THE SPRINGFIELD SEWING MACHINE. Best in the World.

The manufacturers of the SPRINGFIELD are aware that, in order to meet the critical and economical demands of the times, the machine must possess a combination of mechanical excellence, making it superior to any of its predecessors, and at the same time be offered at a price that will place it within the means of all. Fully realizing the force of these conditions, they offer the Springfield, confident that it will fulfill every requirement that can be expected of a first-class family and manufacturing machine. Every Machine is warranted perfect in construction. In case any of the parts prove defective, when machine is used for family purposes, within five years from date of purchase, the manufacturer will replace such defective part without charge. This does not apply to needles, shuttles, or bobbins. Made by THE SPRINGFIELD Sewing Machine Company, 13 6m SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

A basket of onions will not hold water, because it is full of leaks.

"When will there be only twenty-five letters in the alphabet?" asked a bachelor teacher. "When U and I R made 1," answered a young lady pupil.

Schoolmaster to new scholar: "Now, my boy, be industrious. Remember, what you have once learnt nobody can take away from you." New boy: "Yes, sir; but it'll be just the same if I don't learn anything at all. I'd like to know what anybody could take from me then!"

Political Ingratitude.

"I tell you what it is," said Guffey, a San Francisco ward politician, hammering on the bar in a terrible rage, "if this sort of thing keeps on, the party won't have the shadow of a show next election, mark my words."

"Wot's the matter now?" yawned the barkeeper.

"Why, after all I've done for the gang, and after shinning around the City Hall for two months, waiting for my 'posish,' what yer suppose they've done to me?"

"Dunno; left you out in the cold, mebbe."

"Worse than that. After promising positively that I should have a berth in the Assessor's office, they actually gave me a 'posish' where I'll have to work!" And the bystanders shuddered with sympathy, as the betrayed and outraged victim of political ingratitude swallowed his four fingers of rye, with his face like a graveyard.

Josh Billings Experience.

Yes, I have finally cum to the conclusion that lager beer is a harmless temperance beverage, and at least is not intoxicating. In proof of this I have been told by a German who said he drunk it all nite long, just to try the experiment, and was after all obliged to go to bed entirely sober in the morning. I have seen this same man drink eighteen or twenty glasses, and if he was drunk it was in German, and nobody could understand it.

It is proper enuff to state that this man kept a lager beer saloon, and so he could have no object in stating what was not strictly true. I believe him to the full extent of my ability.

I never drank but three glasses of lager in my life, and that made my head outwist as tho it was hung on the end of a string, but I was told it was owing to my bile being out of place; and I guess that it was so, for I never biled over was than I did when I got home that nite. My wife tho I was going to die, and I was afraid I shouldn't, for it seemed as tho everything I had eaten in my life was coming to the surface; and if my wife hadn't pulled off my boots just as she did, I believe that they would have cum thundering up too. That was 14 years ago.

O, how sick I wus! I can taste it now.

I never had so much experience in so short a time in all my life.

If any man shud tell me that lager beer was not intoxicating, I might believe him; but if he should tell me that my stummick was not out of order, I should ask him to state over a few words just how a man felt and acted when it was.

I wasn't drunk that nite, but I had some of the most natural sinitums that a man ever had and kept sober.

In the first place it was about 80 rods from where I drank the beer to mi house, and I was over two hours on the road home, and a hole busted through each one of my pantaloons neez, and didn't hav on any hat, and tried to open the door by the bell pull and hiccupped awfully and saw everthin' in the room trying to get round on the backside of me, and, sitting down on a chair I did not wait long enough for it to get exactly under me, when it wuz going round, and I set down a leetle too soon and so missed the chair about twelve inches, and couldn't get up soon enough to take the next one that came along. My wife sed I wuz as drunk as a beast awl that nite, and, az I sed before, I began to spin up things freely till I finally got on one of the beds as it came round and slept it off. If lager beer is not intoxicating it used me almighty mean, that I know. Still I hardly think that lager beer is intoxicating, for I have been told so; and I am probably the only man living who ever drank eny when his liver was not plumb.

I don't want to say anything against a harmless temperance beverage, but if ever I drink eny more, it will be with mi hands tied behind and mi mouth priet open.
