When is a man in two places,? When he is away in a strange country and homesick at the same time.

When that young man out west hugged his best girl to death, was it not a dead-lock?

Wheat is "threshed" for the purpose of getting out the grain; a boy is threshed" to get out the chaff.

A student at Oxford University on being asked, "Who was Esau?" replied: "Esau was a man who wrote fables, and sold his copyright for a mess of potash."

When a Leadville man is elected deacon of a church he isn't considered to do the polite thing if he doesn't invite the vestry out to liquor.—Boston Post.

A youth was heard to remark to a fat Teutonian: "Hav'n't I seen you before? Your face looks familiar." "Is dot so?" said Hans. "When you get as old as me your face will look familiar, too."

Mr. Seldom Ever was married last week to Miss Joy. The friends of the victims were shocked when the daily press called her 'a thing of beauty,' because she was 'a Joy for Ever.'

A Galveston darkey, called at a lawyer's office the other day, and said he wanted a divorce. "Is your wife unfaithful?" asked the lawyer. "That's jest bit. Two months ago I tole her to put out a clean shirt for me to put on, and she ain't done it yit."

Mr. John Fortune, of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, recently became the father of twin girls. When he first looked upon the newcomers he smiled a sort of ghastly smile and remarked: "Well, I suppose it's all right, for it is said Miss Fortunes never come singly."

Squire's daughter: "What is this we hear about your father and mother quarrelling so, Peggy?" "They've each had a little money left 'm, miss, and I think feyther he wants the lot. Anyways, they can't agree nohow whether her money is his'n, or his hern, or his his'n and hers hern."

Fair Play Out West.

They give a man a chance out West. In Deadwood, Custer, or any of those new Western towns the spirit of fair play crops to the surface even in judicial proceedings. In March last a Michigan man who keeps an eating-house at Gunnison, was over-particular about taking a counterfeit half-dollar, and in the row which resulted he was considerably battered. He therefor called upon the Justice of the Peace and stated his case and asked for a warrant.

"I guess I wouldn't make a fuss over it," replied the official.

"But he meant to kill me."

"Yes, I presume so, but he'll leave town and that will end it."

"But he's a dangerous man."

"Yes, they say so; but no one is afraid of him."

"Judge, do you know what he said about you when I told him I'd have him arrested?"

"No."

"Well, he said you were a blamed grasshopper eater."

"Yes, but he didn't mean it."

"And he called you a reptile."

"Well, he was mad, I suppose."

"Yes, and he was mad when he said you didn't know enough to write your own name, and therefore couldn't issue a warrant?"

"Did he say that?"

"He did."

"Then I'll issue on him like a ten ton avalanche on a yaller mule! The man who sneezes at my latin' must have a contempt for the judiciary."

The warrant was issued, the party arrested and tried, and the verdict of the court was:

"Gunnison William, the verdict of the court is that you are guilty, and the sentence is a fine of $35 in cash. This court can't get over the fact that you willified its mental calibre. It is also aware of the fact that you haven't got a red to pay your fine with. Now, then, if you will meet this court back of this building on the level, it will either get away with you in six and a half minutes or remit the fine. I want to prove it to the citizens of Gunnison that in electing me to the judiciary they have cast their votes for a man who can spit on his hand in six different languages and get away with a hog pen full of roughs without having an ear scratched. Prisoner at the bar, have you anything to say?"

The prisoner decided to go to jail.
