-town, brother-in-law of W. C. Pomeroy, Esq., has been appointed to a clerkship in the Port Royal Branch Bank, and has entered upon the discharge of his duties.

On Saturday, Boyd, a five-year-old son of R. E. Parker, had his forehead badly cut by a flying stone coming in contact with it. The wound required surgical attention.

On last Thursday afternoon the roof on the house of Mr. George Hower, residing in Fermanagh township, took fire from a spark out of the chimney, it is supposed. Many neighbors gathered and put the fire out, but not till the roof was seriously damaged.

We find on visiting Dives, Pomeroy and Stewart in Harrisburg that their prices are very low for small articles for ladies and gents wear. They have a gents white shirt for 25 cts. Full ready-made British Socks at 12; cts and so forth, not to mention more than a ladies how at 5 at seminade weath 101 at hose at 5 cts seemingly worth 121 cts.

A CARD.

A new enterprize has been started in Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county, by J. W. Ringross & Co., and that is the making of a new style of Leather Fly Nets. These nets are said to be a great improvement over any style yet made, while the price they will be sold at, is no greater than is asked for the poorer article. Store keepers, before supplying themselves should see these nets and learn prices, and farmers should ask the merchant with whom they deal to get at least a sample to show them. For price list, etc., address J. W. RINGROSE & Co., Mechanicsburg, Pa., or KENNE-DY, WILLING & Co., 100 and 102 North 3rd Street, Philadelphia. 5tf. A new enterprize has been started in

Plant Beautiful Roses.

Spring has come again, and while all lovers of flowers are making up their lists of plants and vhes and other pretty things to be put in the ground as soon as it is warm enough, we wish to speak a word for Beantifel Roses. Plant as many other flowers as possible, but on't forget to plant a bed of choice Ever-blooming Roses. They exceed all other flowers in beauty and fragrance, and the choicest vari-eties are now within the means of all. Among the many Floral Catalogues now issued, we the many Floral Catalogues now issued, we know of none more entitled to confidence than the "New Guide to Rose Culture," published the "New Guide to Rose Culture," published by the Dingee & Conrad Company, Rose Grow-ers, West Grove, Chester county, Pa. It is finely illustrated, describes over 500 varieties of roses, and tells all about their culture and treatment. It is sent free on application. The Dingee & Conard Company have fifty large houses devoted to roses alone, and are the most extensive growers of roses in this country. They send roses asfely by mail, postpaid, to all post offices in this United States, and can al-ways be depended on for reliable plants at reasonable prices. They have a national reputation for prompt and liberal dealing, and are said to give away more than fifty thousand roses a year in promiums to their customers.

The Revised New Testament.

An American edition of this long looked for work is announced by the enterprising and reliable house of HUBBARD BROTHERS, of Philadelphia. It is an exact re-production of the English Edition, and from the well known character of the house, accuracy and a really excellent book may confidently be expected. A special attraction of this edition we learn, is A special attraction of this edition we learn, is that it will contain a complete History of the whole Revision Movement, the reasons for it, the errors of the old version, the plan of the work, with sketches of the distinguished men engaged in it, dc. The English edition will not contain this, and certainly every one will want to know all about it. As the price of this edition, containing beth the Testament and History, is placed extremely low, it seems certain to become desirable edition issued, at a positively low price. positively low price.
