SEWING MACHINE.

Best in the World.

The manufacturers of the SPRINGFIELD are aware that, in order to meet the critical and economical demands of the times, the machine must possess a combination of mechanical excellences, making it superior to any of its predecessors, and at the same time be offered at a price that will place it within the means of all.

Fully realizing the force of these conditions, they offer the Springfield, confident that it will fallfill every requirement that can be expected of a first-class family and manufacturing machine. Every Machine is warranted perfect in construction. In case any of the parts prove defective, when machine is used for family purposes, within five years from date of purchase, the manufacturers will replace such defective part without charge. This does not apply to needles shuttles, or bobbins. Made by

Give the wicked Bernhardt a wide berth !" cries an exchange. For what? She can get along with a narrow one. Give the wide one to David 1881 resembles a pair of lovers on the sofa when the parlor door opens because there is one at each end. And when the door shuts they again resemble 1881, because there are two of a kind in the middle.

An aged negro was recently showing the scars of the wounds afflicted by the lash when he was a slave. "What a picture" exclaimed a sympathizing looker on. "Yes, responded the colored brother, "dat's de work ob de old masters."

"You wouldn't believe it," remarked Bliffers, who had just returned from "Yoorup," "but I tell you it is a fact. There are plenty of little shavers in Paris, not more than three or four years old, who speak French!" And Bliffers wondered why so little surprise was manifested at his remark.

Some people are very hard to convince. "Why, I thought you were dead," said a gentleman to a neighbor.-"Well, you see the report was false," was the rejoinder.

"I don't know about that," continued the man of obstinacy. "The perwho told me never yet deceived me, and I can't say as much for you."

Problem for a Milkman,

If twenty-seven inches of snow gives three inches of water, how much milk will a given cow yield, when fed on turnips?

KEY-Multiply the number of snowflakes by the number of bairs on the cow's tail, divide the product by the juice of a dry turnip, add to quotient the sum by the hydrant.

At the mechanical school : " Now John, did you ever see a saw?" "Yes sir, I've saw a saw." "What saw was it you saw, John ?" "It was a see saw, sir." "A sea saucer? Why, John, what do you mean ?" "I mean a seasaw, sir." "And when did you see the sea ?" "Oh, sir, I didn't see the sea, I saw the saw, sir." "But if you only saw the saw, how saw you the saucer ?" "Why, sir, I never saw the saucer, I saw the see saw, sir-see?"

"Well my boy, if that's the way you see saws the less saws you see the better. You may take your seat."

There is a man in Galveston named Joseph W. McClellan, who is everlastingly talking without saying anything. The other day Gilhooly met him. "I say Mac, do you know why you remlad me of a river?" thought there was a compliment in store for him, and guessed that it was because something sparkling came out of his mouth all the time. "Not quite," responded Gilhooly, "you remind me of a river, because your mouth is bigger then your head."

At a social gathering the other day, on the sidewalk of Galveston avenue the respective merits of Pete Freer and Bill Hoefling as conversationalists was discussed. Ed. Braden, who was present, contended that, while Bill Hoefling had the most beautiful flow of language, Pete Freer used the best grammar, and more of it and was the best looking man of the two "That may be," responded Gilhooly, who was present, "but I had rather listen to Bill Hoefling keep his mouth shut for half an hour than to hear Pete Freer talk all day."

Then the caucus went into executive sessions over in George Horner's saloon.

The doctor arrives at the hospital to make his daily visit of inspection and receives the ticket of a new patient, which reads, "X, musician in German band; pulmonary consumption."

He proceeds to the patient's bedside, surrounded by his admiring class. "Well, my good fellow, you spit blood, don't you ?"

"Yes, doctor; I"-"That'll do; we know all about it. And you have cold sweats at night, eh?" "Yes, sir, and"-

"Sh! I fancy now that by occupation your are a musician ?" 'Yes, I play" "Be silent! You belong to a brass band and you have over-exerted yourself-have fairly blown your lungs away puffing into your instruments. Gentlemen, your perceive that sickness has no secrets for science. What instrument do you play, my good man?" " The cymbals, sir!"
