Brief Items.

The Rumbergers, convicted of the murder of Daniel Troutman, have been granted a new trial.

A report of the meeting of Classis will be found on the 3d page. For the article in type, we return thanks to The Advocate

A Methodist Campmeeting will be held in Groff's woods, 2 miles west of Bloomfield, commencing August 5th, and continuing one week.

It looks as if Chambersburg will have an electric light to illumine her streets instead of gas. So we are informed by the Opinion.

Mr. W. H. Kendig, of Saville twp., has set up his steam saw mill on the land of A. & I. Reid in Tuscarora twp., Juniata county.

A horse and buggy crossed the Juniata river at Newport, on the new bridge on Friday last. The bridge can now be crossed by light vehicles.

A part of the Mifflintown bridge trestle lodged at Millerstown and will be saved to the contractors. Some pieces were also found at Duncannon and Marysville.

All practicing physicians, under a law passed at last session of the Legislature are compelled to register at the office of the Prothonotary in the county in which they reside.

A bank Cashier of great experience says he never knew but two clergymen who were good business men. Now we suppose every minister will think he is one of the two referred to.

An act has been passed and approved by the Governor, making it a misdemeanor for any person to sell deadly weapons, gun powder or explosive substance to any one under the age of sixteen years. The fine is $300.

On Friday a week a thirteen year old daughter of Daniel Hull residing in Hamilton twp., Franklin Co., was gored to death by a bull, while trying to sepa-rate some cattle that were in the barnyard fighting.

We noticed Crist Smith moving around on crutches last week and learn that he is forced to this style of locomotion owing to a severe cut on his foot receiv-ed while chopping wood on the farm of Q. M. Rinesmith.

The members of the Perry county Bar met on Monday night of last week to form a Bar Association. They elected as officers: Wm. N. Seibert, President; J. C. M'Allister; Vice President; F. Maust, Secretary, and, E. R. Sponsler, Treasurer Treasurer.

We go to press several hours earlier this week as the editor starts Monday morning to Long Branch, at which place the State Editorial Association has its annual gathering. This will account for omission of one or two articles which came in too late.

have been afflicted with disease for some weeks past. On Saturday last, Dr. F. Burgess, the Asst. State Veterinary Sur-geon, visited the farm, and pronounced the disease pleuro-pneumonia. One was killed and examination proved that the dreaded disease did indeed exist. Meas-ures was taken to show it out out. ures were taken to stamp it out and prevent its further spread.

The present rate of insurance as-The present rate of insurance as-sessments if kept up another year, would drain this county so as to par-alyze business, and make plenty of work for the Sheriff. Persons let many legitimate bills go unpaid to keep pol-icies alive, and many are not only spending their income in such a manner, but are borrowing, hoping that the death of some fellow creature will soon help them remay the loan. help them repay the loan.

Dr. Harry Stites, though having a good practice in Newport, has yielded to the solicitations of friends in the West, and will remove to that part of the country. Wherever the doctor may country. Wherever the doctor may decide to locate, they will gain a worthy citizen and a good physician. Though a young man, Dr. Stites had considera-ble experience, and is an ex-president of the Perry Co., Medical Association. His young in the black of the second state of the second state black. many friends wish him success in his new location.

A horse belonging to Adam Withrow created a little excitement in town on Wednesday. The animal was fied in front of Seibert's law office, by a strap around his nose, when the strap slipped down till it cut off his wind. The animal though able to live on short allow. ance of oats, objected to any reduction of his wind rations. He accordingly expressed his disapprobation by rearing up and falling over backwards causing a broken shaft and damaged harness.

Demorest's Magazine for July came to hand early this month. This number has a choice selection of readable articles, good stories, valuable receipts, interest-ing suggestions for the ladies, and several very handsome illustrations. The publisher evidently is determined to keep up the reputation that "Demor-ests" now has of being the finest ladies' Magazine published in this country. We can heartily recommend this month-ly to our lady friends. Published by W.

JENNINGS DEMOREST, New York, at $3.00 per year. only to the many friends of Miss Fos-selman, but to the legal fraternity. No exactly similar case could be found on record.

Steel plow points for double and single shovel plows can be had of F. Mortimer.

Personal.—Mr. Geo. Hackett, brother of J. B. Hackett, Esq., is here enjoying a short visit. George drove up a nice pair of horses from Harrisburg.

The widow of Mr. B. F. Clegg we noticed in town last week on a visit.— She is at present residing in Altoona. She is looking remarkably well.

- Mrs. Wilson Failor, a former resident of this borough, now of Harrisburg, is visiting friends in this community.

Mrs. Lewis Haver, daughter of Mr. John Shearer of Centre twp., has been here on a visit. She will shortly leave for her home in Lyons Co., Kansas.

A Singular Act .- On Sunday night some party or parties entered the store of J. B. Miller, in this place, by prying also up by this time, called to her husband that there comes another, upon which the thief drew his revolver and shot at Mrs. Eppler, the ball missing her and going through the window near where she was standing, and lodged in the inside wall of the house. When this occurred Mr. Eppler was placed in an awkward fix, as he could not follow both parties, and being in his barefeet could not get after them to advantage and they made their escape. It is a great pity that Mr. E. did not succeed in filling the scamps with shot.

Cumberland County .- We copy the following from the Cumberland papers of last week :

Some drowned animals were washed down the creek, among which was a white sow.

L. H. Orris lost a considerable quan-tity of newly made worm fence by the flood.—Newville Star.

James Sharp's milk wagon was con-siderably demoralized last week. The flood was too high to permit crossing the creek and the cows were wandering about.

William Sanderson, of Newville, was severely kicked on the upper part of his leg by a horse last week. The bone of, his leg is cracked and will necessitate the necessitate the use of crutches.

Charles Lynch, of Boiling Springs, while chopping wood in the mountain, inflicted a serious wound in his foot. The cut is about five inches long, almost severing the foot. Dr. Gray attended to his injuries and he will doubtless be laid up for several weeks.

Wm. Keeseman, of Hopewell, while engaged in the mountain making rails was bitten in the arm by some kind of snake, either a rattlesnake or a viper. His condition is dangerous, the swelling extending to his body. He is under the care of Dr. Hartzell.

One day last week as William Noble was crossing a stream near the South Mountain, his team got into too deep water, the stream being swollen by the heavy rains. The spring wagon floated and the horse forced to swim. The traces tore, the steed thus set at liberty reached shore. Mr. Noble clung to the wagon which finally lodged against a flood gate, where he subsequently se-cured it by a chain until the water should fall. No further loss was sustained than that of his shoes and the prob-able damages to the wagon.

A year-and-a-half old child of Richard McCartney, got a nail about two and a half inches in length into its throat last week. Its mother made every effort to extract it, the end just being visible below its palate. But her endeavors seemed futile, the nail only slipping further down as the reward of her pains until as a desperate dornier reasort she held the child with its head down and struck it justily on the back. The nail then dropped from Annie's mouth, and she is now as well as ever. This is the same child that got a button up its nose some time since.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week :

McNair Wilson is crecting a large new barn on his farm near Doyles Mills. One day last week Mr. John K. Evans

The Cyclopedia War.

The Cyclopedia War and the Literary Revo-lition are working wonderful and happy re-sults for the readers of books, and searchers after knowledge. The great "Library of Uni-versal Knowledge," Is announced to he com-pleted, ready for delivery to purchasers, the early part of July. It is probably the largest and most important library work this country and the century have seen. It is based upon Chambers' Encyclopedia, the last London edi-tion of which is reprinted entire as a portion of the contents, a large corps of American editors and writers adding thereto, a vast amount of formation upon about 15,000 subjects in every department of buman knowledge. Cham-ber's Encyclopedia, whose dislinguished merit is universally known, is the laborious product on the ripest British and European scholarship, but being a work of fordign preduction is the best of American readers. In this new form the theorem works which have pro-ded h, containing about 10 per cent, more matter than Appieton's Encyclopedia, at less and one-full its cost, and 20 per cent, more base of file to be the solar and the move of the states of any similar works which have pro-ded h, containing about 10 per cent, more atter than Appieton's Encyclopedia, at less and one-full its cost, and 20 per cent, more base of file its cost. The superiative value and importance of this great Encyclopedia, however, lies especially in the fact that it is brought within the reach of Reak Locyclopena, however, hes especially in the fact that it is brought within the reach of every one who aspires after knowledge and culture. It is really a library of universal knowledge. It brings a liberal education easily within the reach of every plow-boy. Every farmer and every mechanic owes it to himself and to his children that such a cyclo-pedia shall henceforward form a part of the outfit of his home. To the intelligent man in every walk of life a Cyclopedia is indispensa-ble. It is issued in various styles, in 15 large beautiful octavo volumes, varying in price from $15 for the edition in cloth, to $35 for the edition in full ibrary sheep binding. Liberal discounts even from these extraordinary prices are allowed to clubs, and the publishers, bedides, propose during the next two months to distribute $10,000 cash in special rewards to persons who forward clubs of five, ten, or more subscribers. The American Book Exchange, subscribers. The American Book Exchange, 764 Broadway, New York, are the publishers, who will send sample pages and full particulars free on request.

Peterson's Magazine.

Peterson's Magazine for July is on our table, ahead of all others, as usual. We have so often spoken of this lady's book, as the cheap-est and best, that all we can do now is to reitorate that opinion. The present number is peculiarly rich in embellishments. The steel plate, "The First Train," is one of those charming illustrations, never seen except in "Peterson." The colored steel fashion plate is a gem, as "beautiful as a dream," as a lady at our elbow says. There is a profusely illus-trated article on "Ancient and Modern Gar-dens," and a pretily illustrated love story, by Agnes Jamas, "Paste and Diamond." In this number, we have the first chapters of a histor-ical novelet, "The News From Yorktown," which is also illustrated, and which is particu-larly appropriate, as this is the Yorktown "Centennial Year." Every lady ought to be a subscriber for this magazine. The terms are Peterson's Magazine for July is on our table, "Centennial Year." Every lady ought to be a subscriber for this magazine. The terms are but two dollars a year, with great reductions to clubs, and handsome premiums to the per-son getting up the club. Now is the time to subscribe. A new volume begins with the July number, but back numbers, to January inclusive, can always be supplied, if wished. Specimens are sent, gratis, if written for, to persons wishing to get up cluba. Killed .- Our citizens were very much startled on Monday by the report that Mr. Michael Hanstine and son, former vesidents of this place, but now of Frederick city, Md., had been killed whilst at work in a well. Upon inquiry the sad news proved only too true. From what we could learn Mr. H. and son had been engaged in cleaning out a well, at the above place, and when both were on the platform it gave way and precipitated them to the bottom, from the effect of which they died shortly after. They were well-known pump makes of this place and for many years were residents of Waynesboro. Mr. H. leaves behind him two sons in this place .--Waynesboro Gazette:

Burglary at Marysville,-On the morning of the 13th inst., at about 3 o'clock, the alarm connecting the shoe store of H. J. Eppler with his dwelling, which is located on the opposite side of Main street, went off. Mr. Eppler sprang from his bed, and on looking across the street to his store saw two men coming out of the door. He hastily got hold of his double-barreled gun, and in his night clothes rushed out into the street to give them the contents of his gun, but the rascals heard him coming, and made down the street as fast as possible. Mr. Eppler discharged his gun after them. One man fell to the street, but jumped up again and took to his heels, both making their escape. While this was going on a third man came out of the store, and Mrs Eppler, who was was so unfortunate as to get one of his fingers smashed while engaged in raising stone on a clearing of his father's.

The campmeeting to be held at Waterloo, this county, under the auspices of the Concord charge, M. E. Church, will commence Sept. 1st, and continue ten days.

We are glad to learn that Mr. Howard Beale, of Tuscarora twp., is again able to be about and recovering from the severe hurt he received a few weeks ago, while helping to unload from a wagon a large saw log.

A correspondent of the Port Royal Times says: The miller, Mr. L. L. Leon-ard, it is reported, will leave Peru this If such should prove to be the fall. case, we hope his place may be filled by one who will prove as good and accom-modating as Mr. L. is.

Mrs. Mary Cleaver, of near Doyles Mills, had her stable blown down by a storm last winter, and a number of her neighbors turned out recently and put a new one up for her. Mrs. Cleaver is a widow lady and lives by herself, and this kind act of her neighbors shows that that community is composed of the right material.

The difficulty existing in the M. E. Church of this place for the past eighteen months has been amicably settled, and on Sabbath last the Lord's supper was administered to a large number. The ceremonies were impressive, and the sight sublime to tehold the brethren once more meeting together in peace and love. May it ever be so with them. -Democrat and Register.

Although the late flood has produced losses to the extent of thousands of dollars in different places, and especially to lumbermen on the rivers, we hear that Dr. G. M. Graham has been exceedingly fortunate in getting a large quantity of lumber to his mill on Lick-He was on the ground ing Creek. ing Creek. He was on the ground himself for our days last week superin-tending the work in person, and not only on the ground but in the water. With a full force of competent hands he has run into the dam at the old Miller tan factory about 300,000 feet of lumber, which will give quite a stimulus to that neighborhood, furnishing work and money to a number of men for months to come.
