KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL REMEDY EVER discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read Proof Below.
From Rev. N. P. Granger,
Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District,
St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.
DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO., Gents:—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three or four years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with it, cured a horse of lameness caused by Spavin. Last season my horse became very lame and I turned him out for a few weeks when he became better, but when I put him on the road he grew worse, when I discovered that a ring-bone was forming. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure, and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is not lame, neither can the bunch be found.
Respectfully yours,
P. N. GRANGER.

Perseverance Will Tell!

Stoughton, Mass., March 16th, 1880.
B. J. Kendall & Co., Gents:—In justice to you and myself, I think I ought to let you know that I have removed TWO BONE SPAVINS with Kendall's Spavin Cure. One very large one; don't know how long the Spavin had been there. I have owned the horse eight months. It took me four months to take the large one off, and two months for the small one. I have used 10 bottles. The horse is entirely well, not at all stiff, and no bunch to be seen or felt. This is a wonderful medicine. It is a new thing here, but if it does for all what it has done for me its sale will be very great.
Respectfully yours,
CHAS. E. PARKER.

Is sure in effects, mild in its action as it does not blister, and yet is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement, if used for several days, such as spavins, splints, curbs, calous sprains, swellings, any lameness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects. It is used full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.
Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualified success, to our knowledge, for beast as well as man. Price $1. per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All Druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors.
DR. J. B. KENDALL & CO.,
Enosburg Falls, Vermont.

"Kendall's Spavin Cure" is now sold by all the leading wholesale druggists and a large number of prominent retail druggists.

At one of Lord Holland's dinners the conversation turned upon first love. Tom Moore compared it to a potato, because it shoots from the eyes. Byron added, "rather because it becomes all the less by pairing."

We know a man so cross-eyed that he put his hand into another man's pocket and abstracted therefrom a watch. He wanted to learn the time. "The judge told him it would be three years."

In Norway the longest day lasts three months. The man who six months ago promised to call in a day or two and settle his little bill, must have gone to Norway on a visit.

Wit and Wisdom: "It's sot you are, winter or summer," said the snappish wife to her drunken husband. "And it's scold you are, summer or winter," he replied with a malicious grin.

"And it's school enough for me all this time," thought the little daughter, who was wishing for holidays.

California has a girl ten years old who is a wonderful rifle shot. She breaks glass balls and hits ten cent pieces. She's a servant girl with an aim. There is a servant girl in this county, who is not a wonderful rifle shot, but she breaks glass dishes and other ware and spends ten cent pieces. She's a "girl with a name," too.

A Good Answer.

A correspondent writes, "Just after we left Bounceville, Judge O., of Charlottesville, commenced his jokes, and soon had all the passengers in a roar. I'll tell you what I can do, said the judge, "You may think of any tune you please, whether I have heard it or not, and by seeing you keep the time with your fingers, I can tell you what you are playing." The correspondent was skeptical. After thinking a moment, he commenced piano-playing on the back of a seat in front of him, with all the grace of a professional. "What am I playing now," he asked eagerly and with an air of triumph. "You are playing the fool," replied the judge."

Sandy's Experience With Mint-Juleps.

Mr. John Greig, who, for the session commencing in 1841, represented the Canandaigua District in Congress (in place of Francis Granger, who resigned to accept the office of Postmaster-General), was a well-preserved Scotchman, as well in purse as in person, and very fond of entertaining in a princely manner. He invited a small dinner party in order to entertain a Scotch friend who had but recently arrived in America.—The hour named had fully come and passed, but the honored guest had not. Mr. Greig became uneasy and nervous, for the servants had long since reported the courses ready for serving. He went out on the porch and looked down the avenue to see if he could get a sight of his friend, when, lo! there comes "Sandy," much as if he had a hundred pounds or so upon his shoulders—in fact, he was a sheet or two in the wind, as it were. Greig took in the situation at once, and, hastening down the avenue, met the happy guest, and readily got him beneath his roof. Although "Sandy" was glorious, his mental powers were yet steady. He said: "John, I'll tell ye hoo it a' came about. While waiting at the hotel for the oor to come, I saw some Yonkees at the bar a-drinkin' som, at I coodna tell by sight what its name may be. It was a mixture of sugar and lemon and lumps of ice, and may be some else; but the bar-keeper shook the mixture between twa tumblers until it foamed and sparkled like an aurora borealis; then he put in some sprigs resembling meadow mint, and then the Yonkees quaffed the liquid through a sprig of a rye straw, and they drank wi' a leer, as if it was unco guid. I stepped to the bar-keeper and speered to ken the name o' the liquid, when he said it was a "jollup," or "jewlip," or something like to it in the sound. I told him I'd tok you: but, oh, mon, it was no bod to tok! The fak is, John, afoor Kenned what I was about, I had made 'way wi' seven, a' through a bit o' rye staw. Noo, John, if I had but kenned the power o' the thing, and hod quot at six, my heed would no feel as if the pipers and the fiddlers were playing lively reels in it, and a score o' lads and lassies were dancing in glee a' about it. Noo, John, if ye be minded ever to try you Yonkee "jollups," tok my advice and be content wi' six at a sittin'.—Mind ye, if ye try seven, ye maun beware nor Tam o' Shanter or mysel'; six is quite enough, John."—Harper's Magazine for May.
