CONKLING, after his resignation, apprised that the people generally also resigned, and he has about come to stay resigned.

B. J. WILSON, of Rushville, Indiana, was training a $1,000 trotter a short time since, when the animal reared up, fell back and broke his neck.

THE negro's definition of bigotry is as good and inclusive as that of Webster's dictionary. "A bigot," said he, "is a man who knows too much for his own good and not quite enough for two."

A SHORT temperance lecture is embodied in the following item: The New York Herald says that four-fifths of the bodies that reach the morgue in that city for recognition are sent there by whiskey.

On the 1st of June the new temperance law went into effect in Nebraska. It requires that there shall be no screens, shades, blinds, no curtains, no lace at all between the public and the mill.

Monday afternoon of last week, a car on the N. Y. division of the P. R. ran into an open switch near Trenton, N. J., and three cars left the track, turning over. Two persons were injured and quite a number were injured, having since died.

Chicago & North Western R. R., adopted the plan of furnishing its splendid dining room cars, dinners of the style of the best hotels, bill of fare that would do credit to Continental. Price for meals, five cents. Persons not desiring can be furnished tea, coffee or delicacies at special rates.

Miscellaneous News Items.

During a heavy thunder-storm at Pittsfield, Mass., on Monday, Henry Klossman, a teamster at the depot, was struck by lightning and killed.

A little girl in Elysian, Le Sueur county, Minn., went out to see the pigs, the other morning and playfully thrust her arm between the boards.

A vagabond who insulted a couple of ladies in Minneapolis, the other evening, met his just deserts. One of the ladies armed herself with a slipper suddenly taken from her foot, and with it belted the fellow over the face and mouth until the blood ran.

During a severe thunder-storm at Salem, Mass., on Monday evening, the lightning struck the house of John Colbert. His son Frank was killed and two other children were knocked senseless.

Lightning singled out a $5,000 stallion to kill at Bloomington, Ill., leaving eleven comparatively valueless horses uninjured. The owner, who had been an earnest christian, resigned his church membership, and resumed a long neglected habit of profanity, declaring that Providence was against him anyhow.

BALTIMORE, May 30.—Adolphus C. Schaefer, jr., a prominent cotton broker of this city, was found dead in his house today. He left his office on Monday last, and not returning, his clerks supposed he had gone to the country where his family were to spend the summer.

The boiler of the steam saw mill of Myers, Burt & Drawbaugh, in Clay township, Huntingdon county, exploded on Monday morning, instantly killing Emanuel Horton and fatally injuring Isaac Cornelius and Andrew Shore.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1, 1881. The interest here in the Albany contest was intensified yesterday by the reports of the balloting in the two branches of the Legislature. In view of the claims of the stalwarts regarding Conkling's strength, much surprise was manifested at the small vote he actually received.

President Garfield and several of his Cabinet officers will, if no unforeseen event prevents do some little traveling this summer.—On the 10th instant, in company with friends, he will go to Annapolis and attend the annual ball at the Naval Academy.

Mrs. Garfield has been entirely free from fever since Sunday, and is now considered convalescent.

A member of the Investigating committee in the Treasury Building was asked last evening as to its progress. He replied with a shrug and a laugh that implied that the report of the investigation was far in the future.

D. MICKLEY, Secretary. Statistics so far as reported to the Secretary: No. of schools, 74; No. of officers and teachers, 753; No. of scholars, 5495; average attendance, 4275; open the whole year, 49, and all use the International Lesson Leaf.

ELLIOTTSBURG, Pa., May 25, 1881. At a ministerial convention of the Evangelical Association held in Salem Church, Fishing Creek Valley, this county, May 26, 1881, the following preamble and resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, as speculative life insurance traffic and crabs is raging upon many of our charges and people are falling into temptation and snares; and we deem it necessary that this convention give expression on this point. Therefore, Resolved, That we regard this ghoulish traffic as one of the most dangerous evils of the present day, and earnestly request all people, if they value their honor, the favor of God, and a hope of heaven to abstain from this nefarious business.

An Interesting Book.

In a small illustrated book of sixty-three pages, entitled "Genius Rewarded; or, The Story of the Sewing Machine," Colonel E. H. Ropes relates the discovery and invention of the "first practically successful sewing machine," by Isaac Merritt Singer, in the year 1850, and the growth and extent of the business now carried on by the Singer Manufacturing Company.

Well Worth its Price.

THE ILLUSTRATED SCIENTIFIC NEWS has again reached our editorial table, and right glad we are to welcome the June number which is unusually full of handsome engravings and interesting and valuable reading matter.

Tribute of Respect.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in His all-wise providence, to remove from our midst two of our esteemed citizens, J. W. WORMLEY and J. W. WEHLEY, both in the prime of life. Therefore be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved families, and be published in our country papers.
