The citizens of Marysville had quite a turn-out, on Decoration day. A programme of the proceedings was printed for the guidance of those participating. We are indebted to Mr. G. W. Eppley for a copy.

A terrific thunder storm passed over part of Lebanon county on Tuesday af-ternoon last. John Sarge, a brickmaker, while working in a field with five others near Jonestown was struck by lightwing and instantly killed. He leaves a wife and five children.

Duncannon had quite a demonstration on Decoration day. An oration was delivered by Judge Junkin, and a procession was formed which visited the cemeteries and decorated the graves of the dead soldiers. Millerstown and Marysville also held the day in remembrance with appropriate services.

Twenty eight Carrier pigeons belong-ing to Newark, N. J. were liberated at 7 A. M. from the express office at Newport on Monday last. The first one reached its home in Newark in three and a half hours. The distance is about 160 miles. All the birds arrived home but some did not reach there till

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, during the prevalence of the "thunder shower" from the east, the barn of James S. Cox, of Greenwood township, Juni-ata county, was struck with lightning and destroyed. A horse in the barn was killed by the same stroke of lightning, and a number of agricultural imple-ments in the building were destroyed by

On Thursday morning of last week, Jos. Orner, engineer at the Glamorgan furnace, Lewistown, while in the act of jumping from an ascending cage, was caught between the side of the cage and caught between the side of the cage and the timbers, receiving very serious injuries. His nose was split its entire length and flattened out, his right shoulder blade broken and his collar bone broken. He also received several severe cuts on the head.—Ledger.

A number of our exchanges state "that a law has been passed paying the teachers $2.50 per day while attending institute." The Legislature passes some strange laws but have not yet got quite demented enough to pass such an act. The law only compells the directors to allow them the time while attending, and the same pay as though teaching.

Dr. Fuget of Carroll twp., had a little unpleasant experience last week. While driving from Marysville he overtook Daniel Powers who was driving a three mule team. As he was passing, the mules took fright and started to run.—The doctor seeing he could not get by, reached out and grasped the rein of the lead mule attempting to stop it. For a time matters looked like a general break up, but happily good pluck won, and up, but happily good pluck won, and the team was stopped before any dam-ige was done. The trouble was caused by the team driver being on his wagon instead of on his lead mule.

Mr. William Burn of this place, accompanied by his wife, left for Iowa on Tuesday of last week. If pleased with the location, they propose to remove there next spring.

Send to Frank Siddall, 718 Callowhill Street Philadelaphia, for a copy of his treatise on soap. It is free and will give you much information that will be of value to the ladies. Or if you prefer it get a bar of his soap and try it. It is for sale by dealers everywhere, or should be.

Weather Report. - B. M'Intire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for May, 1881: Average of Thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 59°53', and of Barometer, 30 inches minus 5-tenths. Average of greatest heat, 690 35', and of greatest cold, 53"6'. Saturday the 14th was the warmest day, the Thermometer registering 87°, and Sunday the 1st, the coldest the mercury sinking to 34°. There fell 2 and 3-tenths inches of rain, and this was only in very small quantities at a time, and therefore the ground was generally dry.

Fatal Fall.-On Monday of last week Mr. Adam Small of Centre twp., fell down the steps at his mill, injuring himself so badly that he died in a few hours. At the time of the accident no person was with him, but a few minutes afterward Mr. Wm. Klinepeter went in and heard him groaning. Mr. Isaiah Foose was called and Mr. S. was helped to the house, but the shock to his system was so great that he could not rally. He was only partly conscious from the time he fell till he died. Mr. Small was in the 77th year of his age. It was only eighteen days previous that he had lost his wife, so that their separation here was but very short.

Got Scared .- An old farmer in Jackson township, this county, has for several years already been suspected of having a large sum of money stowed away in his house somewhere-believed to be about $2,000. A few weeks ago he came to town and deposited his money in the First National Bank. He had become uneasy, and said he wanted everybody know that he no longer kept his money about his premises. But instead of $2, 000, he had over $4,000; and instead of having had his morey stowed away in his house, he had it for a long trace at ready concealed in his hog pen where the mice got at it and the danger of keeping so much money about, finally induced him to put it in bank .- Selinsgrove Times.

Sudden Beath.-The sudden death of Mr. Wm. S. Mitchell on Monday of last week was quite a shock to his many friends. At the time of his death he was holding the shore line of the fish net at the shad fishery, being in the water up to his knees, when he suddenly fell forward on his face. Those with him at once hastened to take him to the shore but death had claimed him and all efforts to resuscitate him were of no avail. Mr. Mitchell was well and favorably known throughout the county. A telegraphic notice of the above sad occurrence was in only a portion of our edition last week, as we had gone to press before the dispatch was received from Newport.

Very Queer. - A correspondent of the Gettysburg Star & Sentinel is responsible for this story : A strange incident occurred in the mountains near this place a short time ago. Mr. Wm. Eyster was cutting down a tree, which in falling broke in two, throwing out four small squirrels, which were in a hollow branch. Mr. E. picked them up, when the mother squirrel came to him so closely that he placed his hand on her. On laying the young ones down they were carried one by one by the mother away to another tree and deposited in one of the hollow branches. After carrying off the last one she returned and walked about near the men who were with Mr. E. They, believing by her action that there was another, began searching and found it. Giving it to the mother squirrel she carried that one away, but did not return. Mr. E. vouched for the truth of this and can corroborate it by those present.

Meeting of Classis. - This ecclesiastic body comprising the churches of York, Adams, Cumberland and Perry counties, convenes in the Reformed Church of Bloomfield on Thursday the 9th inst., at 71 P. M., when the opening sermon will be preached by the President, Rev. A. Spangler of York, and a new organization affected. It has 34 ministers on its roll, including a missionary in Tokio, Japan, and several disabled heroes of the faith. Its confirmed and unconfirmed membership amounts to 16,352, comprised in 27 charges, composed of 80 congregations and 96 Sunday Schools. At least 30 ministers and 27 elders may be expected to attend the present meeting, as but one full meeting is held during the year. Some students and visitors will also be present. V During the sessions, continuing over Sunday, there will be divine service every evening, and on Saturday at 2 P. M. On Sunday at 10+ A. M. the Lord's supper will be administered; at 3 P. M., S. S. scholars' meeting, and in the evening either a sermon or appropriate addresses may be expected. Also such other services as may be requested or Classis appoint.

The business sessions will likely open at 8} A. M. and at 2 P. M., and are open to all who may wish to attend. No complete programme can be published In advance as it must first have the approval of Classis.

JOHN KRETZING. Pastor Loci.

Juniata County .- We copy the follow ing from the Juniata county papers of last week :

Jerome A. Stewart, of Beale twp., lost a valuable mare on Tuesday by colic.

Howard, son of David Beale, living near Bealetown, this county, met with a very serious if not fatal accident last while helping to unload a saw-log at his father's saw-mill. He fell, and a heavy piece of scantling fell on his head and shoulder. He is lying in a very critical condition.

On Saturday last Mr. Charles Linthurst, of this place, while at work on a telegraph pole on the N. C. R. W., near Bridgeport, fell a distance of 30 feet sustaining rather severe injuries.—While no bones were broken he is badly stoved up and will be obliged to lay off some time to come. The accident was caused by the pole on which he was at work breaking off near the ground.—
We congratulate him on escaping with his life.—Port Powel Times his life.-Port Royal Times.

Jacob Beidler's bees took to swarming on Sunday. Two swarms concluded to leave about one and the same time.— Samuel Rollman came to the assistance of Mr. Beidler, and by the arts known to the bee cultivator the swarms were kept from getting off the property, but the management could not keep the two bees from getting into one box. Two swarms in one box never do, and this case was no exception. The bees fell to fighting each other, and the fiercest struggle has been going on ever since.—
The dead and wounded are being dragged out of the box as fast as they are put out of fighting order. The probability is that both swarms will be destroyed before the struggle comes to an end. Mr. Rollman was stung about a dozen times. On Monday another hive swarmed; that one was successfully bind. hived,-Sentinel.

Frank Sleber, a youth aged about 16 years, only son of Solomon Sieber, living in Fermanagh twp., was wounded in the right hand on Decoration day by a pissor shot. He had loaned a sevenby a pishi shot. If a had loaned a sevenshooter to the hired man, with hastructions to put the pistol back in his trunk.
The pistol was returned in due course of time. The lad had occasion to go to the trunk on Monday for something, and by some unaccountable way the pistol was discharged while the boy was handling some clothing. The bullet entered the palm of the right hand, and lodget near the back of the hand. Dr. Crawford, assisted by Dr. Banks, rendered ford, assisted by Dg. Banks, rendered the surgical operation that the case re-quired. The bullet was taken out and the hand is doing as well as can be ex-

On Saturday evening of week before last, during the prevalence of the thunder storm, the lightning struck a hog pen on the premises of Mr. Jackson P. Ritzman, in Turbett twp., killing several chickens and splintering a post near by to atoms. Mr. Ritzman's wife was ironing at the time and had the door of her house open when was facing, where her house open whch was facing where the lightning struck, and so great was the shock that Mrs. Ritzman was rendered unconscious, and remained in that state for some time. On recover-ing she found the hot iron, with which she had been ironing, lying against the back of her hand and had burned it severely. As soon as Mrs. R. was able she went to the house of a neighbor and told what had happened her. Dr. G. M. Graham was sent for and adminstered to the medical wants of the unfortunate lady. It is thought that the hot fron proved instrumental in restoring Mrs. Ritzman to consciousness. - Times.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

During the thunder storm last week the lightning struck A. J. Oyler's large brick dwelling house, near Green Spring. Entering at the roof it run through several rooms of the house, burning the wood work in several places black, but did not set the building on fire.—Enter-

Mrs. Rhinehart, wife of Harry Rhine-Mrs. Rhinehart, whe of Harry Rhinehart of the Third ward, died on Sunday morning, after an illness of a few hours. She had been complaining of inflammatory rheumatism—and that with an attack of pneumonia, was the immediate cause of death. She leaves a husband and seven children to mourn her death.

Mr. Benjamin Miller, a poor, hard-working laborer in the lime kilns at Bowmansdale, was so seriously injured on Wednesday of last week, by the run-ning away of a cart horse, that death ensued shortly after the accident. This misfortune is most distressing to his family, while the community sadly lament the sudden taking off of a good neighbor and friend.

Sneak thieves have been doing a thriving business in Hogestown. On Monday night of last week the store of Loose & Bro., was entered and robbed of four kits of fish, a lot of sugar, coffee, soap and other articles desirable for household. use. The finger of suspicion is pointed at some parties in Mechanicsburg, and there seems to be a plausible reason for it, that will probably be developed in a

One night last week several Cumber-land county officers arrested James P.
Long and wife, residing at Kissecker's mill, on a charge of crueity to children, and took them to Carlisle and lodged them in jail. Long came to this neigh-borhood from Cumberland county only last April. It appears that one of his children is missing, which he claims is in the Franklin county almshouse, but on inquiry at that institution no such child had ever been there. Pending a trial, Long has re-leased the mill to Mr. Kissecker. Kissecker.
