they offer the Springfield, confident that it will fulfill every requirement that can be expected of when machine is used for family purposes, within five years from date of purchase, the manufacturer

Practice Patent Law in all its branches in the Patent Office, and in the Supreme and Circuit Courts of the United States. Pamphlet sent free on receipt of stamp for postage.It is called a poke bonnet because it is necessary for a young man to poke his face inside to kiss the wearer.A Massachusetts woman was recently buried at the age of one hundred.
This might be termed a century plant.Chang, the Chinese giant, is not lazy, perhaps, but he lies longer in bed than any other man in this country.A three year old child discovered the neighbor's hens in the yard scratching. In a most indignant tone she reported to her mother that Mrs. Smith's hens were "wiping their feet on our grass."The editor of the Hackensack Republican went to call on his girl, when he saw on the front steps a sign which said, "Beware of paint." He went away sighing, "I never before knew that she painted."A Georgia editor says: "Gold is found in thirty-six counties in this state, silver in three, copper in thirteen, iron in forty-three, diamonds in twenty-six, whiskey in all of them, and the last gets away with all the rest."Unconscious profanity sometimes comes to the most exemplary Christian.
A real good brother said recently, "I must get me a copy of the new Bible.
I hear the revisers have knocked hell out of it.""Ah, brethren," said a speaker in an ecclesiastical body in North Carolina discussing the question of dancing, "I mightily fear that if we authoritatively permit the square dance that some people may soon pinch off the corners and make it a round dance."In a class of little girls at school, the question was asked:

"What is a fort?"

"A place to put men in," was the ready reply."What is a fortress, then?" asked the teacher.This seemed a puzzle, till one of the girls answered, "A place to put women in."A man in a western State drives an ox team that once belonged to an intemperate man, and that got so used to stopping for him at saloons that now, when passing a saloon, the animals will not move until their new owner goes in to get a drink. He doesn't care for the liquor, he says, but is obliged to drink to get his team along. He has refused $5000 for the oxen.An Austin teacher, who has frequent occasion to punish his pupils, asked one of them the other day if he knew why he had been punished. The boy was silent."Don't you know," said the teacher, "that you were whipped because you were disobedient?""That wasn't the reason," said the boy sullenly.

"What was the reason, then?"

"Because you are bigger than I am."

A colored man who had contracted a debt some years ago with one of our merchants came to town lately and called on his old creditor. "Didn't you explain to me dat if I settled up dat account you would give me a 'lowance'?" said the darkey to the merchant.—
"Yes, I did say so, Sam," said the merchant. "If you are ready to settle your bill now I will make a good allowance," and the merchant waited for the colored individual to pull out his pocketbook. "Well, sir, I hasn't got de money jus' now, but I thought I'd come in an' get de 'lowance."In a Newburyport (Mass.) family where there are two boys, one of them brought home a worthless cur, to the disgust of the rest of the family. At last the older sister offered him half a dollar if he would give the dog away.
He assented and pocketed the coin.— When night came, prompted by curiosity, she asked the little fellow to whom he had given his dog, and was told with a charming naivete, "Oh, I've given him to my brother.""Well, Father Brown, how did you like the sermon yesterday?" asked a young preacher."You see, parsons," was the reply, "I haven't a fair chance at them sermons of yours. I am an old man now and have to sit pretty well back by the stove; and there's old Miss Smithe, Widder Taff, and Rylan's darters 'n Nabby Birt in all the rest a settin' in front o' me with their mouths wide open a swallerin' down all the best of the sermon, an' what gets down to me is pretty poor stuff, parson, pretty poor stuff."
