

THE TIMES.

Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after Monday, May 14th, 1881, Passenger Trains will run as follows.

Table with columns for Westward and Eastward routes, listing stations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburg.

Brief Items.

John Finicle of Rye twp., had one of his feet badly crushed by a log rolling on it a few days ago.

Mr. John Black of Oliver twp., has a colt that is only two years and twenty-two days old that weighs 1,322 pounds.

Charles Gamber, of Duncannon while working at the shears in the rolling mill on Tuesday night, had his thumb badly mashed.

The horse of the rope walkers who visited this town a few weeks since, ran away at Huntingdon and broke a leg for the woman.

Mr. John Richie, of Centre twp., fell and struck his knee-cap, on Monday last, laming himself so badly that he was laid up several days.

An adjourned meeting of the Carlisle Presbytery will convene in Duncannon to day, when Rev. J. W. Gillard will be installed as pastor of the church in that place.

The Sunday School of the Church of God will hold a Picnic in Kirkpatrick's Grove, on the road leading from Duncannon to Bloomfield, on Saturday the 18th inst.

Abram Kell, J. B. Hench and John Kitzer of Ellitsburg have already bought a large number of cows this summer, and are shipping them to the eastern markets.

The insurance bill which was so bitterly fought by the speculators was defeated finally for lack of one vote. We don't see the name of the member from Perry recorded as voting on either side.

That two thousand dollars of bribery money, Speaker Sharpe has in his possession he has no right to keep neither can it be returned to Bradley. Let him send it on here as a subscription towards a railroad between Newport and Bloomfield.

We are pleased to learn that Capt. D. Mickey of this borough, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the M. E. Church, at Walnut Grove, this county. The Captain will put up a good job. Contract price, $875 00.

Newport has awakened to the fact that in order to keep up with Bloomfield in improvements it will be necessary to have street lamps. Their town council have therefore taken the requisite steps to have them erected.

The bridge at Seidel's Forge at Marysville has been damaged so that it is impassible. This is the bridge that connects that end of this county with Cumberland. The damage was caused by the high water moving the abutment.

It is supposed the Newport "safe burglary," was committed by the same party who a few nights previous burglarized a safe for Graybill Brothers, at Millersburg. A party of suspicious fellows that had crossed the river were seen near Mt. Patrick.

For many years Mr. B. McIntire of this place has kept a record of the weather, and the amount of rain and snow that falls. The greatest rain that he ever recorded was on Thursday morning last when over two inches of water fell within four hours. During the twenty-four hours nearly four inches fell.

Mr. Jacob Mickey had the misfortune to back his horse and wagon over the hill in the rear of the Falling Spring Furnace on Saturday. The horse fell back into the wagon breaking the top in and otherwise damaging it. The animal was uninjured.—Franklin Repository.

A summer kitchen belonging to I. C. Stewart, McCoyville, Juniata county, took fire on Friday a week and was burned. By hard work the flames were kept from the other buildings. Defective stove pipe arrangement was the cause of the trouble.

Charles Corman, of Shermansdale, came near losing his life last week from excessive bleeding at the nose. Dr. P. J. Sheeder was called who plugged the posterior nostrils, which is an operation of considerable difficulty. The operation was very successful, and in the performance Charles yoked considerably.

Jacob Long residing at East Newport was found dead on the R. R., track a short distance below that town on Saturday morning. He had left home to go to work and was probably struck by some train. Coroner Sittes held an inquest and a verdict was rendered in accordance with the above facts. The deceased was man over 60 years of age. He leaves a wife but no children.

The high water of Thursday carried off the trestle and some of the planks from the Mifflin bridge, and that with the other debris that came down carried off some of the trestle from the Newport bridge. The work there however, is so far advanced that it will cause but little delay and the loss will be only what the timber was worth.

On Wednesday night some thieves entered the summer kitchen of Mr. Samuel Dunkelberger, in Spring twp., and stole a lot of flour, coffee etc., and then went to the cellar from whence they took a two-bushel bag of flour and a crock of sausage. Spring and Carroll twps., seem to be badly troubled with chaps who fail to keep the eighth commandment.

A few days ago a Polish mother added one to the list of passengers when near Haley Station. At Cove Forge warm water was taken into the car for bathing purposes when to the astonishment of the train men it was learned that the baby had been washed with ice water from the tank. The party continued their travels and left Altoona in good spirits.

A few days ago Mrs. Amanda White, who has been spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Abrams, in this place left for her home in the west. When she reached Omaha, she was shocked to find that her husband was in the hospital suffering with a smashed leg, which injury was received while she was on her way to him. Mr. White was well known in this county and particularly in Penn twp., where he formerly lived, and the friends of both him and his wife will extend their sympathies to the young couple. Mr. W. is engaged in railroad and his injury was received in a wreck.

We are glad to learn that Charles M. Waggoner a graduate of the Freeman, office in this place has prospered as is indicated by the following extract from the Colorado Springs Gazette.

"Messrs. John J. Cassidy and Charles M. Waggoner, both of whom have been connected with the Gazette composing room for several years, started recently by private conveyance for the Gunnison country. They go with the intention of establishing a paper in some one of the prosperous mining districts of the Gunnison country, and they have already purchased the necessary material for the undertaking. Both Mr. Waggoner and Mr. Cassidy will be found to be perfect gentlemen and practical printers."

Personal.—E. A. K. Hackett, Esq., formerly of this place, now proprietor of the Sentinel, Fort Wayne, Ind., is in town visiting his relatives. He is accompanied by his wife.

Wesley F. Morrison, of Duncannon, has gone to Cincinnati, where he has secured a situation as conductor of a Pullman car running south.

Found Drowned.—On the morning of the 6th inst., the body of a man who proved to be a boatman named Warren Low; was found in the canal lock near Mt. Patrick. The body was taken out and an inquest was held by S. E. Buck Esq. and the verdict was that the deceased had come to his death by accidental drowning. He was knocked into the canal by the tow-line. He was a stranger, and without money or friends and the boat Captain said he had no wages due him, and did not know where he belonged.

Delinquent Subscribers.—An Altoona man was sued the other day by a Chicago publisher, for six years' subscription. The delinquent subscriber neglected to notify the publisher to discontinue the paper and therefore made himself liable under the newspaper law. He paid the amount. It would have been better for him to have saved trouble and expense by notifying the publisher when he wanted the paper discontinued rather than to have the paper to come on year after year, the publisher not knowing whether he is living or dead. Some subscribers seem to forget that an editor is not omniscient. If they want to let him know that they want his paper, they should remit the amount of subscription promptly. If they don't want the paper, send notice to that effect or have the postmaster do so.

Burglary in Newport.—On Friday night burglars entered the warehouse of Jones Bros., in Newport, and attempted to rob the safe. They drilled a hole in the top and the charge of powder they put in, blew the outer safe door to pieces, and badly damaged the inner door.—It is not known whether they succeeded in getting the money out or not. They may have had that door open and shut it again, breaking off the knob and destroying the combination. The noise of the explosion had been deadened by placing wet blankets on the safe and piling bags of clover seed around it. Still the explosion was heard by several parties. In a boat lying by the warehouse a man was sleeping, who was awakened, but they had taken the precaution to fasten him in, so he could not get out to give the alarm. The combination to the inner door is so badly damaged that the safe will have to be sent to the manufacturers before the books or contents can be got at, or it will be known whether the money is there or not.

A Queer Case.—Now Mr. Wm. Fry of Mexico, Juniata county, tells his experience in Philadelphia lately. When he got there he felt unwell. Stopped at the St. Elmo on Arch street. Ate neither supper nor breakfast next morning. Started for Market street, and at corner of 4th or 5th streets met two men who seemed to walk up against him, and has a faint recollection that they took a hold of his arms, one on each side seeming to support him. Became unconscious. At times became aroused and thinks he was in a hospital, but does not recollect anything distinctly. His first real consciousness developed the fact that he was on a sleeping car west of Newport, Perry county, and had been aroused and told he was to get off at Mifflintown Station, and did so.—Hired a private conveyance to take him home. Was robbed of a revolver, a Masonic pin, and between $700 and $800.—Selinsgrove Times.

Tax Collectors Appointed.—The following persons were selected by the County Commissioners as tax collectors for State and County Taxes for the year 1881:

Blain, Wilson D. Messimer; Bloomfield, John T. Messimer; Buffalo, T. P., Samuel E. Bucks; Carroll, Benj. F. Hall; Duncannon, Nathan Vanfossen; Greenwood, Jonathan Wert; Howe, H. H. Horting; Jackson, William A. Stambaugh; Juniata, William Arnold; Landisburg, John Bitner; Liverpool, B., Jacob Shumaker; Liverpool, T. P., William S. Spicher; Madison, A. D. Lightner; Marysville, Jacob Kipple; Miller, Henry Reeder; Millerstown, Wm. Kipp; New Buffalo, N. C. Heyd; Newport, Wm. Yohn; Oliver, Daniel Smith; Penn, John G. Rose; Saville, Thomas McCoy; Spring, Samuel Spotts; Toboynne, Peter G. Belglier; Tuscarora, M. S. Fosselman; Tyrone, Samuel R. Lightner; Watts, Isaac Huggins; Centre, Wm. Garlin; Rye, W. W. Sheaffer; Wheatfield, J. C. Meck.

A Lucky Escape.—On Monday of last week David Gring had a run off that ended in a remarkable lucky escape for him and his brother Charley. While coming up the Narrows and when near the half way cabin, he met George McKee leading a cow. The mare David was driving, scared and made a sudden start for the cleared land. The jump was so unexpected that the driver was thrown out and of course let go the lines. Charley was still in the buggy but with no means to stop the frightened animal which made a circle through the stumps and brush and returned to the road, going towards Newport at full speed. Charley finally jumped out without getting hurt and the mare kept on till she reached Everhart's barn, where she ran under the shed and stopped, breaking only one spoke. On the way she passed one team in safety, but in passing another four horse wagon, the animals started to run and kept up their speed till reaching the bridge at the foot of the Narrows when they went so close to the edge that a blind wheel here was thrown over and nearly used up before the team stopped.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week:

Carlisle has the worst pavements of any town in the State. We say this gravely, fully conscious of a proper reverence for the Borough Dads.—Volunteer.

Last week the smoke houses of E. G. Eyster, J. Hoveter and Wm. Nevin, in Newton township, were entered by thieves and robbed of a large quantity of bacon.

On Monday night a week John Plank the popular young grocer of Boiling Springs, was returning from Gettysburg, where he had been to witness the decoration ceremonies. At Hunter's Run, by reason of the darkness, he collided with a team going in the opposite direction, and was spilled into the creek. John escaped without serious injuries, but the lady was severely hurt.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week:

On Thursday of last week a cow while grazing along the river bank, in front of the residence of Mr. Jas. McCachren, fell and broke her neck. The color of the cow is black, with a white star in her forehead and brass knobs on her horns. No doubt some person is wondering what has become of their cow.

One day last week a young child of Mr. Christian Neff, of Turbett twp., while playing near an open well, with a neighbor's child, fell in. The cries of its companion brought the mother, Mrs. Neff, to the rescue. Without thinking of the danger to which she was exposing herself, and risking her life to rescue her child, Mrs. N. jumped into the well, which was about twelve feet deep, and seized the drowning child in time to save its life. The water in the well was nearly five feet deep, but the mother hesitated not to make the dangerous leap, knowing that a moment's delay would cost the child's life. The neighbors were summoned and a ladder was let down into the well and the mother ascended it with the child in her arms.—Port Royal Times.

Jeff Adams, who was confined in the county jail since February last, and who was convicted of horse stealing at the April term of court but granted a new trial, broke jail on Thursday night. He dug his way through the ceiling of his cell onto the attic, from thence to the roof through a trap-door, and letting himself to the ground by means of a blanket torn into strips. A fellow prisoner went as far as the roof with him and then turned back. Nothing has since been heard of the escaped prisoner.

A Mexico correspondent of the Democrat & Register, says: On last Tuesday morning, the 31st ult., as Samuel Hetrick was on his way from this place to his father's farm he noticed something in the canal which reminded a child, and upon investigation found it so to be.—Samuel then returned to Mexico and gave the information to his father, Mr. William Hetrick. Samuel was then sent to inform Squire W. H. Lukens, who, upon receiving the word repaired to the place where the child was. A jury was summoned consisting of William Hetrick, John Thompson, Robert Crozier, Andrew McBurney, David Roush, and Jerome Hack, who examined the body. The child had on a long light dress and a square, and a blanket around it. The child appeared to be considerably bruised about the head as though it had been foully dealt with before drowning, and its age apparently from two to five months. The jury rendered a verdict according to the above facts.

Court Proceedings.—At the Common Pleas Court held on Tuesday last the following business was transacted:

A new trial was refused in the case of U. B. Mutual Aid Society vs. Mary J. Helsey, and in the same vs. J. H. G. Kister.

Francis J. Smedley vs. Mary J. Smedley. Libellant's counsel asked leave to discontinue proceedings.

W. D. Kopsederfer vs. Eli Grubb. An appeal from the docket of H. L. Croll, Esq. The Justice was sustained.

The account of W. H. Hemperly, as assignee of John Hemperly, confirmed, but the charges of the assignee reduced from $150 to $125, by the Court.

The report of Peter Stroup, assignee of Geo. L. Ickes, presented by Geo. W. Stroup, administrator, etc., of Peter Stroup, confirmed.

The account of Geo. W. Kell, assignee of Jacob Kistler, confirmed.

The account of F. B. Clouser, assignee of Samuel S. Clouser, confirmed.

The account of Wm. Bower, assignee of David M. Hohenschildt, confirmed, and Wm. Selbert appointed Auditor to distribute balance in hands of assignee.

The account of Hon. C. H. Smiley and Hon. Wm. Grier, assignees of J. L. Luper, referred to C. A. Barnett, Esq., to audit and pass upon the exceptions filed to the account.

Report of J. C. McAllister, auditor of the assigned estate of David C. Miller, confirmed nisi.

Petition of Joseph Hamaker, assignee of Samuel K. Leedy, for a rule upon creditors, showing cause why he should not be discharged, granted.

Petition of the President and Secretary of the Board of School Directors of Buffalo twp., asking for viewers, granted, and D. E. Stephens, John Friesland and Jacob Bretz were appointed viewers. This was a case in which the land decided upon by the Board could not be bought from the assignee of J. C. McGinnis, and these viewers were appointed to appraise said tract.

A citation was awarded Mary A. Snyder upon Jacob Bixler, compelling him to file an account as said assignee.

Rule granted upon the creditors of said assignor, Jacob L. Kistler, to appear on first Monday in August, and show cause, if any they have, why the assignee should not be discharged.

A decree of divorce was granted in the case of Geo. M. Bradford vs. Elizabeth Bradford.

The petition of Jonathan Koenig, committee of Margaret Zitterly, for an order of sale, was granted upon said committee, and to file two bonds, one in the sum of $1,000, for faithful performance of duty, and one in sum of $3,000, for faithful application of funds, etc.

Petition of assignee of J. C. McGinnis, to have confirmation of sale vacated, set aside, etc., confirmed.

In the Orphans' Court a large number of accounts were passed upon, and the Court then adjourned till June 25th.

New Germantown Items.

DEAR SIR: Thinking a few items of the doings in Toboynne twp., would interest your readers I will try for the first time in my life to send you some of the doings in the way of building.

Jacob Clouser has built an end to his barn. Geo. Segar on the Major Baker property built a new house last summer and is putting up a new barn this summer. J. H. Briner has put an end to his stable, and S. A. Gutshall a new house and stable. Contractors for these buildings are Messrs. Daniel and Israel Weibley.

J. R. Sanderson has raised the frame of a large bank barn on his farm, Mr. Harlan, contractor. J. E. Rumble, formerly merchant in New Germantown, built himself a new house on his farm at Centre school house.

All kinds of crops are making a splendid appearance since the late rains. Speculative Life Insurance, one of the curses of the year 1881, appears to be dying out in this neck of timber.

TOTOYNE.

FOR THE TIMES. From Western Indiana.

MEDARYVILLE, Ind., June 1st, 1881.

MR. EDITOR:—Having the opportunity of reading your valuable paper the past winter, I thought I would tell the people of Perry county through its columns, something about the western part of the Hoosier State. I have just returned home from a very pleasant visit in Perry county, and other parts of eastern Pennsylvania. I spent five months there this last winter. Your hills and mountains were quite a curiosity for a Western boy to look at. The scenery along the Penn'a R. R., was grand, and people of Pennsylvania have a right to be proud of that road. We cannot compete with it in the West, as we have not the material to build a railroad as you have there. Taking everything into consideration I liked the East pretty well, but not well enough to make it my home. As there are better chances for a young man to save money in the West, I think the West is the place for me. Business is on the boom here; every one is striving to help himself. Farmers have their spring crops all started to grow nicely. Winter wheat is not very good, will make but little over a half crop the country over. Corn and oats look well so far. The month of May has been the warmest known for many years, and very dry. Plenty of stock is suffering for want of water. Wheat is worth $1.00 per bushel; corn, 50 cents; oats, 35 cents, and potatoes $1.00. Hogs are worth 4 1/2 to 5 cents per pound; cattle are in good demand, the highest they have been for years. To all my young friends in Perry, those of you who can leave, had better take Greeley's advice and go West. We have plenty of room for you. Give me the West. AUSTIN.

"Will You Teach this Summer?"—Yes, 7 weeks! Term opens July 11th. Teachers and Students will find what they need at the "S. S. S." Deduction to boarders absent part of the week. Number limited. J. L. McCaskey.
