Grief Items.

Buckwheat cakes will probably be small and scarce too next winter. In most places, so poor a buckwheat crage was never known.

Four letters are received from different townships the past week, all complaining of the extreme drought, and the general failure of crops.

The Lutheran Sunday School of this, place will hold a picnic in Judge Grier's woods on next Saturday. The band is expected to be present. A cordial inviexpected to be present. tation is extended to all.

On Saturday night a week, burglars entered the store of Mr. Uhler in Baskinsville, and carried away some goods. One bundle was found on the Rail-road track, a short distance above the Station.

⁶ The Mt. Fairview Sabbath School will hold a basket picnic in J. Zang's grove in Oliver twp., on Saturday next. No huckstering allowed as there will be a table for the benefit of the school. The young folks will have a cake walk in the evening.

A basket picule will be held by the three Sabbath Schools of Elliottsburg, in Stambaugh's woods near Green Park, on Saturday the 17th of September, 1881. Ministers of different denominations are expected to be present, to deliver addresses. All are invited to attend.

It will be good news to the traveling pub-lic to know that the P. R. R. will not allow the news agents to peddle on the middle division. The order was to go middle division. The order was to go into effect on the 1st inst. but the time was extended till the 3rd to give an opportunity to close out stock. We hope the order will be general over all the lines in the United States. The sale of articles on railroads should be limited to newsdapers.

Church Notices,

Presbyterian Church-Preaching next Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Sun-day School at half past 9 A. M. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening.

Prayer Meeting in the Reformed church next Sunday at 101 o'clock, Sunday School at 9 o'clock.

Excursion Tickets .- The Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will hold their annual fair at the Exposition building, Allegheny City, commencing September 5th and closing September 17th. For the benefit of those wishing to attend, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Pittsburg from Harrisburg and all ticket stations east of Altoona, on September 5th, 6th and 7th, good to return for ten days and on September 12th, 13th, and 14th, good for the return trip for five days from date.

The Printers' Picule.-The Executive Committee of The Juniata Valley Printers' Association, had arranged for a two days' jollification to such as could get away for that time, and had selected Bedford Springs as the place. The Penn R.R., & the B:oadtop R. R. Co., had came to the aid of the committee in a manner calculated to earn the gratitude of the printers, and furnished transportation which was good from the 2nd to the 5th of Sept., inclusive for all the members of the association and their lady friends. The trip was greatly en-in a manner entirely satisfactory. A business meeting was held Saturday 10 A. M., at which an address of welcome was made by Mr. Kerr, of Bedford Gazette, to which J. C. Wallis, Esq., of Perry County responded. At this meeting the fee for membership was raised to $1 and by vote of the meeting the territorial limits of the association was/ extended so as to take in Sommerset County. The meeting, after electing the following officers for the ensuing year adjourned sine die.

Bone Broken .- On Wednesday a week, a son of Wm. Kistler, residing on the farm belonging to Rev. S. W. Slebert In Centre township, was on a wagon with some barrels when one of them rolled and threw the little fellow out. It was not thought he was much hurt but on last Wednesday he complained of pain in his shoulder and could not raise his his arm. He was then brought in to Dr-Strickler, when it was found that the collar bone had been fractured by the fall, and had already commenced to knit again, though out of place. The Dr. had to break the bone again before he could set it, which made rather a painful operation.

Weather Report.-B. McIntire, Esq., hands us the following report of the weather for the month of August, 1881. Average of thermometer at 8 o'clock A. M., 66° 3' and of barometer 30 inches minus 5 tenths. Average of greateat heat 70° 26' and of cold 50° 7'. Friday the 5th was the warmest day the thermometer registering 84, and Wednesday the 24th the coldest the mercury sinking to 52. There fell 2 inches of rain but this was in such small quantities at one time that it done no good to vegetation., This was the smallest fall of rain for the month of August for many years, and longest continued drought for weatherboarded one and being dry,burnt very fast. It was unlasured .- Franklin Repository.

Juniata County .- We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week :

[From the Port Royal Times]

The scarlet fever has entirely atated in Port Royal, and very little sickness prevails here at this time, glad to say.

On last Monday night while the fami-ly of Mr. Samuel Crawford was attend-ing the cake walk at North Point church there was a wolf took the advantage of their absence and captured one of his valuable ewes, which was of blooded stock. The wolf has been heard several stock. The wolf has been heard several times this summer along the Shade mountain between McKinley's and Crawford's. Mr. J. B. Kirk gathered up a full force the next morning and scoured the mountain in search of the wolf, but found neither wolf nor sheep. We hope it may be captured before it does any more damage.

On Friday afternoon Mr. Harry Par-ker, brakeman on Harrisburg local freight, while assisting in unloading a a barrel of sugar at Mount Uuion, trip-ped and fell his nose striking the rail, the weight of the barrel failing first on his shoulder and then on his head, breaking his nose in two places, crush-ing and bruising his face and forehead in an ugly manner. The great wonder is that he was not instantly killed, and as it was he made a very parrow escape as it was he made a very narrow escape from death. He was brought to his home on Friday night, attended by a physician from Mt. Union and several employees. Drs. Crawford and Banks, are paying the injured man every attention, and he is slowly improving.

Rev. David Moist was in town on Saturday, having recovered from the op-eration of the removal of cancer from his face.

The barn of David Kauffman, in Walker township, was destroyed by fire on Monday night. Nearly all the farming implements were stored in and about the barn and were destroyed.— I wo horses and a calf were burned with the building. The crop was all in the straw, excepting about 90 bushels of wheat, which lay on the barn floor.— Some oats had been threshed, but that wasfall in the barn excepting about six bushels, and that is all that is left of the crop of this year. The loss is estimated The barn of David Kauffman, in crop of this year. The loss is estimated at $2,300. No insurance. The fire was was started according to report about 10 o'clock. From certain tracks it is believed by some persons that a man came along in a wagon, stopped a moment or two at the barn, and in that time set it on fire and drove away.

John N. Kerr, living beyond Patter-son, was out in his garden, pulling weeds, one day last week, when a black viper sprang out of the grass. The snake sprang at Mr. Kerr's face, but he was too quick for the reptile and stood erect before the snake had sprung its length. The poisonous thing did not. however miss him entirely; its fangs passed through the shirt-sleeve of his right arm and slightly scratched or punctured the skin of the arm. Dr. Eider was called. No serious harm re-sulted from the slight scratch. Mr. Kerr was too much shocked to immediately attack the snake, and before he recover-ed himself sufficiently to kill the thing It had escaped.

[From The Democrat and Register.]

Rev. J. A. McGill, of McCoysville, took a ten-year-old son with him to Concord, on Sunday, the 20th inst., where he went to preach, and stopped with Mr. John Robertson. While there, his son went to the stable by himself. He was absent but a short time when the in-mates of the house were startled by his screams. They went to see what was wrong with him, and found that a cross wrong with him, and found that a cross sow, which had a litter of pigs, had the boy down and his clothes nearly torn off him. They rescued the boy from the sow and took him into the house, and, upon examination, found that he was badly bitten on the right arm and hand and on the left hip. He has been lying at Mr. Robertson's from the ef-fects of the wound since the occurrence: fects of the wound since the occurrence; but, we are informed, he has now recov ered sufficiently to, and will, be brought to his home at McCoysville, sometime this week.

Mr. S. being the driver, got off the pow-er to adjust a block that the coupling runs on. By so doing one leg of his panialoons was caught by the knuckles of the coupling and every vestige of clothing was torn from his hody. Be-fore Mr. S got away the sweep of the power came around and passed over him bruising him considerably. Mr. Shanabrough is dancerously

Mr. Shanabrough is dangerously hurt about the abdomen. He made a very narrow escape from being killed.

[From the Herald & Mirror.]

This morning, about five o'clock, as Mrs. Adam Fredericks, residing on North Pitt street, was passing from the house to the yard, she tripped and feil, dislocating her left shoulder. Dr. Keif-fer was sent for and upon arriving ren-dered the necessary medical aid. At this writing the patient is doing as well as could be expected.

A few days ago the folks about Mi-A few days ago the torks about An-chael Brandt's place along the Dillsburg railroad, discovered a strange smell about the barn. A search was made, and on 'Thursday night they discovered that it proceeded from the hay mow, which contained about fifty tons of hay which contained about fifty tons of hay. which contained about fifty tons of hay. On digging down it was found that the hay was ou fire, and had been slowly smouldering for three or four days.— The water from the railroad tank was turned on, and hands set to work to remove the hay from the barn. Great care had to be taken, as every now and then the flames would burst forth. It was finally removed and the here aved was finally removed, and the barn saved. The hay is a total loss, as it is burnt and scorched as black as a coal. The fire originated in the lower part of the mow, and was, no doubt, caused by the heating of the hay.

As the evening train pulled in yester-day evening, Mrs. F. Kelso, residing a short distance from town, and who had been visiting the Grangers' Picnic, alighted from the cars and immediately missed her pocket book, containing about thirteen dollars. As the crowd was large, there was no use of looking after it, and it was given up as lost.

Hezekiah Weaver and family, of Up-per Allen township, were taken sick with what was supposed to be diarrhoa, and for days they suffered from the mal-ady, from the effects of which Mr. Weaver died last week after being re-duced almost to a skeleton. The rest of the family are recovering slowly from the disease. A rumor is corrent, and the disease. A rumor is corrent, and we endeavored to trace it to an authenthe source, but could not, that Mr. Weav-er and family were poisoned by eating potatoes which had been sprinkled with Paris green. As we stated, this is a rumor: it may be true, and we shall continue our investigations until we shall satisfied as to its truthfulness or not.

The Coming Bonnet,-The new fall bonnet is just too sweet for anything. It is made out of some kind of stuff, sort of delicate in texture and of a rather lightish color, kind of cut away on the sides and shoved back on the top, and scooped out underneath, and trimmed with a sort of ribbon stuff that looks nice, and some kind of other sort of material that is quite becoming and it is all fixed on it in that kind of a way which looks so much like something we cannot remember, and the whole effect is just exquisite, reminding us of a most beautiful something or other whose name we cannot call to mind.

Burglary .- On Wednesday night last thieves broke a pannel in the basement door of A. F. Keim, esq.'s residence, on Fourth street, and then unbolting the door entered the house, which they proceeded to ransack from top to bottom. Mr. Keim and his entire family had been away visiting for the week previous, and came back on Thursday afternoon. This fact was known by the burglars. Neighbors having seen a light in the house on Wednesday night thought Mr. Keim and family had returned, which fixes the night the house was entered. The securing of money and valuables alone seemed to have been the marauders' mission, who carried away two revolvers a coat and perhaps a few other valuless articles .- Newport News.

SAMUEL ROATH, P. M.

Overcome by the Heat. - Yesterday morning John Kinney, an engineer on west side of the mountains started with his engine the 355 to pull ahead on St. Louis day express up the hill from Conemaugh to Gallitzin. When near Portage and while the train was going at full speed he was taken sick suddenly and fainted. He fell over the hot boiler, burning his left hand and bruising his head. The fireman pulled him back on the tender and immediately whistled down brakes. The train was stopped and Kinney was taken on board one of the coaches and brought to this city .-Mr. Tom Wilson who was hauling the train took charge of Kinney's engine as far as Gallitzin, and left his own engine in charge of his fireman and assistant road foreman Mr. John Bownan, who happened to be on board. Mr. Kinney's injuries were dressed by the company's physician and he returned home on way passenger. He was probably unwell when he started, having lost considerable sleep which together with the intense heat, prostrated him. We do not remember of a similar occurrence on the road.-Altoona Tribune of 31st ult.

On Monday night a bright light of fire was seen in the direction of Strasburg .-We learn that it was the house of Mr. John O. Lehman, on the Strasburg road, one mile north of Rocky Spring. The following are the particulars : Mrs. Lehman had gone to the garret early in the evening for the purpose of getting some bed clothing, carrying a candle with her. About half past eight smoke was smelt and on running out of the house the family discovered their home in a blaze. As it was fruitless to attempt saving the building, all attention was turned towards the barn which stood near by. It and a few articles in the house were saved. Mr. Lehman says as the fire originated in the garret it is supposed it was the work of the candle in some manner or other. The building was a

A barn belonging to Mrs. Fyler, one all its contents, on Friday afternoon a week. The origin of the fire is supposed to be from some little boys who were playing with matches.

On Tuesday last as a son of Samuel Bowers, of Newton township, on the Ridge Road, was hauling water from the Green Spring to supply the boiler of an engine that was at work threshing on the place, he had his leg badly mangled by being run over by the wagon. He was standing on the rubber beam draw-ing the rubbers, when he was in some ing the rubbers, when he was in some way thrown under the wagon. The wheel passed from his foot to his knee and strange to say while the flesh was crushed almost to a jelly no bones were broken.

The other day Mr. Keiser took his gun and went to a stream of water near gun and went to a stream of water near by for the purpose of shooting a mink which he knew harbored there.— While sighting around he observed among the grass what he supposed to be the mink. He drew a fine bead on the object and fired. When he came to examine his game he found it to be his own valuable dog, which he greatly prized. prized.

Last Thursday Joseph Shenabrough, who is a tenant living on the farm of Wm. Wagner, about one-fourth mile east of town, met with an accident.— Mr. David Beecher, who owns a separa-tor which is propelled by horse power, was threshing for Mr. Shanabrough.—

F. W. Helmick, Music Publisher, 150 Elm Street, Cincinnati, O., has just published one of the most beautiful songs that has of late years come to this office. Everybody ought to buy R, and everybody ought to sing it. It refers to the noble wife of President Garfield, refers to the noble wife of President Garneld, who has stood by her husband during the ter-rible struggle for life in which he has been en-gaged since July 2ad, cheering him, encourag-ing him, urging him to keep steady, persevere, and he would yet conquer. The following words constitute the chorus of the charming little sone. little song :

Chonus.

Stand by him, little woman ! Stand firm and brave and true !

And remember little woman.

We will always stand by you.
